Agency/Representative	Program/Date/Time/Duration	Description of issues covered
1. Mayor Joe Schember	North Coast Views Sunday, Jan 07, 2018 6:00am - 30 min	1. Talked about his background and then his vision for Erie as Mayor. Learned he is committed to getting sustainable jobs in our area, affordable housing downtown to attract (especially millennials) to want to work and live here. Talked about the grown already planned and how he would like to change mindsets at City Hall – in neighborhoods, with the police and with the community – to think more regionally – so we can be better together. 29m45s
1. Trooper Matt Harris, created Character: Be About It	North Coast Views Sunday, Jan 14, 2018 6:00am - 30 min	1. Talked about why he became a trooper and how he had to see so many families torn apart, because of poor choices. When he was approached by the schools to create a program that would implement a better way to discipline students – give them a better relationship with law enforcement – and teach them character traits that they may not be learning at home – so they (K through 8 th grade) can make better choices, he jumped at the chance.29m45s
1. Kathy Dahlkemper, County Executive	North Coast Views Sunday, Jan 21, 2018 6:00am - 30 min	1. Talked about the difference between city & county government & what the County Executive office oversees. Learned about new programs in the works – from increasing awareness and tourism in our green spaces, to why we are trying to get a community college here – to information about Blue Zone areas in the world (areas where many people are living healthfully into their 100s – because of certain factors) and how we would like to have that in our area. Got some clarification on how Emerge 2040 came to be – and how it influences so many other community initiatives. 29m50s
1. Meredith Rodenbaugh, Family Services of NWPA Adoption Supervisor	North Coast Views Sunday, Jan 28, 2018 6:00am - 30 min	1 Talked about the challenges when adopting a child or youth...even though it is very rewarding. First there are some fees incurred. Second, they let families know that – even though the child is definitely looking for a forever home, they have a story that happened before (even the little ones) – so they may test you, or take time to acclimate. They offer help and counseling. 29m45s
