

KTMO-FM ISSUES AND PROGRAMS
October-December 2018

DATE	TOPIC	TIME AIRED
10/07/18	Beverly Alford Thomas on her work with Leonard and Virgie's Place to provide food for the needy.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
10/14/18	Christine McWaters with the New Madrid Chamber of Commerce talks about the Fall Festival.	7:30 – 7:45 AM
10/21/18	Julie Orf, Dunklin County Library with the announcement of the Dunklin County Hall of Honor recipients for this year.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
10/28/18	Kay Collier talks about the First Presbyterian Church Fall Bazaar to help raise money for families in need.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
11/04/18	Michelle Rasberry with the Dunklin County Caring Council on Scare on the Square and Toys for Tots campaign.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
11/11/18	Mabel Woods with the Pemiscot County Initiative Network on the Grandparent/Caregiver Conference in Hayti.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
11/18/18	Waylon Toms talks about the annual Arts and Crafts Show in Kennett.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
11/29/18	Jill Rickman with the Kennett Lions Club talks about the Lions Club Christmas Carnival.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
12/02/18	Venna Oldson talks about the CASA Charitable Auction.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
12/09/18	Chad Stone on the recent guest spot on the Food Network and the publicity it gave to the City of Kennett.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
12/16/18	Julie Orf with the Dunklin County Library discussing all the holiday events at the library during the month of December.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
12/23/18	Mike Crum and Jacob Deck on the Arts Council's upcoming production of “The Santa Land Diaries”.	7:30 – 8:00 AM
12/30/18	Mark Goddard, 911 Telecommunications Officer with the Kennett Police Department about his impending retirement after 43 years with the department.	7:30 – 8:00 AM