

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS
October-December 2019

DATE	TOPIC	TIME AIRED
10-06-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guest was Dennis Hamlet- Fire Marshall for Kennett speaking about National fire prevention month and his new role as Fire Marshall.	6am – 6:30am
10/13/19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guest was Andrew Webster the coordinator of “JAG” Jobs for America’s Graduates, spoke about how their goal is to help take down barriers to success for graduates who are needing help. Webster also reached out to employers who were needing workers to contact him.	6am – 6:30am
10-20-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guest was Brian Shelton with the Missouri Department of Conservation. Shelton spoke about the upcoming hunting seasons and the importance of firearm safety. Also spoke about new regulations for hunters in Missouri.	6am – 6:30am
10-27-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guest was Julie Orf with the Dunklin County Library. Orf discussed their reading programs, including Book Discussion, and also their Thanksgiving Crafts for Kids and the Children's Book Reading programs.	6am – 6:30am
11-03-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guests were Tina Brown who was spearheading school fundraising for the Gold Star Memorial coming to the courthouse and Phillip Greenway with the American Legion and VFW. The Gold Star Memorial will honor family members in our area that lost loved ones in war. $10,000 was raised by school children for this memorial.	6am – 6:30am
11-10-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guest was Chancellor Wayne, Mayor of Kennett as he discussed continued efforts to get a hospital back in Dunklin County and the recent loss of businesses and jobs in the area.	6am – 6:30am
11-17-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guest was Laura Ford with the OAKS Nutrition Center. Ford discussed the opening of their new facility that was purchased with tax credits, and how they provide needed services to Senior Citizens in the area, including meals, exercise facilities and arts and crafts for area senior residents.	6am – 6:30am
11-24-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guest was Brian Shelton with the Missouri Department of Conservation as he discussed the upcoming Thanksgiving Deer Hunt and the numbers of young hunters who will be hunting over the holiday. Shelton stresses both firearm safety and deer stand safety and the need to use safety harnesses and belts when climbing.	6am – 6:30am
12-1-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: guest was Lee Atwell	6am – 6:30am

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS
October-December 2019

	with the Kennett Jaycees as he discussed the Jaycees “Coats for Kids” program. They have a need for slightly used coats and jackets, and talked how these items could be donated for this good cause.
12-08-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guest was Marsha Blanchard, Dean of Regional Campuses with Southeast Missouri State University, talking about her retirement and the advancements in opportunities for a college education in our smaller communities.	6am – 6:30am
12-15-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guest was Julie Orf with the Dunklin County Library, spoke about all of their holiday activities and also their plan to release fines for any past due item if you wear an “Ugly Christmas Sweater” to the library and return the past due book.	6am – 6:30am
12-22-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guests were Beverly Hayes and Mabel Woods with Virgies Place in Kennett. They talked about the services they provide to the needy in the area, including Mission on Wheels and Meals on Wheels. Said the holiday season is one of the times when they need the most donations to provide these services to those in need.	6am – 6:30am
12-29-19	Spotlight on our Communities program: Guest was Chris Moore the Superintendent of South Pemiscot Schools . Moore talked about their new school safety program called K.I.D.S, which include safe shelters in all the schools and other ways the school district is addressing school safety concerns.	6am – 6:30am