48 HOURS: “The Case Against Enrico Forti” – an investigation into whether Enrico Forti, a former television producer and windsurfing champion, was wrongly convicted of murder 20 years ago. Forti negotiated a deal to buy a hotel in Ibiza, Spain owned by Tony Pike. Tony’s sons, Dale and Brad, felt the property was worth much more due to celebrity clientele. Dale Pike flew from Australia to Miami and was found dead on a beach. When questioned, Forti lied to the police about picking up Pike from the airport. As he was the last person to see Pike alive, Forti became the prime suspect. Forti was tried, convicted of murder, and sentenced to life in prison in 2000. One juror on the case, who voted to convict, does not believe Forti is guilty. In Italy and other parts of Europe, the case has become infamous. 48 HOURS reported on new information regarding the case and traveled to Italy and Germany to find leads on an alternate suspect. On-screen text graphic: Enrico Forti is hoping to have his sentence commuted. 48 HOURS: “#FindPeterChadwick”– a report on the investigation into the search for a multimillionaire real estate investor accused of killing his wife and staging a kidnapping plot. Peter Chadwick and his wife, Q.C. Chadwick, seemed to have the perfect life. College sweethearts, they were married for 21 years and had three sons. They lived in a gated community in Newport Beach, California. That dream life collapsed one day in 2012 when neither of the Chadwicks turned up to pick up their sons from the bus stop. Investigators had little idea that day the search for the couple would lead them on an international manhunt. The next morning, San Diego authorities got a 911 call from Chadwick, claiming a house painter named Juan murdered Q.C. and forced Peter Chadwick to get her body out of the house. He said a man helped Juan and they were planning to cut up his wife’s body and dispose it south of the border. Law enforcement didn’t believe Chadwick, and he was arrested and charged with Q.C.’s murder. He was released on $1 million in bail. Then he vanished. Members of the U.S. Marshals team reveal they’ve had some key clues to where he is. Chadwick is one of the U.S. Marshals’ 15 most-wanted fugitives. The U.S. Marshals have been getting a lot of leads about Chadwick, many from around the globe, and at least one from a scammer. On-screen text graphic: Have you seen Peter Chadwick? 05/18/19 48 HOURS: “What Happened to Rachael?” – a report on the investigation into the murder of Rachael DelTondo, a popular teacher who was gunned down outside her home in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania. It is the ninth unsolved murder in a city with an underfunded and understaffed police department, leaving many to wonder if the case will be solved. The investigation has led to several potential leads for the police to follow, including the actions of DelTondo’s ex-fiance Frank Catroppa and her friendship with Sheldon Jeter, a young Aliquippa High School athlete. Before the murder, Catroppa, was allowed access to a police report about DelTondo with a lot of sensitive personal information, but he denies showing it to anyone. Jeter, through his attorney, also denies anything to do with the murder. There is also the belief, that Sheldon Jeter was obsessed with DelTondo and there may have been some sort of inappropriate relationship. Her mother, Lisa DelTondo, also says her daughter told her she was cooperating in an ongoing investigation by state police, into alleged corruption in the Aliquippa Police Department, and had received death threats. It has been a year since the murder: her parents distrust the police, the authorities not saying anything, and a consultant believes if things were not the way they were in Aliquippa, Rachael DelTondo would still be alive. On-screen text graphic: Anyone with information on Rachael DelTondo's murder should call the Beaver County Detective Bureau at 724-773-8569. 05/25/19 48 HOURS PRESENTS: “Pvt. Needham’s War” - a report on the case of Pvt. John Needham, a decorated soldier diagnosed with traumatic brain injury (TBI) and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and who investigators say beat his 19-year-old girlfriend Jacque Villagomez to death with his bare hands in September 2008. Needham took responsibility for the murder, but remembered little of the crime, recognizing only that something inside him had snapped. After serving in Iraq, Needham returned home, shattered physically and emotionally. He suffered from combat injuries and was prescribed drugs which he downed with alcohol. He knew Villagomez, who had also struggled with drug addiction, for only a few months when she moved in with him. His drinking escalated. After his father, Mike Needham Sr., told Jacque that she had to move out and she had agreed, an old girlfriend came to the house upsetting Villagomez. An argument between the two women broke out, resulting in his ex’s departure and a call to 911. When police arrived, they found Jacque Villagomez battered and near death, with John Needham naked, crying, and smeared in blood. There was no evidence that anything other than Needham’s fists were used to beat Villagomez. Released on bail, his father sought to get his son the care he believed he needed and insisted that the crime was not murder. The father argued that if not for Needham’s war injuries, Villagomez would be alive today. Mike Needham Sr. allowed investigative reporter Michael de Yoanna and a team of filmmakers to document the unraveling of his son’s life. Before his trial, John visited his mother in Tucson, AZ in 2010 for additional back surgery. His brother, Mike Needham Jr., came to visit from California. Shortly after his arrival, Mike found his brother unresponsive -- he was dead at the age twenty-six. His death was determined to be from an overdose of painkillers, but the question remains as to whether it was an accident or suicide. The prosecutors in the Villagomez case says that John Needham may have been a good soldier, but he needed to be held accountable for what he did. Original on-screen text graphic: 48 Hours Mystery reached out repeatedly to the Army for a response to John Needham’s story. The Army declined to comment. On-screen text graphic for the 06/26/12 rebroadcast: On the anniversary of Jacque’s death, the Savino sisters tossed flowers in the ocean in her memory. This investigation, in collaboration with the Newport News Police Department – led agents on the trail of twisted relations, lies, and secret double-lives. Investigators learned that everyone had nothing but good things to say about Voss himself. They learned his wife, Cat, made up many stories about herself and took up with various men while Voss was away at sea. She went on a spending spree using almost all of a $100,000 death benefit she received on vacations, jewelry and restaurants. They came to suspect her friend, Michael Draven, spending months listening to wiretaps and conducting around-the-clock surveillance on their suspects. They ultimately learned a third party involved in the murder. Eight months after Voss was killed, his wife and two men were arrested and charged with murder. Includes interviews with Gregory Ford, Executive Assistant Director of NCIS Criminal Investigations; NCIS team members Dana Shutt, Maureen Evans, Larry Rilee, Jim Grebas, and Sandra Barrow; Ashley Doyle, a friend of Cat; Carol Wiggins, Cat's aunt; Steve Larson, Cat's ex-husband; Barbara Wilson, Cory Voss' mom; and Draven's mom Juanita Harper. Lee Hartley, who fell mysteriously ill while serving aboard the USS Forestal while deployed in the Mediterranean Sea. Lt. Hartley was airlifted to a Naval hospital where his illness baffled doctors. Months later he died. His autopsy revealed he died of acute arsenic poisoning. Toxicology tests indicated he was poisoned while on duty aboard the ship. After a year, with no obvious suspects, the case went cold. Nearly thirteen years later, the NCIS cold case squad reopened the old casefile. Family, friends, and potential witnesses were re-interviewed before investigators discovered information which led them to the killer. His wife, Pamela Hartley, was unhappy in her marriage and sent homemade food to the ship which Lt. Hartley consumed. She says she didn't want to hurt him with a divorce and thought death would be a better option. She pled guilty and was sentenced to 40 years in prison. She was released six-and-a-half years later.
