48 HOURS: “Murder on Red River” (9:00 – 10:00p) – an investigation into the 2002 murder of Jennifer Harris and the search for clues to what happened to her by a former Marine and a filmmaker who believe they can find the person responsible for the murder, which has become one of the coldest cases in the history of Fannin County, Texas. Harris disappeared on May 12, 2002. Six days later her body was found floating in the Red River. Police learned that she had told at least one other person she was pregnant. Suspicion fell upon two men: James Hamilton, her ex-boyfriend and Rob Holman, her ex-husband. Both denied seeing her the night she disappeared, or being involved in her murder. Neither was arrested or charged with any related crime. In 2017, Mark Johnson, the newly elected Fannin County Sheriff, made good on a campaign promise to re-open the case. What he found was limited information and damaged, destroyed or mishandled evidence. Daryl Parker, a former sheriff’s lieutenant and Marine, now a private investigator, is working with the Harris family and with Barry Wernick, a filmmaker married to Harris’ sister, Alyssa. These two men believe that their investigation will yield clues that will solve this case. Wernick says he’s done interviews with people not initially interviewed by police and is following up on any leads he receives. 48 HOURS asked CBS News consultant/private investigator Joe Moura to examine the evidence. He believes the case is unsolvable. Parker and Wernick continue to believe it is. On-screen text graphic: If you have any information about the Jennifer Harris case, contact the Fannin County Sheriff’s Office at 903-583-2143. Interviewed: Mark Johnson (Fannin County Sheriff); Jerry Harris (father); Daryl Parker (private investigator); Alyssa Wernick (Jennifer’s sister); Barry Wernick (filmmaker and husband of Alyssa); Susan Bowen (Jennifer’s cousin); Myles Porter (former District Attorney); Rhonda Fitzwater (potential witness); and Joe Moura (CBS News Consultant/private investigator). 48 HOURS PRESENTS: “Operation Murder” (10:00 - 11:00p) – an updated rebroadcast about two doctors Valerie McDaniel and Leon Jacob, involved in a 2017 murder-for-hire plot to kill their ex-partners. Moataz Azzeh, a former U.S. Army soldier describes how he was hired to complete the plot during an elaborate sting operation the Houston Police Department used to arrest the couple. Dr. Valerie McDaniel and her ex-husband were in the midst of an ugly custody battle; Dr. Leon Jacob was facing felony charges for stalking an ex-girlfriend. Jacob sought out Moataz Azzeh to eliminate the problems. Azzeh initially took the job, but disappeared with Jacob’s money. Jacob turned to a local bail bondsman, who was looking for Azzeh himself, and he called the Houston Police. Azzeh eventually went on to help undercover agents with the case, which included staging the deaths of the intended targets, McDaniel’s ex-husband Marion “Mack” McDaniel and Meghan Verikas. During the sting operation, which included the use of bodycam footage, the couple was arrested. Included are excerpts of the bodycam footage, and of a recorded diary McDaniel started after being released on bail. She took her own life sixteen days later. Leon Jacob has pleaded not guilty. Original on-screen text graphic: Valerie’s daughter inherited her estate and now lives with her father, Mack McDaniel. “Taz” Azzeh, the “Hit Man” accepted a plea deal in his theft case and is currently on probation. He hopes to become a Houston Police Officer. Update for the 11/17/18 updated rebroadcast: In 2018, Leon Jacob stood trial. He claimed to only being a womanizer. Both of his intended targets Meghan Verikas and Marion “Mack” McDaniel testified otherwise. Jacob’s own words came back to haunt him and he was found guilty on all counts. His sentence: life in prison on each count, solicitation of capital murder for Meghan Verikas and Mack McDaniel. On-screen text graphic for the 11/17/18 updated rebroadcast: Leon Jacob will be eligible for parole in the year 2047. He will be 69 years old. Interviewed: Leon Jacob; Moataz Azzeh (“Hit Man”); Cody Bernard (Valerie’s cousin); Greg Holloway (Valerie’s friend); Brittany King (Valerie’s co-worker); Samantha Knecht (Harris County Assistant District Attorney); Nathan Moss (Assistant District Attorney); Detective Javier (undercover Houston Police officer); George Parnham (Jacob’s defense attorney). (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Susan Mallie, Judy Rybak, Ryan N. Smith, Claire St. Amant) (OAD: 10/14/17; 1st Rebroadcast: 11/17/18 – both as 48 HOURS: “Operation Murder”)

- 07/13/19 48 HOURS: “Hollywood Horror Story” – a report on the brutal murder of Iana Kasian, a woman killed by a perpetrator who left the crime scene like something out of a graphic novel. Kasian, a tax attorney, in what seemed like a charmed life, immigrated to the United States to be a translator. While living in California, she met Blake Leibel, the son of a wealthy Canadian real estate family. He lived a complicated life, but longed to make it big in the Hollywood film industry. Almost a year before he met Kasian he was obsessed with the notion that his family would be harmed by someone tied to his brother Cody, who had big gambling debts. At the time Kasian was killed, Leibel was divorcing his wife, living with Kasian and his newborn daughter Diana. He was also romantically involved with another woman. Kasian’s mother, Olga Kasian, became concerned when she could not reach her daughter. She called the police, who eventually gained access to the home she shared with Leibel -- authorities were shocked by what they found. Leibel was barricaded inside a bedroom and Kasian was discovered dead in the bathroom. Her body covered with a blanket, she was extremely pale, and she was scalped. It was a horrible, sadistic killing, just like a scene in one of Leibel’s movies. Police arrested Leibel. Investigation led to the discovery that Kasian’s body was drained of blood. It took 6-8 hours for her to die. Leibel stood trial and the scenes from his graphic novel and the film he directed took center stage. He was found guilty of first-degree murder without parole. On-screen text graphic: Olga has filed a wrongful death lawsuit against Blake Leibel. Any proceeds would go to Diana. Diana is an American citizen. Olga is still hoping to raise her in the United States. Interviewed: Scott Johnson (Hollywood Reporter writer/48 HOURS consultant); Olga Kasian (mother); Jake Finkel (Kasian family attorney); Jake Edminston (National Post reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Rob Martindale and William Cotter (Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department investigators); Leslie Thompson (Los Angeles Sheriff’s Department crime scene specialist); Kris Mohandie (forensic psychologist/48 HOURS consultant). (C: Maureen Maher – P: Alec Sirken, Gayane Keshishyan Mendez) (OAD: 10/06/18)
- 07/20/19 48 HOURS: “Dead Ringer” (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report about former pro boxer Ramon Sosa, the potential victim in a murder-for-hire scheme, who with the help of law enforcement agents, managed to survive -- all the while setting up a sting operation to catch those responsible. Sosa owned the popular Woodlands Boxing and Fitness in Montgomery County, Texas. He had a family and a beautiful second wife who helped him run their booming business. After six years together, things began to sour between Sosa and his wife -- he learned of a divorce attorney and missing money from the business. And then someone wanted him dead. A friend of Sosa’s named Mundo, who worked out at the gym, overheard Sosa’s wife Lulu and was sure she had murder on her mind. They came up with a sting operation to protect the boxer, in which Mundo posed as a hit man. When they had evidence, they contacted the police, who then took over the case. Mundo still played along, agreeing to kill Sosa, and provided photographic proof of the death. Police staged the death scene, with Sosa’s “dead body” photographed in a ditch with a bullet hole in the head. Lulu Sosa was arrested, and claimed she was innocent. She was charged with solicitation of capital murder. After 15 months, she gave up the fight and agreed to a plea deal to reduced charges and twenty years in prison. On-screen text graphic: Lulu Sosa comes up for parole once a year. This past Tuesday, she was denied parole for a second time. Interviewed: Ramon Sosa; “Mundo”; Beth Blair (friend of the Sosa’s); Raul Marquez (former Olympic boxer/friend of Ramon’s); Natasha Flores (friend of Lulu’s); Julio Joglar (Lulu’s divorce attorney); Mike Atkins (Lieutenant, Precinct Three Constable’s Office, Montgomery, County, Texas). - 07/20/19 48 HOURS: “In the Name Of Hate” (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the 2018 murder of Blaze Bernstein, a brilliant Ivy League student. Allegedly slain because he was gay and Jewish, this report examines the rise of hate-fueled crimes in the United States; the influence these hate groups have; background information on the group Atomwaffen Division; and how the Bernstein family has used the death of their son to attempt positive change. Bernstein, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, returned to his California home after finishing the fall semester. He disappeared shortly thereafter. The investigation led to former high school classmate Sam Woodward, who was ultimately charged with his murder. The charges have been elevated to hate crime status, based on information found on Woodward’s personal computer, social media feeds and cellphone. Woodward was a member of Atomwaffen Division, a neo-Nazi hate group whose members praised Bernstein’s murder. Also included is an interview with a member of the group, who provides information on the case of Nick Giampa. Giampa murdered Scott Fricker and Buckley Kuhn Fricker, of Reston, Virginia -- the parents of his girlfriend, who had told their daughter to stop dating Giampa because of his beliefs and support of Atomwaffen Division. Interviewed: Jeanne Pepper Bernstein and Gideon Bernstein (parents); Raiah Rofsky (childhood friend of Blaze); Claire Velau (classmate of Blaze); Eric Tyron, Philip Schwadron (teachers); Amy Marcus, Grayson (college friends); Rabbi Arnold Rachlis; Tony Rackaukas (Orange County, DA); Joanna Mendelson (Anti-Defamation League, Los Angeles office); Richard and Leah Bernstein (grandparents); Deb Merriner (friend/assistant to Buckley Kuhn Fricker); Justin Jouvenal (Washington Post reporter) (C: Tracy Smith – P: James Stolz, Gayane Keshishyan Mendez) (OAD: 11/10/18)
- 07/27/19 48 HOURS: “The Mysterious Death Of Casey Kasem” (9:00 – 10:00p) – a report on the 2014 death of legendary radio broadcaster Casey Kasem; the family feud involving the battle for Kasem’s fortune; the pending wrongful death suits involving his widow Jean Kasem and the adult children from his first marriage: Julie Kasem, Kerri Kasem and Michael Kasem. The radio legend was heard by millions around the world as host of “American Top 40” and he was also the voice of Shaggy in the cartoon classic “Scooby Doo”. At the time of his death, his estate was estimated to be worth between $80- $100 million. Jean, married to Kasem for 34 years, and the children from his first marriage went to war over the money. Each side accuses the other of hastening his death and both sides have filed wrongful death suits. Jean Kasem claims her husband had cut off the children financially because they were only interested in his money. Kerri Kasem and her siblings blame her father’s death on Jean’s actions, claiming elder abuse. Kasem was diagnosed with Lewy Body Dementia before his death and his condition left him unable to speak during his final months. Jean prevented contact with his children, but they fought to see him, saying they were in charge of his health care. Each side accuses the other of neglect. Nothing was ever proven. After Kasem’s death, as the widow, Jean Kasem was in charge of the body, eventually having him buried in Norway in an unmarked grave. On-screen text graphic: The Kasem family's wrongful death suit against Jean is scheduled for court next spring. Jean has filed a counter wrongful death suit. The outcome of the case could decide who inherits Casey Kasem's fortune. Casey Kasem's radio show can still be heard in syndication around the world. Interviewed: Jean Kasem (widow); Julie Kasem, Kerri Kasem (adult children); Shasta Bartleheim (Jean Kasem’s friend). (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Chuck Stevenson, Resa Matthews) (OAD: 11/24/18)

48 HOURS: “Lorenzen Wright: No Defense” (10:00 - 11:00p) - an investigation into the life of NBA superstar Lorenzen Wright, a hometown hero to many in Memphis, Tennessee and the circumstances of his 2010 murder. Police were determined to find the killer or killers and the family pushed investigators, but the case went cold, until seven years after the murder, when a key piece of evidence was located. Wright’s last words were recorded on a 911 call, along with gunshots, but the dispatcher was unaware of what was happening or who was on the end of the line. During his thirteen-year career in the NBA, Wright had endeared himself to many with his off-court activities and philanthropy, all the while spending millions on himself and his family. He had married his high school sweetheart and fathered seven kids, but the stress and strain of being a professional athlete contributed to divorce. When he was traded to Atlanta, he moved there, but his ex-wife Sheri and the kids remained in Memphis. Then in 2010, Wright seemed to have disappeared without a trace. The disappearance became one of Memphis’ greatest mysteries, until his body was located nine days later. Police looked to the family for clues and potential suspects. Sherra Wright suggested he was involved in a drug transaction, and mysterious gunmen were stalking Wright. Sherra Wright received a $1 million life insurance payout, remarried, and wrote a novel about a philandering NBA player. Then in 2017, police got a tip that led them to a lake where they found a gun believed to have been used in the murder. The case took a surprising turn: Sherra Wright and a landscaper named Billy Ray Turner were arrested. Police think they both worked together to kill Lorenzen Wright for his money. They have both entered pleas of not guilty and are awaiting trial. Update for the 07/27/19 rebroadcast: On July 25, 2019 Sherra Wright pled guilty to facilitating first degree murder. She was given a thirty-year sentence. On-screen text graphic: Billy Ray Turner's bond was set at fifteen million dollars. Sherra Wright's bond will be set at the end of the month. Lorenzen's younger children are living with family in California. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 07/27/19 rebroadcast: Sherra Wright will be eligible for parole after serving 9 years of her sentence. Billy Ray Turner is scheduled to go to trial in mid-September, 2019. Interviewed: Bill Adkins (pastor, advocate); Marc Perrusquia (journalist, The Commercial Appeal); Phil Dotson (Wright’s best friend and fraternity brother); Gayle Rose (philanthropist, friend); April Thompson (investigative reporter, WREG, Memphis); Toney Armstrong (deputy director, Memphis Police, 2007); Kelvin Cowans (freelance reporter, former husband of Sherra Wright); Paul Hagerman (Shelby County prosecutor); Blake Ballin (Sherra Wright defense attorney); and John Keith Perry, Jr. (Turner defense attorney). NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET

- 07/03/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "Death of a Dream" (9:00 – 10:00p) – Samira Watkins, a 25-year-old mother of a 4-year-old boy, was studying to be a dental assistant when she vanished. Five days after she disappeared, her body washed up in a duffel bag about 200 yards away from the entrance of the Pensacola Naval Air Station in Florida. Working with the Pensacola Police Department, NCIS agents were able to link pieces of circumstantial evidence together to arrest Watkins' boyfriend at the time, Zachary Littleton, a Navy police officer. He was later convicted of murdering her and was sentenced to life in prison. In his first TV interview, Littleton says investigators got it all wrong – and he admits he lied to them and was with Watkins the night she disappeared. The broadcast features interviews with the agents who painstakingly and methodically tied the evidence together and with Littleton, who explains for the first time what he says happened on the night he and Watkins were last together. - 07/03/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "Never Forget" (10:00 – 11:00p) - NCIS agents take viewers inside the cold case murder of 10-year-old Tammy Welch and look at the separate murder of Ricky Wiltrott. On August 27, 1984, Tammy Welch and her sister, Jennifer, were outside playing in an apartment courtyard the day their family was moving to Navy housing in Jacksonville, Florida. Jennifer went inside to talk with her mother, leaving Tammy alone outside. When she went back out 30 minutes later, Tammy was face down in the grass, dead. She had been brutally strangled and assaulted. NCIS agents were called in immediately after Welch was killed, but the case was cold. In 1999, NCIS' newly formed cold-case team reopened the case, determined to solve it for Tammy's family. The agents traveled across the county seeking DNA from more than a dozen potential suspects. It wasn't until 2012 that agents got their first break when a partial DNA profile from the child's former neighbor, James Jackson, was linked to the crime scene through advanced forensic testing. But would it be enough to convict Jackson of first-degree murder? NCIS agents would need hard evidence, and what they found was a bizarre tattoo on Jackson's back with the victim's name and the year of her murder. It was, they say, a confession written in ink.
