The Buena Vista Trustees will conduct a regular meeting tonight beginning at 7pm.

1/17/24

A group of Fremont County homeowners has filed an appeal with the State of Colorado in hopes of overturning an Australian company's permit to drill for uranium.

The project is located on the Hansen Deposit, which is part of Tallahassee Creek in Fremont County. The homeowners say they want to know the environmental and health impacts that come with drilling for uranium before the company begins.

The homeowners say their biggest concern is uranium seeping into the groundwater, as many in the area get their drinking water from wells. Others are also concerned about the impact on wildlife in the area.

The state appeal hearing is taking place today in Denver.

1/18/24

The Custer County Sheriff's Office is reporting on their Facebook page that they received notification that a lawsuit had been filed against three former deputies and one current detention deputy. The lawsuit alleges that a deputy used excessive force while arresting a 16-year-old and that two other deputies, along with one current detention deputy, failed to intervene. The incident occurred on January 18, 2022. The allegation is that deputies responded to a call about a runaway teenager and ignored signs of sexual assault and human trafficking and instead repeatedly tased the 16-year-old girl.

The press release states that the current sheriff, Rich Smith, has not yet been served with the lawsuit but is very concerned about the allegations.

1/19/24

A week after heavy snow, Colorado has seen a notable improvement in snowpack.

1/23/24

Chaffee and Fremont County Commissioners say they're concerned over a recent change in the office of 11th Judicial District Attorney Linda Stanley.

They say her office is now operating on a four-day, 32-hour week, and they believe the decision will hinder the office's ability to prosecute criminal cases.

Chaffee County Commissioner Greg Felt said, "It's not a game. We're seeing cases dismissed, we're seeing sanctions that lead to lighter sentences for truly serious crimes."

The commissioners argued the schedule change will have a ripple effect and possibly jeopardize the prosecution of criminal cases.

1/24/24

Monday was the deadline to circulate and turn in trustee candidate petitions for the Town of Buena Vista April election. Six candidates returned petitions. They are Michal Rosenoer, Andrew Rice, Thomas Brown, Margaret Huyck, Devin Rowe, and Andy Matkovich.

The Colorado Department of Transportation is reminding drivers headed to the mountains this holiday weekend to ensure their vehicles are prepared for winter roads.

With busier roadways forecast this weekend, the Colorado State Patrol and local law enforcement are teaming up for the Presidents Day Weekend DUI enforcement period.

Drivers will see sobriety checkpoints and additional law enforcement on duty dedicated to arresting impaired drivers.

2/19/24

The City of Salida has announced that F Street will remain open to vehicular traffic this summer. In a press release, the City said, “a number of concerns have been identified by community members and City staff with keeping the street closed. Downtown is the highest risk for the fire department and during the closure, access to downtown buildings by fire or other safety officers was severely limited. Barricading the streets makes our downtown corridor less universally accessible and creates challenges for people to find parking and frequent their favorite shops and restaurants.”

The City said they are currently working to improve the signage throughout town, including downtown. Investments in beautification and lighting will take place this summer.

2/20/24

Colorado Parks and Wildlife is hosting an Ice Fishing 101 clinic this Sunday at Eleven Mile State Park.
