

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS
Spotlight on our Communities Program
January-February-March 2022

DATE	TOPIC	TIME AIRED
1/2/22	AG Year 2021 in Review. This program talked about agriculture in our area in 2021, covering the good things that happened during the year, and the challenges faced by area farmers. Guests included banking lenders, extension agents, equipment suppliers and seed vendors. We also had comments from several local farmers on the show.	6am - 7am
1/9/22	Julie Orf with the DunklinCounty Library was the show guest. Ms. Orf spoke of the January celebration which featured the great western novels and novelists.	6am - 7am
1/16/22	Anthony Smith at FCC Behavioral Health about the staggering number of home people currently in our listening area, and things being done currently to help those in need.	6am - 7am
1/23/22	April Primary Election update, listing the races in our local area, including city election primaries, school board elections and bond issues, local judge races in the primary, along with Missouri, Arkansas and Tennessee state primary elections.	6am - 7am
1/30/22	Latish Garrett and Glendra Johnson with the Caring Council were our guests, and spoke about their expansion and the services offered to residents of our listening area.	6am - 7am
2/6/22	Jennifer Freeze with the American Red Cross spoke about the critical blood shortages they are experiencing and also spoke of the area blood drives to help alleviate those emergency shortages.	6am - 7am
2/13/22	Matt Poole and Tina Brown were our program guests, and spoke about the new training they have started, teaching CPR to area farmers.	6am - 7am
2/20/22	Kristy Greene with the Kennett Middle School spoke about a new program they have started in the school system, called “ Trendy Indian”.	6am - 7am
2/27/22	Rachel Ward of FCC Behavioral Health spoke about their new Expansion Services.	6am - 7am
3/6/22	Kennett City Councilman BillWard with an update regarding their attempt to get a local hospital back into this area.	6am - 7am
3/13/22	Archer Tribett and Kelly Campbell, area students spoke about the Art's Council's Spring Play.	6am - 7am
3/20/22	Laura Ford with The Oaks Nutrition Center about the Visiting Nurses Association day.	6am - 7am
3/27/22	Karol Wilcox with the Caruthersville Humane Society was our guest and spoke about the John Van Ausdall 5K fundraiser, and how this event is instrumental in the funding for their shelter.	6am - 7am