48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: “Surviving Ted Bundy” (9:00 – 10:00p) – Karen Kleiner, Karen Chandler, and Cheryl Thomas, all attacked by serial killer Ted Bundy, tell their stories and their subsequent road to recovery. In the early morning hours of January 15th, 1978, Karen Kleiner was awakened by the slamming of her bedroom door, just before a man struck her with an object. He attacked her roommate Karen Chandler, after he noticed her stirring. Alarmed by the return of a Chi Omega sorority sister to the house on the Florida State University (FSU) campus, the man fled. The two women were taken to the emergency room and learned the man had murdered and sexually assaulted two of their sorority sisters. Sheriff Ken Katsaris found bite marks on the deceased victims and was informed of another attack six blocks away, this time on Cheryl Thomas. He also received word from Colorado authorities about an escaped criminal in the area, Ted Bundy. Weeks later, another possible victim came to light, 12-year-old Kimberly Leach. On February 15th, Ted Bundy was arrested in a stolen car and immediately became a suspect. While none of the victims could identify Bundy, a Chi Omega sister saw his profile the night of the attacks and positively identified him from a lineup. Sheriff Katsaris obtained a warrant for a mold of Bundy’s teeth, which experts matched to the bite marks. During the trial, Bundy took an active role in his defense, deposing witnesses and serving on his own defense team for the FSU trial. On July 24th, after seven hours of deliberation, Bundy was found guilty on all counts and sentenced to death. He would subsequently be found guilty for Kimberly Leach’s death and given a second death sentence. Bundy appealed through the 1980s and after exhausting all appeals, offered information on more victims, in exchange for his sentence to be changed. He was executed January 24th, 1989. On-screen text graphic: Ted Bundy confessed to at least thirty murders. But it is believed he may have killed over a hundred women in at least six states. Interviewed: Ken Katsaris, former Leon County sheriff; Karen Chandler, victim; Kathy Kleiner, victim; Cheryl Thomas, victim; Tony Cimino, Kathy’s friend; Larry Simpson, former Leon County assistant state attorney; Michael DeShields, Kathy’s son; Scott Rubin, Kathy’s second husband. 48 HOURS: “Home Renovation Homicide” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the murder of Shanti Cooper in Orlando, FL, for which her husband Dave Tronnes is suspected, allegedly over the ownership of a house undergoing years of renovations. In 2013, Shanti Cooper began an online relationship with Dave Tronnes that quickly blossomed. After just a few months, Dave moved from Minneapolis, MN to Orlando, FL to be with her. In 2015 the pair would move to a new home and begin renovations, which Shanti paid for. Keith Ori, host of a house-flipping television show, had difficulty getting the two to appear on camera together. According to prosecutor Ryan Vescio, the animosity came from Dave’s refusal to make Shanti a beneficiary to the trust that owned that house, effectively making him the sole owner. On April 24th, Dave called 911 after returning home in the afternoon and finding Shanti dead in the bathtub. In the lengthy police interview that followed, detectives questioned inconsistencies in his story: Shanti had numerous injuries on her person inconsistent with falling; there was no water on her or around the tub; and there was blood on the bed, which Dave dismissed as being from Shanti’s period. An autopsy would later find strangulation as the cause of death. Dave agreed to a polygraph, but due to the late hours, police could not find anyone to administer one and released him. Searching for a motive, police received a tip that Dave was a member at a local bathhouse and interviewed an employee who claimed to have seen Dave having sex. Dave maintained Shanti was killed in a robbery and cited her missing diamond engagement ring as proof. In August 2018, Dave was arrested for Shanti’s murder. A search of the home he was staying at produced the missing ring. In November 2018, police interviewed Dave’s ex-wife, Carole, about her health conditions, which her loved one suspected was from Dave poisoning her. Carole denied this. A surveillance camera police had set up at the couple’s property captured footage of investigators hired by Dave’s defense team. Those lawyers revealed to Vescio they had two pieces of evidence that had been removed from the house: bedsheets with Shanti’s blood on them and a green cord. Police would also interview Edward Gismondi, who met Dave in a jail housing unit. Gismondi stated Dave told him how certain hallucinogens could be used to poison food. He also told police Dave confessed to killing Shanti after she found messages on his phone pointing to an affair. However, police were unable to corroborate Gismondi’s claims. In 2019 Ryan Vescio left his position as a prosecutor and became counsel for Shanti’s estate in order to make sure her assets went to her son. Dave is awaiting trial. Original on-screen text graphic: Shanti's son Jackson lives with her ex-husband Jim Cooper. Dave Tronnes still owns the house. On-screen text graphic for the 06/05/21 rebroadcast: Shanti's son Jackson lives with her ex-husband Jim Cooper. Dave Tronnes' trial has been postponed. - 06/12/21 48 HOURS: “The Final Hours of Cayley Mandadi” - a report on the murder of Trinity University student Cayley Mandadi, allegedly by one of the two men she was involved with. In October 2017, Cayley Mandadi was rushed to the emergency room in Luling, TX by Mark Howerton, a man she had been having a relationship with. After leaving a San Antonio music festival on October 29th and having sex, Mark claimed she stopped breathing. Medical staff were unable to revive Cayley. Three months later, an autopsy concluded she had died from blunt force trauma to the face and head, leading to Mark’s arrest for murder and sexual assault. At trial, the prosecution presented witnesses from the night at the emergency room that noted bruises on Cayley’s legs and redness on Mark’s hands, and cited the fact that Mark had changed his story about where he and Cayley had sex. Friends of Cayley and a Trinity University security officer testified about Mark’s violent outbursts, including an incident that led to him being barred from campus. Jett Birchum, the other man Cayley had been involved with, testified that Cayley had agreed to break up with Mark at the music festival and that he witnessed Mark forcing her to leave with him. Mark’s attorney, John Hunter, questioned Jett’s credibility as he had given different testimony in court than he had to police and the grand jury. He also pressed Jett on the immunity deal he made with prosecutors over Jett’s alleged involvement in dealing drugs. Defense witnesses rebuked the autopsy: a forensic pathologist stated a skull fracture was consistent with a fall and a pharmacology expert testified that the large amount of MDMA in Cayley’s system could have led to hemorrhages and bruising. After 10 hours of deliberation over two days, a mistrial was declared. However, the prosecution plans to retry the case. Alison Steele, Cayley’s mother, worked to pass the CLEAR alert bill in Texas, which allows for emergency texts for missing persons between 18 and 64. Original on-screen text graphic: Mark Howerton’s retrial is scheduled for January 2021. - 06/19/21 48 HOURS: “Justice for Ahmaud” – a report on the shooting death of Ahmaud Arbery, which led to widespread national outrage after video of the incident was released. On February 23, 2020, Ahmaud Arbery went running in the Satilla Shores neighborhood of Brunswick, GA. During that time, he went inside a home under construction, which led to a neighbor calling 911 to report a trespasser. Another neighbor, Greg McMichaels, and his son, Travis, decided to follow Ahmaud in their truck. Ahmaud fled when they confronted him. Soon Roddie Bryan also joined the pursuit, and the McMichaels were able to box Ahmaud in. As Ahmaud attempted to run past Travis, a confrontation ensued, which resulted in Ahmaud being fatally shot. First responders arrived within minutes and allowed all three men to go free. Police contacted Ahmaud’s mother, Wanda Cooper-Jones, and stated that he was killed during a break-in. She would learn the truth after it was published in the paper. Two district attorneys recused themselves from the case afterwards due to ties with Greg, who was a former police officer. In May 2020, video of the incident was released and led to widespread condemnation and protests. Greg, Travis, and Roddie would subsequently be arrested. At a preliminary hearing, defense attorneys portrayed Ahmaud as the aggressor and cited a previous mental illness diagnosis of his, while dismissing any accusation of racism. However, investigators from the Georgia Bureau of Investigation revealed numerous texts including the N-word from Travis. At Roddy’s arraignment hearing in July 2020, he claimed to have been only a witness to the shooting and denied any involvement, despite Ahmaud’s handprint being found on his truck. Original on-screen text graphic: The Department of Justice is considering federal hate crime charges in the Ahmaud Arbery case. (The 06/19/21 rebroadcast includes an update in the form of a new voiceover: In April, authorities filed federal hate crime and attempted kidnapping charges against the McMichaels and Roddie Bryan.) On-screen text graphic for the 06/19/21 rebroadcast: In pretrial motions, defense attorneys argue the jury should hear details of Ahmaud’s mental illness and brushes with the law. 48 HOURS: “Christy Martin - The Fight of Her Life” – boxer Christy Martin opens up about the attack from her former husband that nearly ended her life. In November 2010, Christy Martin told her husband and long-time boxing trainer, Jim Martin, that she would be seeking a divorce. Christy had reconnected with her high school girlfriend, Sherry Lusk, and no longer wished to live in the closet. Days later, Jim approached Christy with a concealed knife as she prepared for a workout. In the ensuing confrontation, Jim stabbed Christy multiple times and shot her near her heart. Jim believed her to be dead, but Christy survived and was able to make it outside where she found Rick Cole, a passing driver who took her to the emergency room. Jim went on the run and was found seven days later living in a neighbor’s shed. In April 2012, Jim’s trial began in Orlando, FL. Witnesses for the prosecution testified to Jim’s history of controlling and abusing Christy. In contrast, Jim’s defense attorney, Bill Hancock, portrayed Christy as the aggressor and claimed that the injuries she suffered were the result of her attacking Jim and Jim defending himself. The jury found Jim guilty of attempted murder. He was sentenced to 25 years in prison.
