ISSUE: PUBLIC INTEREST

Show: Date Time: Duration:	Register Radio 2/16/2019 4pm 30m	Louisiana pro-lifers experienced a setback last week when the US Supreme Court blocked a state law from taking effect that would have required doctors performing abortions to hold admitting privileges at nearby hospitals. While a temporary stay, the high court's decision was another turn in the on-going legal struggle over abortion in America. Jeanette DeMelo, Matthew Bunson and Joan Frawley Desmond discuss the impact of this court decision, the current make-up of the Supreme Court and how pro-life cases might fare and more.
Show: Date Time: Duration:	Kresta in the Afternoon 2/27/2019 5pm 60m	You could fill a library with books about the scandals of the Clinton administration, which eventually led to President Clinton's impeachment by the House of Representatives. Bill and Hillary Clinton have told their version of events, as have various journalists and participants. Whenever Clinton supporters recall those years, they usually depict independent counsel Ken Starr as an out-of-control, politically driven prosecutor. But what if he was right? Ken joins us.
