60 MINUTES

- 06/01/14 “The Shooting at Chardon High” – a report on the shooting on February 27, 2012 at Chardon High School in Chardon, Ohio that left three male students dead. The report focuses on Frank Hall, who was an assistant football coach at Chardon monitoring study hall that morning. Hall’s actions of running towards the shooter to chase him out of the building saved an untold number of young lives. (The shooter’s name is Thomas “T.J.” Lane but the Chardon community asked 60 MINUTES to keep his name and face out of the segment.) Includes interviews with Tim Armelli, Chardon teacher; Frank Hall, former Chardon assistant football coach and current coach at Lakeside High School and Frank’s wife Ashley Hall; Chardon students Nick Walczak and Nate Mueller and Lakeside High School students Tyree Meeks and Damondre Haywood. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Robert G. Anderson) (OAD: 02/23/14)
- “The F-35” – a report on the problems associated with the Pentagon’s newest warplane and what makes the $400 billion F-35 joint strike fighter the most expensive weapons system in history. Includes interviews with Lieutenant General Chris Bogdan, program executive officer for F-35; Lieutenant Colonel David Berke, commanding officer of VMFAT-501; Air Force Chief General Mark Welsh; Marine Lieutenant General Robert Schmidle; Alan Norman, Lockheed Martin’s chief F-35 test pilot; Colonel Rod Cregier, runs F-35 test program and Frank Kendall, undersecretary of Defense for Acquisition. (C: David Martin – P: Mary Walsh) (OAD: 02/16/14)
- “Capturing History” – an interview / profile of Henry Grossman, a freelance photographer whose fly-on-the-wall approach to photography led him to capture iconic images in American history, including the Beatles and members of the Kennedy family. (C: Morley Safer – P: David Browning) (OAD: 11/10/13)
- 06/08/14 “Imminent Danger” – an examination of America’s mental health system, which many experts believe is failing those with severe mental illnesses. In the last seven years, the shooters in about half of the twenty-three mass shooting incidents in the U.S. -- Virginia Tech, Aurora, Colorado, and the recent Washington Navy Yard shooting -- have turned out to be severely mentally ill -- not in control of their faculties and not receiving treatment -- and the majority suffered from schizophrenia. Includes interviews with: Dr. E. Fuller Torrey, psychiatrist; Dr. Jeffrey Lieberman, Pres. of American Psychiatric Association; Mike Robertson, schizophrenic and his mother, Linda Doran; Sandra Luckow, documentary filmmaker; Tom Dart, Cook County Sheriff, Chicago; Elli Montgomery, social worker at Cook County Jail. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Coleman Cowan, Graham Messick) (OAD: 09/29/13)
- “Bassem Youssef” – an interview / profile of cardiac surgeon - turned satirist - Bassem Youssef, whose political humor and Egyptian television show resemble America’s Jon Stewart and Comedy Central’s “The Daily Show.” Youssef’s satire has faced interrogation by Egyptian authorities, protests and even cancellation. (C: Bob Simon – P: Michael H. Gavshon, David M. Levine) (OAD: 03/16/14; includes an update)
- “Cosmic Roulette” – Concern over the ability to detect asteroids and comets that come close to Earth grew after an incident in Russia in February 2013, when an asteroid crashed into the atmosphere. It is estimated there are a million asteroids in space big enough to destroy a city, however scientists only know where one percent of them are. Includes interviews with: Paul Chodas and his boss, Don Yeomans, scientists at NASA’s Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena, California; Amy Mainzer, NASA scientist; Ed Lu, former astronaut. - 06/15/14 “Luxottica: Sticker Shock” - a report on Luxottica, the Italian eyewear company which is the world’s largest manufacturer of optical frames and sunglasses. The company’s properties include the sunglasses brands Ray-Ban and Oakley; the retail chains LensCrafters, Pearle Vision, and Sunglass Hut; they run Target Optical and Sears Optical; and they own EyeMed, the nation’s second largest vision-care plan. Includes interviews with: Luxottica CEO Andrea Guerra; Isabella Sola, Luxottica’s product manager; Mark Weikel, president of LensCrafters; Brett Arends, columnist for Smartmoney.com. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On) (OAD: 10/07/12; includes an update.)
- “100,000 Homes” – a report on the 100,000 Homes Campaign, with a focus on its current operation in Nashville, Tennessee. 100,000 Homes Campaign is a movement in cities and counties across America that has managed to get eighty thousand homeless people off the street so far. Becky Kanis, director of the effort, believes providing apartments to those who have been destitute the longest and at the greatest medical risk can actually save taxpayers money, even before these people receive treatment for substance abuse or alcohol problems if needed. Includes interviews with Becky Kanis, director of 100,000 Homes Campaign; Ingrid McIntyre, executive director of Open Table Nashville; Robert McMurtry, homeless and Will Connelly, director of Nashville’s Homelessness Commission. Also includes comments by Kirby Davis, apartment building owner; Ernest Thomas, homeless; Frank Clements, homeless and outreach workers identified only as Ashley and Jerry. (C: Anderson Cooper – P: Andy Court) (OAD: 02/09/14)
- “Jay Leno” – an interview with the departing Tonight Show host as he talks in depth for the first time about losing his NBC late-night perch twice, once for the failed experiment with Conan O’Brien and now for Jimmy Fallon, who will replace him next month. Also includes comments by his wife, Mavis Leno and comedian, Tim Allen. (See also: “Here’s Jay Leno!” OAD: 03/15/92) (C: Steve Kroft – P: Ruth Streeter) (OAD: 01/26/14)
- 06/22/14 “The Copts” – a report on the ongoing political violence in Egypt which has resulted in unprecedented attacks on the country’s Coptic Christian minority. Copts were the target of revenge by Muslim mobs this summer after Egypt’s first Islamist president, Mohammed Morsi, was overthrown in a military coup. In the aftermath, over 40 Christian churches in Egypt were gutted by arson. Includes interviews with Pope Tawadros II, pope of Coptic Christians; Febe Armanios, Copts expert; Heba Morayef, Human Rights Watch Egypt Director; Youssef Sidhom, editor-in-chief of Watani, the only Christian newspaper in Egypt; and Redha Girgis, a caretaker (through translator). Also includes comments by Father Angelos Shenouda, pastor at Abu Serga Church (translated by Febe Armanios); Father Maximous el-Antony, monk at St. Anthony’s; and Bishop Thomas, senior cleric at a Coptic Church. (C: Bob Simon – P: Harry A. Radcliffe II) (OAD: 12/15/13)
- “Drones Over America” – a report on domestic drones -- remote controlled, unmanned aerial vehicles -- and how they are revolutionizing everything from environmental research to possible package delivery at your doorstep. Many of the drones are equipped with cameras and are raising concerns for privacy issues since the Federal Aviation Administration is still deciphering the rules for them. Includes interviews with Colin Guinn, drone entrepreneur; Michael Toscano, President of the Association for Unmanned Vehicle Systems; Missy Cummings, former Navy fighter pilot and professor of drone research at MIT and Duke University; and Senator Dianne Feinstein (D-CA), chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee. (C: Morley Safer – P: David Browning) (OAD: 03/16/14)
- “The Virtuoso” – an interview / profile of jazz pianist and composer Marcus Roberts, who lost his sight as a child but came to possess an incredible encyclopedic insight into American music. Roberts returns to his alma mater, the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind in St. Augustine, where he performs a duet with Wynton Marsalis. Includes an interview with Marcus’ mother Coretta Roberts, and comments by: jazz pianist Chick Corea; Sister Murray, Silas Missionary Baptist Church; Vicky Palmer, teacher; and Marcus’ bandmate, Ricardo Pascal. Also includes an interview with her husband, Andrew Upton, a playwright and director. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin, Richard Buddenhagen) (OAD: 02/16/14; includes an update)

48 HOURS

- 06/02/14 48 HOURS: “The Lost Daughter” (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the investigation into the 1989 disappearance of college student Tiffany Sessions, a case which at the time generated one of the largest manhunts in the history of Florida -- and whether the Alachua County Sheriff’s office has solved the mystery. What is known is that Tiffany Sessions left her home for her daily walk and never returned. A massive search was launched, driven in part by her father Pat Sessions, a marketing executive. It turned up nothing. In 2013, Alachua County Sheriff Sadie Darnell charged Detective Kevin Allen with the cold case investigation. Allen learned that three years after Sessions disappeared, Elizabeth Foster, another student, was found murdered and buried less than a mile away from where Sessions lived. Paul Rowles, the man convicted of killing Foster, denied having anything to with the Sessions case. After his death in 2014, police found a phone book among his belongings, which included enough cryptic references to Sessions to name him a suspect in her disappearance and presumed murder. The Alachua County Sheriff’s Office excavated an area where Foster was found, hoping to find a clue to Sessions’ fate, but it produced no results. The belief of both the family and the sheriff’s office is that Rowles murdered Sessions, even though they have not found her remains. On-Screen text graphic: Tiffany Sessions would be 45 years old. Interviewed: Pat Sessions (father); Hillary Sessions (mother); Jason Sessions (half-brother); Kathleen Frezza (Tiffany’s roommate); Jim Eckert (lead investigator); Wayne Black (private investigator); Sadie Darnell (Alachua County Sheriff); Kevin Allen (detective); Marshall Frank (retired detective); Dr. Michael Warren (forensic anthropologist). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/07/14 48 HOURS: “Hollywood Secrets” - a report on the investigation into the 2008 murder of Juliana Redding, an aspiring actress and model and the subsequent trial. Redding was found dead in her Santa Monica, California home. According to authorities, the killer hoped to erase any evidence of the crime; trying to blow up the entire crime scene by leaving the gas on and a candle burning. This did not happen, and there was plenty of DNA evidence remaining at the scene. A sometime boyfriend, John Gilmore, who had a history of violent behavior had an alibi and was cleared. Further investigation led to the discovery that Redding had recently broken up with her wealthy boyfriend, Dr. Munir Uwayda after learning he had a wife and children in Lebanon. Investigators also learned of a lucrative business deal offered to Redding’s pharmacist father. Less than week after the deal fell apart, Redding was dead. Inside the home, police found evidence of a struggle and DNA evidence that led to a woman: Kelly Soo Park. Park was in the employ of Dr. Uwayda. She was arrested and within days Uwayda had vanished. Five years later, the trial commenced. While authorities thought the case was a slam dunk, the defense, with the help of jury consultant, Lee Meihls, presented a bold argument of DNA transference. The eventual outcome: Park was found not guilty. On-screen text graphic: The fraud investigation of Doctor Munir Uwaydah continues. His California Medical license has been canceled. Kelly Soo Park is living in southern California managing a restaurant. On-Screen text graphic for the 06/07/14 rebroadcast: In January, Kelly Soo Park sued the lead detective on the case for violating Park’s civil rights by intimidating a witness. On May 27th, a judge dismissed the lawsuit. The fraud investigation of Dr. Munir Uwaydah continues. His California medical license has been cancelled. Interviewed: former Los Angeles prosecutor Alan Jackson; LA Times writer Jack Leonard; attorney Birgit Jarsen; real estate agent Cindy Ogden, friend Genevieve Stewart, John Jay College professor Dr. Nathan Lents; jury consultant Lee Meihls. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Greg Fisher) (OAD: 11/23/13)
- 06/09/14 48 HOURS: “The Trials of Cal Harris” (10:00-11:00p) - a followup to “A Time to Kill” (OAD: 11/10/07), which detailed the disappearance of Harris’ estranged wife, Michele Harris, during the night of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. Harris has been tried and convicted twice of murdering Michele. Both convictions have since been overturned on appeal; now he is facing a third trial. Cal Harris sits for his first-ever interview and speaks with 48 HOURS Correspondent Erin Moriarty about his case. Cal and Michele were nearing the end of a bitter divorce when she vanished. Prosecutors arrested Harris in 2005 and felt they had a good circumstantial case. He was tried and convicted. While awaiting sentencing, a new witness emerged; the conviction was overturned. In 2009, he was tried again and convicted. That verdict was also overturned on appeal. This fall, Harris will go to trial for the third time. Prosecutors will argue Harris killed his wife to protect his wealth; the defense team maintains police never looked closely at other potential suspects, including some of the men in Michele’s life at the time. On-Screen text graphic: Cal Harris’ third trial is scheduled to begin this September, thirteen years after his wife, Michele, disappeared. Interviewed: Cal Harris; his children Cayla, Tanner and Jenna Harris; Bruce Barket, Donna Aldea (new defense team members); Greg and Shannon Taylor (Michele Harris’ brother and sister-in-law); Greg Taylor (Michele Harris’ brother; Barb Thayer; Nikki Burdick (friends of Michele); Mark Lester (State Police Captain). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/14/14 48 HOURS: “The Devil’s Twin” - an investigation into the July 24, 2003 disappearance and murder of Heather DeWild, who was never seen again after a visit with her children to her estranged husband Dan DeWild’s house, and how television crime dramas may have given her killer enough information to keep police from quickly solving the case. Police immediately suspected Dan DeWild, but there was no murder weapon, no fingerprints, no blood. His identical twin, David DeWild quickly married his girlfriend, Roseanne. Heather’s body was found one month later, bound and buried on a canyon road. Police came to the realization that Dan DeWild and his identical twin brother David were most likely responsible for her murder, but the case grew cold due to lack of evidence. In 2009, Russ Boatright was assigned full-time to the circumstantial case. Investigation led to a sex tape, and Dan’s fascination with bondage and rope. Heather was found bound in a similar manner. In 2011, Dan DeWild, David DeWild and his wife Roseanne were arrested and charged with murder. David DeWild broke down and admitted that his brother Dan had killed Heather and that he had participated in the crime. Prosecutors then learned that the brothers had been watching television crime dramas and forensic shows. They believed that Heather had gone to the house to retrieve the sex tape and then was killed. David DeWild took investigators to the crime scene and re-enacted what happened. David had to pass a polygraph test in order to secure a plea deal. Roseanne’s charges were dropped due to lack of evidence. Dan DeWild’s trial hinged almost entirely on his brother’s testimony and with the lack of physical evidence, prosecutors hoped it was enough. In the end, it wasn’t. Jurors deadlocked on the first degree murder charge, but agreed on the lesser charges. Plans were started for a retrial, but a month after the conviction, Dan DeWild pled guilty to second degree murder in a plea deal. On-screen text graphic: The identical twins have been separated...they are housed in different prisons. David DeWild will be eligible for parole in less than four years. On-Screen text graphic for the 06/14/14 rebroadcast: The identical twins have been separated, housed in different prisons. David DeWild will be eligible for parole in less than three years. Interviewed: Dave and Carole Springer, Heather DeWild’s parents; Rebecca Barger, Heather’s sister; Mark Crider, detective, Denver Police Department; Al Nelson, deputy sheriff; Curtis Johnson, highway worker; Russ Boatright, investigator-in-charge; Robert Weiner, prosecutor; Tom Ward, Dan DeWild’s defense attorney; jurors Vicki, Chris and Scott (no last names); Roseanne DeWild, Dave’s wife. - 06/16/14 48 HOURS: “Oscar Pistorius: Shots in the Dark” (10:00-11:00p) - a comprehensive look at what has been called the South African trial of the century, told through interviews with those who covered the case, friends of the victim and suspect, and legal experts. The drama of the case focuses on whether Olympic athlete Oscar “Blade Runner” Pistorius intentionally murdered his girlfriend Reeva Steenkamp -- or was it a tragic accident? (1) There is no question that Steenkamp was shot and killed by Pistorius in the bathroom of his home, but was it an accident or murder? (2) “Was There a Price for Fame?” - Pistorius and Steenkamp made an attractive couple; both were rising stars in their native South Africa, but some say that Pistorius was changed by fame. (3) “The State vs. Oscar Pistorius” - the prosecution side of the case is being presented by attorney Gerry Nel. The South African justice system differs from the American system in that the judge is the arbiter of the verdict. (4) The defense side of the case. (5) “OJ + 20 Years” - it’s been twenty years since O.J. Simpson, the white bronco chase and the murder trial, watched by millions of Americans, with various reactions to the verdict. (6) Pistorius’ mental state will be presented, the trial will resume in two weeks and his psychiatric evaluation will likely influence its direction. Interviewed: Mark Seal (Vanity Fair/48 HOURS Consultant) (1,2,6); Jen Su (friend of Pistorius and Steenkamp) (1,2,6); Mike Azzie (Pistorius friend) (1,2,4); Francois van der Watt (exoskeletal prosthetic creator) (2); Samkelo Radebe (Pistorius teammate) (2); Simphiwe Majola (Steenkamp publicist) (2); Gina Meyers (Steenkamp’s best friend) (2); Mark O’Mara (George Zimmerman attorney) (3); Ferial Haffajee (editor, Johannesburg’s City Press) (3); Kevin Larena (Pistorius friend) (3); Dr. Alexander Sasha Bardey (forensic psychiatrist) (3); Dr. David Klatzow (forensic scientist) (3); Renier Spies (Pistorius attorney) (4, 6); Barry Roux (Pistorius attorney) (4); Joe Tacopina (attorney) (4); Dr. Meryl Vorster (defense expert) (4); Alan Dershowitz (Simpson attorney) (5); Kim Goldman (sister of Ron Goldman) (5); Robert Shapiro (Simpson attorney) (5). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/21/14 48 HOURS: “The Perfect Family” (9:00-10:00p) - Bernie Pyne returned home one day in May 2011 with his young daughter to find his wife Ruth in the garage, brutally beaten and stabbed to death. To outsiders, the Pyne’s appeared to be an all-American family. Bernie Pyne was a successful auto engineer who, with his wife, had raised a seemingly happy family in Highland Township, a suburb of Detroit, Michigan. They had two children, the oldest, Jeffrey, was his high school’s valedictorian and on his way to college. After Ruth was murdered, police learned the Pyne’s were not as perfect as portrayed. The investigation immediately turned to those who lived with Ruth, and they learned Ruth had some psychiatric issues, including arguments and confrontations about taking her medications. Investigators also learned Ruth and Bernie’s marriage was fractured, and Bernie had had an affair. They also found Ruth’s relationship with their son, Jeffrey, was strained. Ruth’s sister Linda Jarvie thought Bernie was responsible for the murder, and given his affair, Bernie understood the suspicions, but he had an ironclad alibi backed by his boss and four witnesses, ruling him out as a suspect. Five months into the investigation, Jeffrey Pyne was charged with his mother’s murder. Police had circumstantial evidence against Jeffrey -- blisters on his hands, lies about gardening at his neighbor’s home and his detached demeanor when authorities told him what had happened to his mother. In addition, there was no sign of Ruth being sexually assaulted and no sign of a break-in. Before the case went to the jury, Prosecutor John Skrzynski asked the judge for another option for the jurors; a charge of second-degree murder, rather than the original charge of first-degree murder. Skrzynski believed it would make it easier for the jury to convict him. Jeffrey’s defense attorney, James Champion, argued against it, but the judge granted the motion. After three days of jury deliberations the verdict was announced, and Jeffrey Pyne was found guilty of second-degree murder. On Screen Text Graphics: Jeffrey Pyne will be sentenced on January 29th. Under Michigan law, he could receive as much as life in prison with parole or as little as a year. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/10/13 rebroadcast: Bernie Pyne and his daughter Julia regularly make the five hour round trip to visit Jeffrey in prison; A new attorney is working on Jeffrey’s appeal. The plan is to file before the end of the year. On-Screen text graphic for the 06/21/14 rebroadcast: Bernie Pyne and his daughter Julia regularly make the five-hour round trip to visit Jeffrey in prison. A new attorney has filed an appeal on Jeffrey’s behalf. Interviewed: Greg Glover, Oakland County Det. Sgt.; Dave Hendrick, Oakland County Det. Sgt.; Bernie Pyne, father of defendant; Linda Jarvie, Ruth Pyne’s sister; James Champion, defense attorney. (C: Tracy Smith - P: Liza Finley, Marc B. - 06/21/14 48 HOURS: “Relentless” (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the murder of Nicole Pietz, and how Gael Schneider, the victim’s mother, waged a one-woman campaign of psychological warfare on her daughter’s alleged killer. In January 2006, Nicole Pietz disappeared from her suburban Seattle, Washington home. Nine days later her body was discovered in a wooded field near the airport. The investigation into the murder revealed that Nicole’s life was not as perfect as it appeared. She suffered from painful medical issues and had been addicted to medication. Her husband, David Pietz, told police he suspected she was possibly abusing drugs again. David was also unfaithful. Police had few clues and the case went cold. From the beginning, Gael Schneider believed David knew more than he was saying and started a six-year campaign of harassment: she confronted David at work, left messages at his home and continued to urge investigators take another look at the case. Eventually, two new detectives pieced together enough evidence to arrest David Pietz for murder. They were convinced David strangled her. He was charged with second-degree murder. In September 2013 the case went to trial: David Pietz was found guilty. On-screen text graphic: On Thursday, David Pietz will be sentenced. He faces ten to eighteen years in prison. Gael and her husband plan to move back to Seattle to be close to her daughter Tonia. On-Screen text graphic for the 06/21/14 rebroadcast: David Pietz was sentenced to eighteen years, four months, the maximum under Washington state law. Pietz has filed an appeal. In July, Gael and her husband plan to move back to Seattle to be close to her daughter, Tonia. Interviewed: Gael Schneider, Nicole’s mother; Tania Zurcher, Nicole’s sister; Tamara Van Der Heyden and Dave Tilzer, Nicole’s friends; Sabrina Strieck, David Pietz’s girlfriend; Jake Pavlovich and Mike Mollis, detectives, King’s County Sheriff’s Department . 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/28/14 48 HOURS: “The War in Chicago” (9:00-10:00p) - a six-month investigation into Chicago’s problems with drugs, gangs, guns and the deadly connection between street violence and drug trafficking. Segments include: (1) the story of Hadiya Pendleton, the unintended victim of a gang battle, who died just a week after attending President Barack Obama’s second inauguration. Interviewed: her parents Anthony Pendleton and Cleopatra Cowley-Pendleton. (2) an interview with Jack Riley, head of the Chicago DEA, who says there is a direct connection between drugs and guns: and the drug of choice is heroin. Mexico’s Sinaloa Cartel is the main source of the heroin and the leader of the cartel, Joaquin “Chapo” Guzman, is specifically targeting Chicago. Now, a multi-agency task force is vowing to take down the gangs that do his bidding. (3) heroin is making its way out of the inner city in suburbia. This is the story of the “Heroin Highway” where street gangs give safe passage to those from the suburbs into the city to purchase heroin. Interviewed: Paula Nixon, an addict; her mother P.J. Newberg; Pat O’Neil, Will County Coroner; James Lindbloom, former suburban drug dealer. (4) the story of one man’s fight to rid his street of drugs: for about a year, David Muhammad risked his life by videotaping heroin and crack sales on his street and posting them on to Youtube. His goal was to clean up his street. He did, but most of the dealers have just moved to another location. (5) tragedies like Hadiya Pendleton’s always attract attention. That is not the case in the murder of another murdered teen, Porshe Foster, who was also the victim of gun violence. Interviewed: Garry McCarthy, Chicago Police Superintendent; Porshe Foster’s mother Bonita Foster and aunt, Demitria Rogers. (6) combating this war comes with a price: almost $1 million a week in police overtime. A spokesman for Mayor Rahm Emanuel says that this surge will continue. The DEA has seized millions of dollars of heroin but had yet to execute the type of big-time bust that will cripple the cartel’s hold on Chicago. Meanwhile, Paula Nixon completed rehab again, but is back on the streets. On-screen Text Graphics: the two men charged with the killing of Hadiya Pendleton have pleaded not guilty. No trial date has been set. There has still been no arrest in the killing of Porshe Foster. On-Screen text graphic for the 06/28/14 rebroadcast: The two men charged with the killing of Hadiya Pendleton have pleaded not guilty. No trial date has been set. There has still been no arrest in the killing of Porshe. This year’s murder rate in Chicago is down 33% compared to the first half of 2012. - 06/28/14 48 HOURS: “Love, Hate & Obsession” (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the investigation into the 2011 murder of one-time millionaire Lanny Horowitz, who was shot nine times while taking a shower in the bathroom of his upscale Jupiter, Florida home. Only three people were in the home at the time: Lanny Horowitz, his ex-wife Donna Horowitz, whom he had divorced twice, but had reconciled with, and his son, Radley, who also resided there. Both had strained relationships with Lanny. The investigation led investigators to the knowledge that theirs was a deeply troubled family. Both Radley, a former gun dealer, who also served a stint in prison, and his mother Donna, who was bothered by her ex-husband’s close relationship with female business partner Francine Tice, were considered suspects. Eventually, Donna was arrested and charged with first-degree murder. At the trial, the defense ultimately blamed her son, Radley. The jury made a quick decision: Donna was guilty. Radley Horowitz has mixed feelings about her defense, but forgives her. On-screen text graphic: Lanny Horowitz had a $500,000 life insurance policy. He left $200,000 to Francine Tice. Radley sued Francine for her share of the insurance payout. Francine settled for $90,000. As part of the settlement, both have agreed never to speak badly about each other publicly. On-Screen text graphic for the 06/28/14 rebroadcast: Lanny Horowitz had a $500,000 life insurance policy. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

06/29/14 “Modern Masters of Religion” – an interfaith special that explores the works and influence of several 20th century leaders of varied religions, their place in modern religious history, and the people they have affected. (1) Thomas Merton, a convert to Catholicism, and a Trappist monk is considered one of the greatest American Catholics of the 20th century. Merton died in 1968, but his influence and legacy as a writer, mystic and social activist continues to be felt by many. Includes comments from Fr. James Martin, S.J., who left his secular career to become a priest after watching a documentary on Merton. (2) His Holiness the 16th Karmapa was the leader of the Kagyu School of Tibetan Buddhism and is considered one of its most important masters. Among the followers of the religion, the Karmapa is considered a “living Buddha” who is able to convey all-seeing wisdom and endless compassion. His Holiness the 16th Karmapa died in 1981. Includes interviews with: Lama Surya Das, a Western Tibetan Buddhist scholar and author, who was a student of His Holiness; and Derek Kolleeny, founder and teacher at the Westchester Buddhist Center in New York, who first met His Holiness in 1980. (3) An interview with Karen Armstrong, a world-renowned religious historian and scholar. She has written “A History of God”, “The Battle for God”, “Islam”, and “Buddha”, among other books. A former Catholic nun, she speaks about what led her to become a lifelong student of religion. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Pilar Belendez-DeSha. Director & Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; The Islamic Society of North America; New York Board of Rabbis; A Consortium of Roman Catholic Organizations.)
