09/01/21 48 HOURS: “The Secrets of Chad Daybell’s Backyard” (10:00 – 11:00p) – an update on the ongoing cases against Chad Daybell and his new wife, Lori Vallow Daybell. Chad and Lori were charged in May 2021 with murdering her children, 7-year-old JJ Vallow and 16-year-old Tylee Ryan, who disappeared in September 2019. In June 2020, their bodies were found in shallow graves on Chad Daybell’s property, just outside of Rexburg, ID. Additionally, prosecutors in Arizona have charged Lori with conspiring with her now-deceased brother Alex Cox, to kill Charles Vallow, her estranged husband in July 2019; and in Idaho, Chad and Lori have been charged with conspiring to murder Tammy Daybell, Chad’s wife, who died in October 2019. Lori and Chad were scheduled to be tried together, but just after the murder charges were announced, Lori’s case was put on hold. A judge ruled Lori incompetent to stand trial while she undergoes mental health treatment. In August 2021, the State of Idaho announced it will seek the death penalty against Chad Daybell, who has plead not guilty to all counts. This broadcast includes the first television interview together of all five of Tammy and Chad Daybell’s children: Emma, Mark, Leah, Seth and Garth, who defend their father, continue to maintain his innocence, and share their theory that he was framed by Lori and Alex. On-screen text graphic: Tylee would have turned 19 later this month. JJ would now be 9 years old. Chad Daybell’s trial is scheduled to start in November, 2021. - 09/04/21 48 HOURS: "The Suspicious Death of Christian Andreacchio" (9:00 - 10:00p) – a report on the conflicting accounts of one young man’s death. On February 26th, 2014, Dylan Swearingen called 911 to report the death of his friend, Christian Andreacchio, in Meridian, MS. A police investigation concluded it was a suicide. However, Christian’s parents disputed this as they had never seen suicidal tendencies from him. They suspected Dylan and Whitley Goodman, Christian’s girlfriend, were involved. Four months later, new chief of police Benny Dubose noted issues with the investigation: police had spent just 45 minutes at the crime scene and taken photos there on cell phones; blood spatter associated with gunshots and fingerprints from Christian’s gun had been cleaned up. Investigators also ignored that earlier in the day, Dylan was seen at a credit union attempting to withdraw all of Christian’s funds. Dubose tasked Captain Jay Arrington to re-examine the case. Arrington determined that Christian’s body had been moved and his time of death was likely hours before Dylan’s 911 call. He concluded Christian’s death was a homicide. In October 2017, charges against Dylan and Whitley were brought to a grand jury, however Arrington’s report was not presented to jurors. They concluded there was not enough evidence to go to trial. In August 2020, Arrington’s report was made public. Learning that Arrington’s report was excluded, district attorney Kassie Coleman decided she would reconvene a grand jury and find a new prosecutor to present the case. Original on-screen text graphic: The Andreacchios are lobbying for a law named after their son. "Christian's Law" would restrict the public release of autopsy photos in Mississippi. On-screen text graphic for the 09/04/21 rebroadcast: The Andreacchios successfully lobbied for a law named after their son. As of July 2021 “Christian's Law” restricts the public release of autopsy photos in Mississippi. Interviewed: Rae Andreacchio, Christian’s mother; Todd Andreacchio, Christian’s father; Kassie Coleman, Lauderdale County District Attorney; Christie Chatterton, Whitley’s mother; Chris Thompson, Christian’s uncle; Pam Swearingen, Dylan’s mother; Benny Dubose, Meridian, MS Chief of Police; Doctor Jonathan Arden, former medical examiner; Sheila Wysocki, Andreacchio family private investigator; Captain Jay Arrington, Meridian Police detective; Whitley Goodman, Christian’s girlfriend; “Woman”, grand juror; J. Stewart Parrish, Captain Arrington’s attorney; Bradley Clanton, Whitley’s attorney. (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Chris O’Connell, Emily Wichick) (OAD: 01/09/21)
- 09/04/21 48 HOURS: “The Tara Grinstead Mystery” (10:00 – 11:00p) – an update on the case of Tara Grinstead and the tips ignored by law enforcement that could have closed her case years earlier. The Georgia schoolteacher was last seen in Ocilla, leaving a party on October 22nd, 2005. When she failed to turn up for work, police were contacted. Officers and Maria Woods Harber, Tara’s friend, entered her home to find it mostly undisturbed, save for a broken lamp. Outside, suspicions were aroused by a latex glove. Attention quickly turned to men Tara had been dating, including her former boyfriend who had recently returned to town. However, all the men had alibis. Weeks later Jannis Paulk, Tara’s neighbor, was told by an employee about overhearing two men - Bo Dukes and Ryan Duke - claiming to have burned Tara’s body. She reported this to police. In 2006, John McCullough was spending the holidays with Bo Dukes. After getting drunk, Dukes admitted his involvement with Tara’s disappearance. In February 2007, John reported this to three different police departments. Neither Jannis’ nor John’s tips were followed up on by law enforcement for years. In 2015, Bo Dukes began dating Brooke Sheridan. Eventually, he would tell her about his part in Tara Grinstead’s disappearance. At her urging, he confessed to the police that he had burned Tara’s body in a pecan orchard his family owned in an attempt to cover up her death at the hands of Ryan Duke during a botched robbery. Duke was arrested and confessed to Tara’s murder. DNA tests matched him to the latex glove found outside Tara’s home. In March 2019, Dukes went on trial for charges related to covering up Tara’s death. He would be convicted on all charges and sentenced to 25 years in prison. Original on-screen text graphic: Ryan Duke's trial has not been scheduled. It has been delayed by defense motions and the COVID-19 pandemic. (No on-screen text graphic for this rebroadcast.) Interviewed: Jannis Paulk, Tara’s neighbor; Maria Woods Harber, Tara’s friend; Dana Wilder, Tara’s friend; Marcus Harper, Tara’s ex-boyfriend; Gary Rothwell, Georgia Bureau of Investigation Special Agent; John McCullough, Bo Dukes’ friend; Brooke Sheridan, Bo Dukes’ girlfriend; Maurice Goodwin, forensic investigator. - 09/08/21 48 HOURS: "The Black Swan Murder?" (10:00 – 11:00p) – a report on the September 27th, 2020 death of Doug Benefield, as he was preparing to move from Florida to Maryland with his wife Ashley, their daughter and Alicia Byers, his mother-in-law. Ashley, a former ballerina and bikini model, walked to her neighbor's house and claimed she shot Doug in self-defense. Doug, a consultant from Charleston, SC, met Ashley, a campaign worker in the Sarasota, FL office of Donald Trump, in August 2016. They knew each other for just 13 days before they got married; she was 24-years-old and he was 54-years-old, a widower and father to Eva Benefield. Over the four years they were married, there were strained relationships, allegations of abuse and poisoning, and a failed ballet studio for unconventional dancers in Charleston. At the time of the shooting, Ashley Benefield was living in a home in Florida owned by her mother. The couple had separated, but then reunited. Investigators found no evidence that Ashley was acting in self-defense; no weapons were near Doug's body and Ashley only had an old and very minor scratch on her body. However, the night of the shooting, Alicia told police they lived in fear of Doug and claimed they sought help, but nobody would help them. Faith Brown, Ashley's attorney, told police that Ashley created an escape plan to get away from Doug once and for all. In November 2020, Ashley was charged with second-degree murder. She has never given any kind of a statement to law enforcement. Alicia has custody of her granddaughter. On-screen text graphic: Ashley remains free on bond. Her trial is not expected to take place until 2023. If Ashley is convicted...Doug's family plans to fight for custody of his now 3-year-old daughter. Interviewed: Alice Robb, contributing writer, Vanity Fair; Athena Nikolakopoulos, dancer; Emmana Hemsley, dancer; Trip Cormeny, Doug's friend; Stephanie Murphy, Doug's family attorney; Eva Benefield, Doug's daughter; Tommie Benefield, Doug's cousin; Michael Wise, ballet master; and Robert Cederth, safety director, Hyperbaric Centers of Southwest Florida. (C: Jim Axelrod – P: Paul LaRosa, Dena Goldstein)
- 09/11/21 48 HOURS: "The Deliveryman Murders" – a report on the connection between two similar murders committed on opposite sides of the country. On July 11th, 2020, attorney Marc Angelucci was killed at the front door of his Cedarpines Park, CA home by a gunman posing as a FedEx delivery person. Police were unable to discern a motive. On July 19th, a similar attack occurred at the New Jersey home of federal judge Esther Salas, which resulted in her husband Mark Anderl's hospitalization and the death of their son, Daniel Anderl. While federal and state agencies investigated the attack, New York State police found the body of attorney Roy Den Hollander dead from an apparent suicide in a rural part of Sullivan County. A search of his car turned up a FedEx envelope address to Judge Salas as well as an address for Marc. Additionally, the gun Den Hollander used to kill himself matched the caliber used in the two shootings. Investigators concluded that he was responsible for both. Den Hollander had devoted his career to lawsuits aimed at what he perceived as "female privilege" and FBI agents concluded he saw Marc, who focused on male gender discrimination cases, as a professional threat. They also uncovered a manifesto where Den Hollander blamed Judge Salas for slowing down one of his lawsuits. Agents contacted other names they found among Den Hollander's documents, but believed he acted alone. On-screen text graphic: Legislation inspired by Daniel's Law has been introduced in the U.S. Congress. Interviewed: Cassie Jaye, Marc's friend; Hermela Aregawi, reporter, CBS Los Angeles; Kat Haley, Daniel's friend; Sarah Peterson, Daniel's friend; David Oakley, Mark Anderl's law partner; Joe Augustine, Daniel's high school coach; Matthew Zeigler, Daniel's friend; Joe Denahan, FBI Incident Commander; Captain Brian Webster, New York State Police; Joe Serio, Den Hollander's former coworker. 09/18/21 48 HOURS: “The Online Life & Death of Bianca Devins” – a report on the murder of Bianca Devins, a 17-year-old popular social media figure, who was murdered by Brandon Clark in Utica, NY. Bianca met Brandon on social media; they briefly dated but were never exclusive. In July 2019, Brandon and Bianca traveled to New York City to see a concert. Bianca also invited Alex, a new friend, to meet her there and expressed on social media her concern that Brandon would be jealous. On July 14th, 2019, an image of Bianca’s lifeless body appeared on the social media platform Discord, which prompted calls from around the country. At first, friends thought it was a fake because Brandon posted it and it was not unusual for people on the platform to post disturbing images to get a rise out of others. That changed when Brandon called 911 and told the dispatcher he was on a dead-end road, not far from Bianca’s home. Responding officers arrested Brandon and found Bianca’s body under a tarp. Before the police could notify Bianca’s mother Kim Devins, someone texted her family the photo. While the family grieved, images of Bianca’s body spread across multiple social media platforms; online trolls relentlessly sent her family the photos and cruel memes and along with the photos, hateful messages blamed Bianca for what happened. Prosecutors searched Brandon’s phone and discovered that he made a video while he killed Bianca with a knife; additional evidence on his phone indicated the murder was not a crime of passion. Two weeks after Bianca’s death, Brandon was officially charged with second-degree murder. Shortly before Brandon’s trial began in February 2020, he pleaded guilty. Five months later, Brandon attempted to change his plea; the judge denied his request. On March 16th, 2021, Brandon was sentenced to 25 years to life. On-screen text graphic: Bianca’s family continues to work to get Bianca’s Law passed. The family still receives graphic photos of Bianca’s murder. Interviewed: Elizabeth, Bianca’s online friend; Kim Devins, Bianca’s mother; Frank Williams, Bianca’s grandfather; EJ Dickson, staff writer, Rolling Stone; Steven Crimando, behavioral scientist; Bryan Coromato, Utica Police detective; Michael Curley, Utica Police detective; Sarah DeMellier, prosecutor, Oneida County District Attorney’s office; and Michael Nolan, prosecutor, Oneida County District Attorney’s office. 09/25/21 48 HOURS: “What Happened to Gabby Petito?” – a report on the details surrounding the case of Gabby Petito and the search for her fiancé, Brian Laundrie. On July 2nd, 2021, Gabby and Brian left for a cross-country trip and planned to chronicle their journey on social media. On August 12th, police in Moab, UT received a 911 call and pulled Gabby and Brian over outside Arches National Park; police believed Gabby was the aggressor and separated them for the night. On August 19th, Gabby posted an edited 8-minute video; she later told her mother Nichole they were leaving Utah and driving to Grand Teton National Park in Wyoming. On August 25th, Gabby posted a series of photos on Instagram while in Ogden, UT. Nichole received an “odd” text message from her daughter on August 27th; she received one last text message from Gabby’s phone on August 30th. On September 1st, Brian returned home to North Port, FL; he had driven the van there and was alone. The Petito family was unaware of Brian’s return and Gabby’s cell phone had stopped working. Gabby was officially declared a missing person on September 11th. Brian and his parents did not speak to police and on September 17th, they reported that they didn’t know where Brian was and that he left for a hike at the Carlton Reserve on the 14th. On September 19th, Gabby’s remains were found at the Spread Creek camping area inside Bridger-Teton National Forest in Wyoming; her death was ruled a homicide. The FBI has issued an arrest warrant for Brian; he’s charged with unauthorized use of a bank card. On-screen text graphic: To report information about Brian Laundrie call 1-800-CALL-FBI or write to tips.fbi.gov. Interviewed: Rose Davis, Gabby’s friend; Nichole & Jim Schmidt, Gabby’s mother and step-father; Joe & Tara Petito, Gabby’s father and step-mother; Jim Winder, former Moab police chief (UT); Sonnie Mason, employee, Victor Emporium (ID); Tanya Chen, writer, BuzzFeed News; Jenn & Kyle Bethune, saw the van in the Tetons and reported it to the FBI; Josh Taylor, spokesman, North Port Police (FL). CBS NEWS: 9/11: 20 YEARS LATER

CBS News provided in-depth and division-wide coverage marking the 20th anniversary of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. In addition to the reporting on regularly scheduled news programs, CBS News presented the following CBS NEWS SPECIAL and CBS NEWS SPECIAL REPORT:

- 09/10/21      CBS NEWS SPECIAL: RACE AGAINST TIME: THE CIA AND 9/11 (8:00 – 10:00p) – a documentary on the efforts of top officials and elite operatives within the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) to warn the United States about the potential for a cataclysmic terrorist attack orchestrated by Osama bin Laden, founder of al Qaeda. September 11, 2001 marked the greatest failure in the history of the nation’s premiere spy agency, but also sparked what became its greatest success -- helping to find bin Laden. For the spies inside the CIA, it was a race against time to get bin Laden - a race that began long before 9/11 and ended long after. Interviewed: Michael Morell (CBS News senior national security contributor, former CIA acting and deputy director and intelligence briefer to President George W. Bush); Marty Martin (former operations officer, CIA); Cindy Storer (former senior intelligence analyst, CIA); George Tenet (former director, CIA - from a 2015 SHOWTIME interview); Richard Clarke (former national counterterrorism coordinator); Steve Coll (Pulitzer Prize-winning author); Tracy Walder (former Central Intelligence Agency staff operations officer); John McLaughlin (former acting director, CIA); Leon Panetta (former director, CIA); Hank Crumpton (former deputy director, Counterterrorism Center, CIA); Nada Bakos (former analyst, CIA); Jose Rodriguez (former director, National Clandestine Service, CIA); Ali Soufan (former special agent, Federal Bureau of Investigation – from a 2011 interview for 60 MINUTES); and Sarah Carlson (former targeting analyst, CIA). (Narrator: Jeff Wilburn. Executive Producer: Mitch Weitzner. Senior Producer: Sasha Reuther. Producers: Josh Gaynor, Been Gim).
- 09/11/21      CBS NEWS SPECIAL REPORT: 9/11: 20 YEARS LATER (8:30a – 1:00p) – live coverage of the ceremonial events marking the 20th anniversary of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks on the United States and commemoration of those who died that day at the World Trade Center in New York City, the Pentagon and in Shanksville, Pennsylvania. Coverage includes: (1) reports from the Pentagon and Engine Company 54 in midtown Manhattan; (2) remarks from Michael Morell, who was with President George W.
