ISSUES AND PROGRAMS: SECOND QUARTER 2018

ISSUE: YOUTH PROGRAMMING

Show: Date: Time: Duration:	Call Me Catholic 5/5/2018 1pm 30m	The month of May always surprises us. In the Call Me Catholic Countdown, Peggy lists the top five things to look for in the coming month of May. Pam Hurwitz and her daughter Jyllian Rhodes are both highly respected youth ministry leaders in the diocese of Orange. They discuss their winning formula for building and growing programs for teens in our Church. Peggy continues her conversation with Pam and Jyllian as they discuss their new ministry "Family + Faith Collective", a program to help families cultivate more faith and communication in their home. They also take calls from listeners with questions or comments about their experiences in youth ministry.
Show: Date: Time: Duration:	Catholic Playlist 4/9/2018 10pm 60m	Playing the best and newest contemporary Christian music from Catholic artists, young listeners get a chance to hear music they won't hear anywhere else on the radio.

Plus, first, we catch up on all of the news from the Vatican, including an historic conference on the Inquisition. Join Jeanette DeMelo, and co-host, Matthew Bunson, for Register Radio.
Show: Date: Time: Duration:	Call Me Catholic 5/12/2018 1pm 30m	Everyone rushes out to buy their mother flowers for Mother's Day but do you know what each blossom means? In the Call Me Catholic Countdown, Peggy lists the top five flowers to give your Mother based on each variety's symbolism. The Audiogirls are back! Entertainment pros Sylvia Aimerito and Lori Rae Martin discuss the latest news from their proactive profile ministry. Lori Rae and Sylvia continue their discussion with Peggy about ways we all can be a bold and active voice for the unborn. And take calls from listeners who have a question or comment. Peggy also challenges the Audiogirls to a game of "Catholic This or Catholic That?"

ISSUE: HEALTH

Show: Date: Time: Duration:	Kresta in the Afternoon 4/25/2018 4pm 60m	On Monday, British citizens joyously welcomed the third child of Prince William of Cambridge and Duchess Kate Middleton. But on the same day this little boy entered the world, another little boy - Alife Evans - was taken off his ventilator despite international protest and an Italian offer to take him to Rome for care. Alfie has survived 36 hours, as late this afternoon British time. After 28 hours, doctors finally fed him. But today hospital officials kicked out paramedics from an air ambulance waiting to take Alfie to Italy. We'll get more on this horrible story from Geneveive Marnon.

Show: Date Time: Duration:	Kresta in the Afternoon 4/13/2018 5pm 60m	Dr. Tom Catena is the only surgeon in a war-torn region of Sudan with nearly one million people. He's on-call 24/7, serving the sick and injured of the mountainous area. How does he do it? "I take my role model as Jesus Christ. I think Christ is really calling us to give up our baggage -- whatever it is." His incredible work is the subject of a new documentary – the Heart of Nuba. We'll talk with producer Ken Carlson.

ISSUE: EDUCATIONAL

Show: Date Time: Duration:	Call Me Catholic 4/14/2018 1pm 30m	The earliest Christians thrived through the generous hospitality of others. In the Call Me Catholic Countdown, Peggy explores the top five ways we can embody the spirit of Christian hospitality in our modern lifestyles. Tracy Bejotte, Chief Operating Officer of Caritas Communities, discusses how her organization brings Christian values to affordable housing communities throughout California. Tom Mauro, Chief Missions Officer for Caritas Communities, joins the conversation and shares the ways in which their non profit organization improves the lifestyles of affordable housing residents through enrichment programs for all ages. In Chatting with Catholics, Peggy takes her microphone to a classroom of second graders preparing for their First Holy Communion and asks the young students how they are getting ready for their big day.
