Dear Affiliate Partner:

To assist you in complying with the reporting requirements for children's television and the requirement that stations air "core" children's programming, we are providing you with episode-specific descriptions (the 'NBC Kids' educational and informational programming block) as set forth in the attached Community Relations Quarterly Children's Programming Report for the 1st quarter of 2015. The report includes information to help prepare FCC Form 398. Please note that we have not included the specific dates and times for each of the programs as that may be station-specific.

This report is divided into the following categories:

1. Educational Objectives: NBC Kids for both 1st quarter 2015 and 2nd quarter 2015.
2. Core programming: Regularly scheduled programming furnished by the NBC Network that is specifically designed to serve the early educational and informational needs of children 16 and under. Each of these programs is identified on-air as educational and informational with the "E/I" icon, and is similarly identified to the national listing services. To assist stations with the preemption report section of FCC Form 398, we have added specific episode numbers. Please note that the age target for NBC Kids programming is identified as 2-5 years old.
3. Other programming: Programming furnished by the NBC Network that contributes to the educational and informational needs of children 16 and under, but is not specifically designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children.
4. Public service announcements targeted to children 16 and under.
5. Non-broadcast efforts that enhance the educational and informational value of NBC Network programming to children.
6. Network on-air promotional efforts, which include a schedule of NBC on-air promos for NBC Kids programming.

The regularly-scheduled children's programming and promotional content furnished to you by the NBC Network during the 1st quarter of 2015 complied with the commercial limits of the Children's Television Act, and 47 C.F.R. §§ 73.670(a)-(d), provided that you broadcast and distributed such programming as furnished to you by NBC, and did not add any promotional or advertising content thereto other than as directed by NBC via weekly postings on APT.

Note Regarding FCC's Video Description Rules: The programs supplied in the NBC Kids block are video-described to provide a better viewing experience for blind or visually impaired children. Under the FCC's video description rules that became effective on July 1, 2012, full-power affiliates of the ABC, CBS, Fox and NBC networks that are located in the top 25 television markets must provide 50 hours per calendar quarter of video-described programming during prime time or in children's programming. A video described program may be counted toward the 50 hours when it is originally aired and on one re-airing. Although much of the programming aired with video description is likely to be newly produced, stations may count any program they are airing for the first or second time with video description after the effective date, even if the program aired on that station without video description prior to the effective date. Similarly, a station may count programming toward its 50-hour obligation even if that programming has aired elsewhere with video description, as long as it is airing with description for the first or second time on that station.

1st QUARTER 2015 EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

In compliance with the Children's Television Act regulations that became effective January 2, 1997, the NBC Kids programming block features an on-air icon (E/I) indicating that each program is "educational and informational" for children. This icon is displayed throughout each program. Also, in compliance with the regulations, the following document, which includes "early educational and informational" objectives of NBC Kids, must be placed in your public file.

The NBC Kids programming block also meets the requirements for video described content, as established by the Twenty-first Century Communications and Video Accessibility Act, effective October 8, 2010. Full-power affiliates of NBC that are located in the 25 television markets with the largest number of television households must provide video-described content at any time they are providing children's programming. Each episode of content can be aired no more than twice in the calendar year.

Each of the programs listed below, which make up the three hour NBC Kids programming block, is specifically designed to serve the early educational and informational needs of children ages 2-5. All of the programs have educational objectives and messages that are core to the content and appropriate for the program genre.

From January 3rd – March 28, 2015 NBC Kids aired six shows returning from the 4th Quarter 2014. These are: Astroblast, The Chica Show, Tree Fu Tom, Lazy Town, Poppy Cat, and Noodle and Doodle.

All six shows were developed specifically for a target audience composed of children ages 2-5. Noodle and Doodle is a live action, fact based, craft and cooking show. The five remaining shows have a narrative format and two of the shows (The Chica Show and Tree Fu Tom) use elements of fantasy and imagination to develop the educational content. The Chica Show and Tree Fu Tom combine live action with animation, while Lazy Town is live action with puppets. Poppy Cat and Astroblast are both animated series.

Astroblast, based on the book series by author and illustrator Bob Kolar, is set on a space station in an unknown solar system. Five animal characters and one three-eyed octopus (of unknown derivation) populate the station. Each episode begins with an everyday conversation or incident that grows into a predicament needing a solution. While these predicaments take place in a fantasy environment, the issues and resolutions resonate for a preschool audience. Through comedy and zippy action, our target audience sees how the characters learn lessons for practical living such as how to keep track of things that belong to you, practice good habits, clean up when you've made a mess, rebound from a failure or an embarrassing incident, or resist the urge to blame others for your mistakes.

The Chica Show features a five-year-old “baby” chick that spends her days with her parents in their costume shop, the Coop. The shop’s one employee, Kelly, doubles as Chica’s nanny and the ensemble is rounded out with Bunji, a large floppy eared rabbit, and Stitches, a straw mannequin that sits in the window. In each episode Chica develops or encounters a problem that she cannot immediately resolve. Usually her issues involve impulse control, distractibility, judgment, and inter-personal behaviors. She and Kelly usually work on the problem through an adventure—a fantasy transformation to animation—where Bunji and Stitches come alive and join Chica and Kelly for the problem solving process. The core educational content is primarily socio-emotional development as Chica learns how to express herself properly, think before she acts, and interact with others effectively. She often learns that it takes hard work and practice to become proficient at different skills.

Tree Fu Tom is a live action/animated series about a little boy who lives in a rural area, yet has a rich fantasy life in the woods behind his home. Tom uses specific movements to summon up magic powers that permit him to morph into an animated hero and fly around in Treetopolis, the fantasy version of his woods. While in Treetopolis, Tom and his friends, Ariella, Twigs, Squirmturn and Zigzoo will invariably run into a problem or disaster that needs fixing. Tom calls upon the audience to practice original dance moves that will bring him “Big World” magic so he and his friends can resolve their challenge of the day. Educational messages reinforce positive socio-emotional content, with examples that model: being loyal to good friends, knowing how to ask for help, doing the right thing instead of what is convenient, making the effort to share rather than being selfish and relying on teamwork in order to accomplish a goal.

Lazy Town encourages fitness and healthful habits for preschool children. In the imaginary setting of Lazy Town, characters’ eating and fitness habits are linked to problem solving in their world. The lead character is Stephanie, a young girl who guides the audience through the story as she and her friends (“human” puppets) and her Uncle (Mayor Milford Meanswell) navigate life within Lazy Town. Robbie Rotten, the underground spy and influencer who personifies the ethos of Lazy Town, is determined to ruin the health and fitness practices of Stephanie and her friends. When the kids have difficulty with Robbie Rotten, Sportacus (a gymnast/athlete prepared to answer any call for help) comes to the rescue from his home in a zeppelin-like aircraft that hovers over earth. The underlying themes of Lazy Town stress the importance of eating “sports candy” (aka fruits and vegetables), always obtaining sufficient sleep, and going outside to engage in a wide range of physical activities that include playing games, competing athletically, and even building forts and play structures.

Poppy Cat based on a book series by Lara Jones, models the use of imagination and storytelling to encourage creative thinking in viewers. Each episode features the narrator Lara, reading a story about Poppy Cat, to her own cat (who is also named Poppy). She weaves an exciting tale following her imagination, which leads her to distant lands reached by boat, plane, hot air balloon or train. Each story features Poppy Cat as the leader of a group of animal friends, including the resident bully Egbert the badger, and other occasionally recurring characters. A prevailing message emerges within each episode to be nice to your friends and always work together. There remains an overarching implicit message within every episode as well; think creatively and exercise your mind through reading and storytelling – for these activities always lead to enjoyment and adventure.

Noodle and Doodle, an instructional series, features art and cooking projects around a specific theme. Host, Sean, drives around in a double-decker bus fully equipped with art supplies and a kitchen, ready for any assignment. The projects encourage parent engagement and often feature families working together to make something to display within the child’s home. Sean’s side-kick, Doggity, is an ever-faithful beagle who transforms into an animated character during interstitial trips to a parallel universe, set in a kitchen full of prank playing animated characters. The art projects typically promote utilizing recycled materials in order to demonstrate that creativity can transform something intended for one purpose into something that achieves a completely different goal.

2nd QUARTER 2015 EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

In the 2nd quarter, Noodle and Doodle will be replaced by a new animated series, Earth to Luna.

Earth to Luna is a Brazilian animated series specifically aimed at teaching 2-5 year old children how to ask questions about nature and science and vigorously pursue the answers. The show encourages curiosity, research, and critical thinking. Each episode of the show is focused on a particular creature, object, or phenomenon that would be of interest to the target audience. For example, Luna might wonder how she can grow a plant without a seed and finds the answer through her inquiry process. The characters, Luna, Jupiter (her brother), and Clive (their pet ferret) embark on a research effort that takes the audience through each step that answers their overarching question. The show uses recurring features, signature phrases, and songs to cue the audience when they need to do research, when they transition to the adventure, and when they have reached the ending to review all they've learned.

1st QUARTER 2015 SHOW SUMMARIES

Astroblast is the space station and home of six animal characters in Bob Colar's book series of the same name. The space station is managed by an over-confident and exuberant commander, Comet the dog. The crew includes, Sputnik the pig, a very knowledgeable reader; Haley, a rabbit, Comet's true peer and an athlete; Radar, the monkey, who is somewhat self-involved, Jet, a silent alligator whose gestures and expressions are his mode of communication, and Sal, a congenial three-eyed octopus who runs the counter in the Smoothie Shack, the space station café. While the space station supports the missions of a bizarre and diverse array of aliens, the Smoothie Shack is the hub of social interaction for the galaxy. There is always something happening at Astroblast and everyone on the crew has plenty to learn to keep the community happy and on an even keel.

The Chica Show features a five-year-old "baby" chick that spends her days with her parents in their costume shop, the Coop. The shop's one employee, Kelly, doubles as Chica's nanny and the ensemble is rounded out with Bunji, a large floppy eared rabbit and Stitches, a straw mannequin that sits in the window. Chica's parents were formerly entertainers in the vaudeville tradition and they regale the audience with stories and songs from their theatrical past. They enjoy and indulge Chica, who sometimes acts younger than her age and gets into all kinds of predicaments. Kelly uses fantasy play to transform herself, Chica, Bunji and Stitches into animated characters in another universe, who are struggling with a problem similar to the one Chica experienced in the Coop. Without fail, they find the problem can be solved and they carry that knowledge back to the Coop to use on another day.

Tree Fu Tom focuses on the amazing adventures of a young boy called Tom who, with the power of 'Big World' magic that depends upon specific movements, can transform into a tiny but mighty magical super hero who travels to the wondrous enchanted kingdom of Treetopolis. During each program Tom calls upon the audience to follow his moves and send him the "Big World" magic he needs to solve the problem he and his friends are facing. These friends include Ariella, a butterfly who is also a rancher and has rope lassoing skills, Twigs, an acorn sprite who folds himself into an acorn when he's frightened, Squirmturn, a pill bug who looks like a large and imposing coal miner but is often timid and fearful, and Zigzoo, a green tree frog who is the resident genius inventor. In each episode there are action adventure sequences that are key to resolving the challenge of the day.

Lazy Town is a show featuring the importance of health, fitness, and being good friends. Set in a fantasy world known as Lazy Town, which is populated by inactive residents, we meet a visitor named Stephanie who is determined to coax her friends and relatives into adopting a healthful, active life style. She wins over her new friends, Ziggy, Stingy, Trixie and Pixel, convincing them to leave their gaming consoles and candy stashes at home so they can go outside and play. She persuades her uncle, Mayor Milford Meanswell, and his friend Ms. Busy Body to support her efforts. Robbie Rotten, who lives underground, and is determined to return Lazy Town to its former state of inactivity and quiet, constantly foils the characters' efforts. The athlete Sportacus, who lives in a zeppelin-like aircraft and receives signals from the kids or the Mayor whenever they need help, frequently comes to their rescue. Sportacus has two goals, to keep the peace and to promote healthful, positive living. When Robbie Rotten is discovered and contained through comic pratfalls, he returns to his underground lair and all is well in Lazy Town, until another day and another time when Robbie will rise again.

Poppy Cat is based on the Poppy Cat's Adventures book series authored and illustrated by Lara Jones. A narrator, also named Lara, reads a story to her cat in each episode. This story stars the narrator's own Poppy Cat, who envisions and takes his friends on imaginary adventures. The friends are Zuzu, a Dalmatian who zips around on a skateboard; Alma, a southern belle bunny who is ultra-feminine and sweetly dramatic, Mo, a little mouse who tries his best to do as much as everyone else despite his size; Owl, the wise one who is prone to neck rolls and commentary when things irritate him or don't make sense, and the grouchy Egbert, an arrogant and obnoxious badger who refuses to play with the group and invariably attempts to sabotage their adventures. Occasionally Hilda, a forgetful and ditzzy pigeon who flies into their adventures, appears, says hello and provides misguided directions to the friends. Once their mission is accomplished, the friends return to their little village and resume their cheerful, active lives. At the conclusion of her story, Lara closes her book and says good-bye to Poppy Cat, who is usually ready for his nap.

Noodle and Doodle is a live-action show hosted by Sean Roach that also blends animation and puppetry into the overall format. Sean drives a double-decker bus into various communities to meet children who have written to him with a problem that they would like to solve using an art and/or a food experience. Sean is accompanied by Noodle, a puppet character and Doodle, a digital character that lives inside a tablet computer, and Doggity, a faithful beagle. Doggity has a mini-show of his own through an animated alter ego that appears during a transitional segment of the episode. Overall, Noodle and Doodle, demonstrates how recycled materials can become art and how food, art, and problem solving can be combined to create a fun experience in everyday life. Every episode can be replicated at home with ease by parents and children playing together.

2nd QUARTER 2015 SHOW SUMMARIES

In the 2nd Quarter, Noodle and Doodle will be replaced by Earth to Luna, a new animated series.

Earth to Luna is a Brazilian animated series about 12 year old girl, Luna, who loves science and the outdoors. There is nothing she doesn't question, and she shares everything she learns with her little brother, Jupiter, her parents or her friend Alice, and Clive, her pet ferret. In each episode Luna and her brother develop questions about whatever they find curious, e.g., "what goes on inside the snails' shell?" or "Why does a firefly blink?" In pursuit of answers, Luna, Jupiter and Clive go off on an imaginary adventure to do their research. They transform into the object or creature they are studying so they can personally experience the answers to their questions. When the threesome is finished with the “field trip” Luna summarizes everything they have learned with a show and a song.

ASTROBLAST

GROWING CRAZY [EATB101DH]

Comet eagerly volunteers to plant sit Zorky while Sputnik goes on an errand for a couple of days. In his eagerness, he fails to write down the directions Sputnik gives him. Comet neglects Zorky to have fun and when he returns, he notices that Zorky is wilted. Zorky then gets sucked up by space tubes throughout the Space Station. While searching for Zorky, Sputnik calls to say she’s returning sooner than expected. Comet finds Zorky, but because he looks sick, he over waters and over feeds him. Sputnik returns to find Comet anxious and he confesses to everything. When Sputnik opens the door, Zorky grows throughout the Space Station. Comet apologizes to Sputnik, and Sputnik lets the Astroblast crew know that if they don’t feed or water him, Zorky will shrink back in a few months.

[Educational Message: It is important to follow directions when taking care of any living thing; otherwise, it might get sick or weak.]

BUILDING THE PERFECT PRESENT [EATB101DH]

Comet is making a present for Sputnik’s birthday: a custom-made bookmark to replace the one she lost. However, when he compares the gift he made to the gifts his friends bought, he starts to doubt if his gift is good enough. Comet creates new presents based on what his friends used in theirs, but fails. He then combines all the features of his friends’ gifts to create the perfect gift. When he shows Sputnik her gift: A Super-Rain-Sparkle-Glitter-Plant-Music-Balloon, Sputnik is hesitant, but tells Comet she likes it. While showing her present, the balloon pops and goes zooming through the air to the ground. Comet is upset, but Sputnik says she enjoyed her present and their friendship is the only present she needs. Comet is still upset, but remembers the bookmark he made and gives it to Sputnik, who loves it.

[Educational Message: The best gifts come from the heart; whether they are purchased or handmade is not important.]

THE CHICA SHOW

CAPTAIN CHICA REDCOMB [ETCS101DH]

Billy comes to the shop for a pirate’s hat. Chica then pretends to be a pirate with one of the Coop’s costume hats. Though she is reminded frequently to put the pirate hat where it belongs, Chica misplaces it. When Billy returns to get five more hats, Kelly finds she is missing one hat from the order. After the store closes Chica and Kelly go on their fantasy adventure to an island where they meet pirate Captain Stitches. Kelly reminds them that they wouldn’t have to go through so much trouble to find things if they put them where they belong, but if they can't find it they should retrace their steps. Chica finally remembers she dropped the hat next to Bunji's cage. As they close the store, Kelly packs the hat to take to Billy's birthday party.

[Educational Message: You should always put things back where they belong so they do not get lost. If not, you will have to retrace your steps to remember where you left it.]

THE AMAZING CHICADINI [ETCS101DH]

Chica shows talent for becoming a magician, but she gets so nervous and frightened during rehearsals for her magic show that she cannot perform at all. When the store closes, Chica and Kelly create a magic show right in the store. Chica performs her first trick well, but her second trick (turning Bunji into a daffodil) doesn't work. They move on to Chica's magic trick to make Stitches disappear and it is a failure too. Kelly tells her to just have confidence and believe in herself. Chica tries again and Stitches disappears. Then, she makes him reappear. The audience is very pleased.

[Educational Message: It takes practice and belief in yourself to overcome being nervous.]

TREE FU TOM

TOM'S FAN CLUB [ETFT203DH]

Tree Tog teaches a class of little sprites about the skills they will need to live successfully in the woods. Tom performs a demonstration of one of these skills; to make the magic that catches the bouncing booster berries before they hit the ground. The sprites are so impressed that they lavish fawning praise and adulation on Tom. Flattered, Tom completely ignores Tree Tog's request to take the spring beetle eggs to Ariela's farm where they can hatch and be sent to open space for jumping and playing. Needless to say when Tom passes the responsibility on to Twigs (because he's enjoying himself with the sprites) the beetles not only hatch at the barn, they tie up Ariela strapping her to the roof. Finally Twigs is able to get a message to Tom who comes to the rescue and releases the beetles into the wild. He is very apologetic for letting the little sprites distract him from his most important task.

[Educational Message: Compliments and praise really make us feel special but never feel so special that you disrespect your elders and ignore your responsibilities.]

DEAR DIARY [ELZT118DH]

Stephanie has a sentimental journey reviewing past entries in her diary and realizing how Lazy Town has changed since she arrived. Her efforts to encourage healthy living have been successful with almost everyone. Robbie Rotten tries to disrupt this trend by authoring mean notes to all of Stephanie's friends and making it appear as though she sent them. When her friends begin to treat her negatively, Stephanie is hurt by their reactions to the notes, and Uncle Milford encourages her to confront the issue and find the truth. Sportacus encourages the friends to talk, and Stephanie shares memories of each of the friends from her diary. They then realize she wasn't writing the mean notes; they had to have come from another source, Robbie Rotten.

POPPY CAT

GIANT TOOTHBRUSH [EPCT201DH]

Owl has decided to add a patio to his Treehouse and everyone is assisting with different parts of the work. Mouse is too small to lighten Owl's load of wood and hammer, but he does manage to carry over a large toothbrush he found on the ground. The group tries to figure out who has lost the toothbrush and they shift their attention to taking an adventure to find the rightful owner. Mouse hypothesizes that because of its size, the toothbrush must belong to a whale, so Poppy Cat calls for an undersea adventure to find the creature. They almost lose the toothbrush to Egbert and an underwater volcano, but the explosive force of the volcano convinces them to believe it probably did get blown inland from the sea. As they cruise the water, they run into a very sad young female whale that says she lost her toothbrush on the way to a slumber party. Yes, the toothbrush they found does belong to her. She is very appreciative and Mouse thanks everyone for believing he could do something big after all.

[Educational Message: Even someone who is very small can do something very big.]

ACORN TIME [EPCT201DH]

The group is playing outside, but Owl is grumpy. He wants to go on a vacation. He wants another house. He wants to be left alone to sulk. The group starts talking about how to help Owl, when Mouse and Clara decide that Owl might feel better by planting an acorn tree that would grow really big. Poppy Cat suggests going to a forest where trees can grow very fast and then Owl will have his own tree to make him happy. They go on their adventure, have a mishap, thanks to Egbert, but eventually get to the special forest where Owl's acorn is planted and his new tree really does grow very tall and wide. Treehouse Trevor agrees to take care of Owl's tree and he tells the group they can all use the big tree as a vacation home.

[Educational Message: It always good to do things that will cheer up a grumpy friend. When people see how much you care about them, their mood will change to show their gratitude.]

Sean and Noodle make the popcorn trail mix in the kitchen while the kids gather items from the campsite. In Doggity's animation imagination segment the gang prepares grab-n-go turkey wraps for a roomful of runners who need energy that will last. The kids return and create a nature picture scene. They take the trail mix to enjoy after a nice hike.

Mo, Alisha and Laura want to put on a puppet show for their family. They brainstorm with Sean to make a puppet theater, including paper bag puppets using paper bags and other recycled items from around the house. In Doggity's animation imagination segment the gang makes apple-icious grilled cheese sandwiches for a deserving group of teachers. The kids come and enjoy making puppets from the items they've collected and the recycled items from preparing the goodies. They put on an amazing show and enjoy the pumpkin date cookies with their audience afterwards.

LOST AND FOUND [EATB102DH]

Comet is trying to beat the high score in a pinball game while Halley continuously interrupts him to help look for things she's lost. Halley loses the keycard to let customers in the shop. Comet offers to use his keycard and scolds Halley. After returning to his game, Comet discovers he has lost his keycard! Comet searches for his keycard while trying to hide the loss from Halley, but she ends up helping him search for it. While searching, they encounter Sal, who tells Comet that Halley is actually helping him in finding lost things because he's disorganized. He mentions that Halley is good at her job because she doesn't get annoyed with people and understands that everybody loses stuff. Comet apologizes for scolding Halley. Sal finds Halley's keycard under the couch cushions, and Halley finds Comet's keycard in the front door!

[Educational Message: Even though we should all take care of our things and be responsible, things can get lost if you are busy or preoccupied. Instead of getting angry, be helpful because one day you will lose something and need help finding it too.]

TWICE THE TALENT [EATB102DH]

The Astroblast crew decides to hold a talent competition. Halley, Jet, Radar, and Sal all have talents to perform but Sputnik and Comet can't think of anything. They decide to perform together. After trying various talents (dancing, painting, etc.), they decide their styles are way too different to perform together. Comet is big, exciting, and messy, while Sputnik is neat, simple, and refined. Sal tells them that working together doesn't mean you have to do the exact same thing. Comet and Sputnik decide to combine their talents (Sputnik reads a story, Comet acts it out) and they win first prize.

Bunji, the band manager, offers to help them if they practice. Together they work on their piano, guitar, and percussion skills until their performance is really great. Back at the Coop, Kelly and Chica continue to practice their moves.

POPPY CAT

OLIVE BRANCH [EPCT202DH]

Poppy and her friends are playing a clapping game in the garden but Alma and Zuzu start arguing and won't stop. Poppy Cat suggests they go to a tree deep in The Forest of Mulch Gulch that helps friends be friends again. She tells them that if you squeeze the olives over friends, all is forgotten. Along the way, the friends learn that there is a special skill to picking the olives – wiggling the lowest branch up and down. When Egbert—aka “Professor Green Fingers,” famous plant expert-- learns this, he offers to show them the tree (so he can get the olives for himself). They find the tree, Mo wiggles the lowest branch, and olives pop out. “Professor Green Fingers” uses one of his enchanted plants to tickle Mo, Poppy and Owl so that they drop their olives. Alma and Zuzu work together to release the enchanted plants and realize that they don’t need the olives; they are friends and just had a silly argument that is now behind them.

[Educational Message: Good friends don’t let each other down just because they’ve had an argument. It is more fun to work together than to argue and hold a grudge.]

TIGER BIKE [EPCT202DH]

Poppy and her friends are watching Zuzu perform tricks on his new bicycle. Ziggy realizes it is wonderful fun to move without needing toys and shares that lesson with his friends – who disagree. Robbie Rotten overhears and decides to give away all the toys so that they can't play. He invents a toy magnet that will attract all the toys towards it so that he can give them away. They work together to stop Robbie and his magnet, but most of the toys are broken. So Ziggy reminds everyone of the lesson again, that you don't need toys to play, and they all have a wonderful time playing and singing and dancing.

[Educational Message: There are many ways to enjoy being active without sports equipment or toys.]

POPPY CAT

RUNWAY TURTLE [EPCT103DH]

It was a very hot day in the garden and Poppy Cat and her friends are playing in the sprinkler to keep cool. Owl finds a lost baby turtle in his swimsuit so everyone decides to go on an adventure to the ocean to reunite it with its mother. Zuzu's feelings are hurt because everyone is focused on helping Webster, the baby turtle instead of trying out his new headlamp. When they see Webster's mother and leave the submarine to find her, Egbert interrupts and scares the baby turtle away. The friends have to enter a dark cave to search for Webster, so they use Zuzu's headlamp, find the baby and return him to his mother.

[Educational Message: We should always try to return things that belong to others even if you would rather be playing with your toys.]

DEAR ROCKET-CAT [EPCT103DH]

Poppy Cat and her friends are watching Rocket-Cat and sharing their admiration for him. Mo writes a letter for Rocket-Cat, but the moon is too far for the mailman to deliver. They attempt to travel to the moon to deliver the letter, but Egbert appears and teleports them to his spaceship. Onboard, they see that Rocket-Cat has been captured too. Mo gets the chance to read the letter to Rocket-Cat who confesses he does not feel much like a hero. Suddenly a space octopus arrives on board and Egbert runs away in fear. Everyone works together to help Rocket-Cat defeat the octopus and to show his appreciation he makes Poppy and all her friends official Rocket-Cat Rangers.

[Educational Message: There are everyday heroes not just those you see on TV because everyday people show bravery by helping others in times of need.]

NOODLE AND DOODLE

MAGIC TIME-CIRCUS [ENAD105DH]

Hakeem, Ethan, and Symbiata want to put on a magic show with their pet bunny Flopsy but she's not interested. They brainstorm with Sean to make a pretend rabbit and hat for the trick. Sean and Noodle make pretzel wands with disappearing dip. Doggity makes a big-top pasta salad for a healthy boost for circus performers. The kids use rubber gloves and recycled salt containers to make the hat and rabbit for a magic trick. They put on a magical show and enjoy the special treat together!

[Educational Message: You can make your own magic show from items around your home.]

OUR NEW BOOTS-CONSTRUCTION WORKERS [ENAD105DH]

Sydney and Edison got new snow boots and want to do a craft with the empty boxes. They brainstorm with Sean to make a snow-scene diorama. They collect sticks and pinecones along with cotton balls to make snow. Sean and Noodle make potato snow boots for a snack. Doggity makes waffle-i-cious countdown cookies for some astronauts. The kids bring their items and work with Sean to create dioramas. The girls take their dioramas and snack home to enjoy with their family.

[Educational Message: You can recycle big boxes by making dioramas.]
