

ISSUES AND PROGRAMS
July-Sep 2022

DATE	TOPIC	TIME AIRED
7-3-22	Clay Driskell was the show guest, he is on the Sikeston Rodeo Board and spoke about this year's rodeo and where the proceeds are distributed in the local communities, and also details regarding their main charity, The Kenny Rogers Children's Hospital in Sikeston.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
7-10-22	Eric Huering with the Missouri Conservation Department was the show guest. Officer Huering spoke about the free fishing rodeo and clinic coming up at Comb's Lake. The Missouri Conservation Department is providing free fishing tackle and instruction for all area youth that would like to learn how to fish, and actually fish at Comb's Lake.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
7-17-22	Sara Gardner with the Semo Food Bank was the guest. Mrs. Gardner spoke about the critically low food supplies at the food bank, and was asking the public for food donations if possible. With rising inflation and food costs, many more people are needing the	6:00 am- 6:30 am

	services of the Semo Food Bank and they want to make sure that supplies coming in will meet their current needs.
7/24/22	Kennett Fire Chief Paul Spain was the show guest. Chief Spain spoke about the Grain Bin Rescue clinic they are hosting, to make local farmers and farm workings more aware of the dangers of working inside grain bins, and the rescue process if someone is trapped inside. He encouraged anyone involved in the farming industry, including wives of farmers, to attend this clinic.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
7/31/22	Julie Orf with the Dunklin County Library was the show's guest. Mrs. Orf spoke about all the activities going on at the library, and also announced their Hall of Honor selections for this year. She also spoke about the display of the Hall of Honor recipients, and the past recipients of this award.	6:00 am- 6:30 am

8/7/22	Lara Ford with the Oak's Nutrition and Senior Center was the show guest. Mrs. Ford spoke of a new program they are currently offering, which is focused on Caregiver's Support. She also spoke about the meals provided at the Oak's Nutrition Center and activities for the area's senior citizens.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
8/14/22	Eric Huering with the Missouri Conservation Department was the show's guest. He spoke of the new shooting range that has opened in our listening area, and how this could be used by the public as well as law enforcement officers for their training. He also spoke of Hunter Education Classes that are coming up and how it's required of anyone obtaining a Missouri Hunting License for the first time.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
8/21/22	Kennett Police Chief Kenny Wilson was the show's guest. Chief Wilson spoke of their new program in the area schools, called Back 2 School Safe. He also spoke about how motorists should be extremely alert for children as school starts back,	6:00 am- 6:30 am and urged the public to slow down during the times when children are going to, and are being dismissed from school.

8/28/22	Elsa Johnson with the Hornersville Watermelon Festival was the show's guest. Mrs. Johnson spoke about this year's festival and how important it has been for the community for years. She also spoke of several civic groups and organizations that will be at the event with items for event attendees.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
9/4/22	Jimmy French with the Kennett Kruisers was the show guest. Mr. French spoke about this year's car show, and also spoke about all the local charities that benefit each year from the large crowds that attend.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
9/11/22	Lance Davis with the Kennett Fire Department was the show guest. He spoke about his new position with the department after being named Fire Chief, and also wanted to talk about fire safety. With the drought, fire dangers are greater than ever. He also spoke about the importance for families to have fire drills, so an escape plan as well as a location for everyone to meet if a fire did occur in their home.	6:00 am- 6:30 am

9/18/22	Sara Gardner with the Semo Food Bank was the show guest, and she spoke about a second location of the food bank now open in our area. This second location will be more convenient for residents of Pemicotand Dunklin Counties, so they no longer have to travel all the way to Sikeston to deliver food, or for those who are in need to pick up supplies.	6:00 am- 6:30 am
9/25/22	Jill Rickman with Kennett Light Gas and Water was the show's guest. Mrs. Rickman spoke about all the new advancements and services at CLG&W, and also invited all listeners to their Customer Appreciation Event as they serve lunch and snacks for their guests.	6:00 am- 6:30 am