05/05/18 48 HOURS: “Don’t Scream” – a report on Tiffany Mead of Davis County, Utah, a young mother who called 911 claiming she had sliced her own throat while her ex-husband and child watched. When first responders arrived, the cut was so deep, police questioned whether it was really a suicide attempt. Medical experts claim there is no physical way she could have committed the act herself. Later, Mead changed her story: it wasn’t suicide, it was her estranged husband Kris Ertmann, who tried to kill her. Mead claimed she met Ertmann in a secluded park to get a child support check. He suddenly grabbed her in a bear hug and slit her throat. Thinking she was about to die, she drove the car to a parking lot which became a second crime scene. An investigation led to Ertman being arrested and charged with attempted murder. He claimed he could not remember anything and had PTSD. Additional investigating revealed Ertmann ultimately trying to arrange a hit on his estranged wife, resulting in an undercover cop posing as a hit man and getting instructions from Ertmann to kill his wife. The case never went to trial. Prosecutors offered a deal to plead no contest, and will spend the rest of his life in prison. Tiffany Mead lives with her new husband and her emotional support dog. On-screen text graphic: Kristopher Ertmann's next parole hearing is set for May 24, 2018. 05/12/18 48 HOURS: “Dark Side of the Mesa” (9:00 - 10:00p) - A followup to “Dark Side of the Mesa” (OAD: 10/09/04) a report about the 2004 conviction of Michael Blagg for the murder of his wife and daughter. Blagg and his family have steadfastly maintained his innocence and Blagg’s attorneys have filed appeals which were denied, but in 2014, in a bombshell decision, the conviction was overturned and a new trial began in February 2018. In 2004, Blagg, after being unable contact his wife all day, came home from work to find his wife and daughter gone, and a bloody crime scene. Police were puzzled, as there was no evidence of an attack. Investigators had doubts and Blagg was considered a suspect from the beginning. Investigators learned Blagg and his wife had argued over his addiction to hard-core pornography and he then became the chief suspect. Seven months later, Jennifer’s body was found in a landfill mixed with garbage from her husband’s employer. Abby Blagg has never been located. In 2004, without taking the stand at his trial, he was convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison. Blagg and his attorneys continued to file appeals, and in 2014, the conviction was overturned because of juror misconduct and a new trial was granted. The juror was tried for contempt of court. A new attorney took over Blagg’s case. In February 2018, Michael Blagg stood trial again and was the star witness. His family steadfastly stands behind him, convinced he is innocent. After a five-week trial, Blagg is found guilty of first degree murder. Blagg’s family still believes in him. Fourteen years after the first verdict, he is sentenced to life without parole, the same sentence as the first trial. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 05/12/18      48 HOURS: “Lorenzen Wright: No Defense” (10:00 - 11:00p) - an investigation into the life of NBA superstar Lorenzen Wright, a hometown hero to many in Memphis, Tennessee and the circumstances of his 2010 murder. Police were determined to find the killer or killers and the family pushed investigators, but the case went cold, until seven years after the murder, when a key piece of evidence was located. Wright’s last words were recorded on a 911 call, along with gunshots, but the dispatcher was unaware of what was happening or who was on the end of the line. During his thirteen-year career in the NBA, Wright had endeared himself to many with his off-court activities and philanthropy, all the while spending millions on himself and his family. He had married his high school sweetheart and fathered seven kids, but the stress and strain of being a professional athlete contributed to divorce. When he was traded to Atlanta, he moved there, but his ex-wife Sheri and the kids remained in Memphis. Then in 2010, Wright seemed to have disappeared without a trace. The disappearance became one of Memphis’ greatest mysteries, until his body was located nine days later. Police looked to the family for clues and potential suspects. Sherra Wright suggested he was involved in a drug transaction, and mysterious gunmen were stalking Wright. Sherra Wright received a $1 million life insurance payout, remarried, and wrote a novel about a philandering NBA player. Then in 2017, police got a tip that led them to a lake where they found a gun believed to have been used in the murder. The case took a surprising turn: Sherra Wright and a landscaper named Billy Ray Turner were arrested. Police think they both worked together to kill Lorenzen Wright for his money. They have both entered pleas of not guilty and are awaiting trial. On-screen text graphic: Billy Ray Turner's bond was set at fifteen million dollars. Sherra Wright's bond will be set at the end of the month. Lorenzen's younger children are living with family in California. Interviewed: Bill Adkins (pastor, advocate); Marc Perrusquia (journalist, The Commercial Appeal); Phil Dotson (Wright’s best friend and fraternity brother); Gayle Rose (philanthropist, friend); April Thompson (investigative reporter, WREG, Memphis); Toney Armstrong (deputy director, Memphis Police, 2007); Kelvin Cowans (freelance reporter, former husband of Sherra Wright); Paul Hagerman (Shelby County prosecutor); Blake Ballin (Sherra Wright defense attorney); and John Keith Perry, Jr. (Turner defense attorney). - 05/19/18      48 HOURS: “Murder on Red River” – an investigation into the 2002 murder of Jennifer Harris and the search for clues to what happened to her by a former Marine and a filmmaker who believe they can find the person responsible for the murder, which has become one of the coldest cases in the history of Fannin County, Texas. Harris disappeared on May 12, 2002. Six days later her body was found floating in the Red River. Police learned that she had told at least one other person she was pregnant. Suspicion fell upon two men: James Hamilton, her ex-boyfriend and Rob Holman, her ex-husband. Both denied seeing her the night she disappeared, or being involved in her murder. Neither was arrested or charged with any related crime. In 2017, Mark Johnson, the newly elected Fannin County Sheriff, made good on a campaign promise to re-open the case. What he found was limited information and damaged, destroyed or mishandled evidence. Daryl Parker, a former sheriff’s lieutenant and Marine, now a private investigator, is working with the Harris family and with Barry Wernick, a filmmaker married to Harris’ sister, Alyssa. These two men believe that their investigation will yield clues that will solve this case. Wernick says he’s done interviews with people not initially interviewed by police and is following up on any leads he receives. 48 HOURS asked CBS News consultant/private investigator Joe Moura to examine the evidence. He believes the case is unsolvable. Parker and Wernick continue to believe it is. On-screen text graphic: If you have any information about the Jennifer Harris case, contact the Fannin County Sheriff’s Office at 903-583-2143. Interviewed: Mark Johnson (Fannin County Sheriff); Jerry Harris (father); Daryl Parker (private investigator); Alyssa Wernick (Jennifer’s sister); Barry Wernick (filmmaker and husband of Alyssa); Susan Bowen (Jennifer’s cousin); Myles Porter (former District Attorney); Rhonda Fitzwater (potential witness); and Joe Moura (CBS News Consultant/private investigator). - 05/26/18      48 HOURS PRESENTS: LIVE TO TELL: “Sophia’s Secret” (10:00 - 11:00p) - the story of Sophia Putney-Wilson, a Michigan teenager, and her work to expose the growing dangers of dating and break-up violence, following her own years of mental and physical abuse at the hands of her ex-boyfriend Adam Shigwadja. After meeting in 2011, the relationship between 14-year-old Putney-Wilson and 16-year-old Shigwadja seemed to be a typical teenage romance, but it quickly evolved into something much darker. Shigwadja often threatened to hurt himself or her family as a way to control Sophia, and after one attack, where he held her at knife point, she broke up with him. Despite a court order of separation, they started secretly seeing each other again. In 2014, she broke up with him again. Days later, he broke into her bedroom, held her at knife point and set her room on fire. Putney-Wilson was badly injured: Adam had escaped and was on the loose, and the family was terrified. Shigwadja was arrested the next day. He said that he had gone there with a knife and that his only intent was to harm himself and not Sophia. He was charged with home invasion with the intent to commit assault, and with felonious assault because he attacked Sophia with a knife. Shigwadja opted for a bench trial. Sophia testified that she felt she would only be safe if Adam was locked up. The defense argued he never meant to harm her and that his purpose for the visit was to kill himself. The judge found him guilty on home invasion and arson counts, but did not find that the burden was met for the charges of assault with intent to murder. The community was outraged. At sentencing, the judge surprised everyone, when she sentenced Adam Shigwadja to a minimum of twenty-nine years in prison. When questioned, Judge Pamela Lightroet said the uproar over her verdict had no influence on her ruling. - 05/29/18      48 HOURS: NCIS: “A Sailor’s Honor” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report about Andy Muns, a young Navy officer who vanished without a trace from a supply ship along with $8600 during the Vietnam War, and was classified as a deserter and thief. This is the NCIS organization’s oldest cold case. In 1968, Muns was a payroll officer aboard the U.S.S. Cacapon, stationed in the Philippines, when he mysteriously disappeared. He was never seen or heard from again. His family believed something sinister had happened because there was $51,000 left in the safe aboard the ship. Thirty years after her brother went missing, his sister Mary Lou Taylor tracked down the original naval investigator who admitted he had been haunted his whole life by the case, and also believed something had happened, but could not prove it. He would become part of her efforts to convince the NCIS to reopen the case. NCIS Agents tracked down crew members, eventually focusing on Michael LeBrun, who originally said that Muns had been scuba diving and had drowned. This was odd, because Muns was last seen at midnight. Then, during an interrogation, LeBrun surprised agents with a new theory, one where he might have played a role in Muns disappearance. Through significant forensic analysis and interrogation they were able to prove what had happened. After almost 40 years, his honor was restored and Muns was awarded a military funeral with full honors at Arlington National Cemetery. Interviewed: Mary Lou Taylor (sister); Megan Rose (former national correspondent, Stars & Stripes); Pete Hughes (NCIS Special agent); Jim Grebas (NCIS Special Agent, retired).
