ISSUE: EDUCATIONAL

Show: Date Time: Duration:	Women of Grace 4/28/2014 11am 60m	Johnnette Benkovic has Catholic psychotherapist Dr. Gregory Popcak as her guest to talk about how to deal with mind games. They take questions from several listeners, including a woman who calls in for advice on how to deal with her adult brother who makes fun of her and her faith. Johnnette draws her reflection from Revelations 21:5 where Jesus tells us: “Behold, I make all things new.” In light of that, Dr. Popcak addresses the therapeutic effect of forgiveness. He provides some very interesting descriptions on how the brain of a forgiving person in the process of healing is clinically different from the brain of a person who is holding back on forgiveness.
Show: Date Time: Duration:	Women of Grace 5/22/2014 11am 60m	Johnnette Benkovic talks to listener Jennifer who is in that situation and guides her to protect her son from a co-worker’s spirit of deception while still honoring the scriptural mandate to forgive one another as God forgives us. Among other calls, listener Joseph asks for advice on how to break away from sexual addiction. What can you possibly do? Are you all alone in fighting this? Johnnette addresses the addiction from a number of angles and provides several recommendations that have a proven record of success. Caller Greg chimes in to provide reaffirmation to Joseph for his courage to desire healing and Greg shares some advice brother-to-brother, because was also suffering from sexual addiction in the past. Other listeners call to ask about different topics like do acupressure treatments interfere with our Catholic faith?

Show: Date: Time: Duration:	Women of Grace 6/27/2014 11am 60m	On this special mailbag edition of Women of Grace, Johnnette Benkovic answers your email questions. She replies to an email from an anonymous listener who asks how do we know what is God's Will in our lives? Johnnette delivers a great answer to this great question. Hint-hint... The Ten Commandments are not just suggestions but they are "Commandments." Following God's Will implies making decisions. So, the next logical question is: How do you make the best decision, especially when it's not clear which way to go? Johnnette goes on to explain how to discern life-changing decisions in the context of following God's Will.
