

Quarterly Issues Programs List for KJCK-AM

July 1st – September 30th

Placed in the Public File October 1st

The station has identified the following issues as significant issues facing our community in this quarter.

Section One Issue:

1. Negotiations between the City and County on continuing consolidated Chamber of Commerce. Will County concern about funding require changes or possible removal of the CVB from the consolidated agreement?
2. Plans and execution of Victory Fest...the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the 1st Infantry Division
3. School funding. What will happen following a Kansas Supreme Court review, and what will be the impact on USD 475?
4. There has been a push to clean up local properties. Will that continue by local leaders in the third quarter?
5. Junction City Commission candidates will vie for a seat on the governing body in the primary election.

Section Responsive Programs

The station has broadcast programming dealing with each of the above referenced issues. Programming dealing with each issue is set out below.

A. Negotiations between the City and County on a continuing consolidated Chamber of Commerce. Will County concern about funding require changes or possible removal of the CVB from the consolidated arrangement?

JC Now broadcast - July 6 at 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Geary County Commissioner Keith Ascher discussed the County budget for 2018, including the potential impact on the removal of the CVB from the consolidated Chamber. At the end of the quarter no further action has been taken on this issue by either the County or Chamber. It has remained quiet.

B. Plans and execution of Victory Fest...the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the 1st Infantry Division

JC Now broadcast - July 17 at 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Junction City Area Chamber of Commerce Military Affairs Director John Seitz discussed plans for the Victory Fest celebration in August

JC Now broadcast - August 16 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Fort Riley Garrison Commander John Lawrence previewed Victory Fest from performing groups to parking and ceremonies.

JC Now broadcast - August 24 - 7:20 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Junction City Area Chamber of Commerce Military Affairs Director John Seitz talked about the progress of Victory Fest, and previewed the Division Review scheduled the next day.

C. School funding. What will happen following a Kansas Supreme Court review and what will be the impact on USD 475?

JC Now broadcast - July 4 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. State Representative Lonnie Clark reviewed the school finance measures taken to that point by the legislature, and what to expect following a Kansas Supreme Court ruling.

JC Now broadcast -- August 8 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. USD 475 Superintendent of Schools Dr. Corbin Witt reviewed the state of school funding as the new school year approached.

D. There has been a push to clean up local properties. Will that continue by local leaders in the third quarter?

JC Now broadcast - September 25 at 8:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. The need for community cleanup particularly along Grant Avenue and Washington Street was reviewed by city commissioner Mick McCallister. There has been progress but more needs to be done, particularly on Grant Avenue. McCallister says it's time to reinvent Grant Avenue.

E. Junction City Commission candidates will vie for a seat on the governing body in the primary election.

Candidate forums - KJCK AM aired city commission primary election candidate forums 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. on July 25, 26 and 27. Candidates expressed their views on topics and responded to questions from callers.

KJCK AM Public Affairs Third Quarter July 1st – September 30th

Junction City Issues

JC Now broadcast - August 17 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Junction City Public Works Director Ray Ibarra discussed the progress on local street projects. They ranged from milling and overlay on North Washington to work on a walking trail along West 6th Street and K-18 Highway.

JC Now broadcast - August 17 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes Junction City Manager Allen Dinkel reviewed the 2018 City budget.

JC Now broadcast - September 25 8:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Junction City Commissioner Mick McCallister covered the efforts to clean up areas along Washington Street and Grant Avenue. He feels it's time to reinvent Grant Avenue.

JC Now broadcasts -- July 7 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes, July 28 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes, September 22 Duration 10 minutes Junction City Mayor Phyllis Fitzgerald discussed community cleanup projects she has led or participated in.

JC Now broadcast - 7:20a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Junction City Fire Chief Terry Johnson reviewed the collection of items by the Fire Department for flood victims of Hurricane Harvey in Texas and their planned delivery to them.

Geary County Issues

JC Now broadcast -- July 6 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Geary County Commissioner Keith Ascher reviewed the proposed 2018 County budget.

JC Now broadcast - July 7 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Geary County Emergency Management Director Garry Berges reviewed a grant obtained by his department to purchase pet masks for use on pets in emergencies.

JC Now broadcast -- July 19 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Representatives from the Geary County Health Department reviewed the plans for student physicals and immunizations

JC Now broadcast - July 19 8:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Geary County Clerk Rebecca Bossemeyer reviewed the upcoming Junction City Commission primary election.

JC Now broadcast - August 7 8:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Geary County Health Department Director Tammy Von Busch reviewed the plans for outreach efforts by that department.

JC Now broadcast - September 21 7:20 a.m. Geary County Clerk Rebecca Bossemeyer reviewed information for the upcoming November 7 election including voter registration.

JC Now broadcast - September 21 7:48 Duration 12 minutes. Geary County Extension Agent Deb Andres discussed the upcoming annual medicare enrollment.

JC Now broadcast - August 17 8:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. County HR Director John Thummel Reviewed Geary County Human Resource operations and hiring needs for the County.

JC Now broadcast - August 3 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Geary County Register of Deeds Diane Briestensky reviewed her job duties.

Agriculture Issues

JC Now broadcast - July 24 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Geary County Extension Agent Chuck Otte talked about the National Agricultural meeting he attend. One topic focused on learning for women in agriculture.

KC Now broadcast - September 14 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Geary County Extension Agent Chuck Otte talked about the impact on soybean crops and motorists of extensive butterflies moving through the region.

JC Now broadcast - September 18 7:20 and 7:48 a.m. Duration 22 minutes. Jim Schmidt and Chuck Otte discussed Farm Safety advice

Education Issues

JC Now broadcast - July 4 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. State Representative Lonnie Clark reviewed legislative action on education and potential Supreme Court action

JC Now broadcast - July 31 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Mary Kay Stauffer and James Russell talked about the USD 475 Boys and Girls Club preparations for the upcoming school year.

JC Now broadcast - July 31 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Saint Xavier School Principal Shawn Augustine reviewed plans and enrollment for the upcoming school year.

JC Now broadcast - August 8 and September 6 7:20 and 7:48 a.m. Duration 22 minutes. USD 475 Superintendent Dr. Corbin Witt and the Executive Director of Communication Corbin Witt reviewed the early school year plans including the return of teachers and students to the classroom.

JC Now broadcast - July 19 7:20 a.m. United Way Executive Director Nicole Mahder reviewed the collection of items for Stuff the Bus....back to school supplies for children in USD 475 and Saint Xavier.

JC Now broadcast - August 10 8:20 a.m. JCHS Principal Melissa Sharp reviewed the plans for back to school when students return.

JC Now broadcast - September 6 8:20 a.m. Brian Field and Mike Heldstab reviewed the preliminary discussion that's been held for a new Junction City High School Alumni Association

JC Now broadcast - September 27 7:48 a.m. The Director of Secondary Education at JCHS Vern Steffens reviewed the internship program at the senior high where more than 80 students are participating.

JC Now broadcast - September 29 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Terrah Stroda, Michael Brown and David Bernard Shaw previewed the Say Yes to JCHS campaign to push for passage of a bond issue to build a new Junction City High School.

JC Now broadcast - August 15 8:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Laura Miller and Steve Green laid out the plans for a new Future Farmers of America and agriculture program at JCHS.

Law Enforcement Issues

JC Now broadcast - July 10 8:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Geary County Sheriff Tony Wolf reviewed Freedom Park reopening and what the guidelines were for public usage of the Geary County area near I-70.

JC Now broadcast - July 13 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. JCPD Captain Keith Fitzgerald talked about DUI / Speeding enforcement patrols planned in the community. The goal was to deter drunk driving.

JC Now broadcast - August 2 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Geary County Attorney Krista Blaisdell covered major cases and caseload issues.

JC Now broadcast -- July 6 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. JCPD Captain Chuck Leithoff reviewed community policing plans including work and activities with youth.

JC Now broadcast - July 30 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Grandview Plaza Police Chief Shawn Perrano reviewed law enforcement in that community.

Fort Riley Issues

JC Now broadcast - July 25 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Sgt. Steven Wagner previewed upcoming Army Chamber of Commerce band concerts

JC Now broadcast -- August 16 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Colonel James Lawrence previewed plans for Victory Fest

JC Now broadcast - September 12 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Fort Riley Historical and Archaeological Society representatives previewed the upcoming Apple Day celebration and fundraiser on post.

JC Now broadcast - July 3 7:48 a.m. Lieutenant Alex Schede talked about the functions of the Fort Riley Commanding General's Mounted Color Guard.

Community Issues

JC Now broadcast - :July 20 and 7:48 a.m. Duration 22 minutes. Live Well Geary County talked about their efforts to obtain a $500,000 grant to develop plans to feed the hungry in the community.

JC Now broadcast - July 25 7:20 a.m. Joy Davis talked about a needed community survey to help obtain a community development block grant to help finance Fifth Street Playground Park improvements

JC Now broadcast - July 27 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Bob Cevera previewed the 2017 Jammin in JC

JC Now broadcast - July 10 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Tom and Joyce McRae outlined an upcoming Red Cross blood drive.

JC Now broadcast - July 6 7:48 a.m. and July 7 8:20 a.m. Duration 22 minutes. She covered the ongoing activities of Sundown Salute.

JC Now broadcast - July 11 7:20 and 7:48 a.m. Duration 22 minutes. Daryl Block and Rodeo Association officials covered the upcoming Junction City Rodeo.

JC Now broadcast - July 14 John Kovac reviewed the new book he is writing about John Brinkley, the quack doctor and pirate radio broadcaster that operated in Geary County in the 1930's.

JC Now broadcast - July 28 7:48 Duration 12 minutes. Geary County Historical Museum representatives Katie Goerl and Heather Hagedorn reviewed the plans for the Flood of 93 discussion at Memories at the Museum

JC Now broadcast - August 1 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Rick Dykstra reviewed the algae issue and Kansas Wildscape golf and fishing tournament coming to Milford Lake.

JC Now broadcast - August 3 - 7:20 a.m. Bill Whitworth reviewed the Corps of Engineer plans for the 50-year anniversary celebration of the Milford Lake Dam.

JC Now broadcast - August 4 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Nicole Mahder reviewed the upcoming fundraising campaign for United Way.

JC Now broadcast - August 8 8:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Ted Hayden reviewed the operations of the Junction City Family YMCA.

JC Now broadcast - August 15 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Shannon Rosauer reviewed the success of the Summer Picnic Parties for hungry children in Junction City.

JC Now broadcast - August 18 7:20 and 7:48 Duration 22 minutes. Deb and Ken Wood recalled their experiences after a tornado destroyed their home and how their recovery has been progressing.

JC Now broadcast - August 22 7:20 and 7:48 a.m. duration 22 minutes. Father Kyle Berens and Saint X Principal Shawn Augustine discussed the upcoming 150-year celebration for the Saint Xavier parish.

JC Now broadcast - August 23 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Allyson Shaddock and Meredith Butler outlined the need for Truancy Court volunteers.

JC Now broadcast - August 28 7:20 and 7:48 a.m. Duration 22 minutes. Susan Adams and Molly Kurtz highlighted the new Big Red One 100 Years exhibit at the Flint Hills Discovery Center.

JC Now broadcast - August 30 8:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes Tom McRae talked about his experience helping flood and weather disaster victims around the country.

JC Now broadcast - September 5 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes Jo Brunner previewed the upcoming Patriot Day career fair.

JC Now broadcast - September 7 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. The Geary Community Hospital Medical Explorer program for high school students was reviewed by Nancy Detmer.

JC Now broadcast - September 11 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes July Govert-Walter advanced the Senior Fair that is attended by many Geary County residents.

JC Now broadcast - September 15 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Vincent Van Cleave previewed the upcoming POW / MIA ceremony.

JC Now broadcast - September 19 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Dani Holiday and Nikki Davies covered the health needs assessment for Live Well Geary County and Geary Community Hospital.

JC Now broadcast - September 27 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Justin Wren talked about a successful summer at Milford State Park.

JC Now broadcast - September 28 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Charles Volland and Mary Hogan covered the 100 year history of the Junction City Noon Rotary Club.

JC Now broadcast - September 29 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Geary Community Hospital Administrator Joe Stratton covered the progress of the construction for the Children's Mercy pediatric clinics being built at Geary Community Hospital, and the preliminary discussions with Salina Regional Health Center about a potential alliance between the two hospitals.

Recreation Issues

JC Now broadcast - July 26 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes Cecil Aska reviewed the progress of the Junction City Brigade summer collegiate baseball team. Their season had just ended.

JC Now broadcast - August 2 8:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Randall Zimmerman previewed the upcoming Blue Jay football season.

JC Now broadcast - August 11 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. GG Booth covered the beginning of the Lady Jay volleyball season.

JC Now broadcast - September 8 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Jeff Underhill talked about the plans for Junior Baseball tryouts.

JC Now broadcast - September 26 7:48 a.m. Duration 12 minutes. Rick Bazan reviewed the new obstacle course and physical therapy operation at the Junction City Athletic Training Center.

JC Now broadcast - September 28 7:20 a.m. Duration 10 minutes. Ty Zimmerman talked about his JCHS and K-State football career