

COMMCONNLINERS053022

05/30 The Norwood Village Green Concert Series celebrates its 49th season this year. The theme is “From Here to There” and while its founder, Joe Liotta will still be around to pass the bucket and work with the musicians, his granddaughter, Erin Dickinson is taking over the promotions and she joins Jody Tosti on “Community Connection.” CC:13

05/31 The Canton Dairy Festival kicks-off this Friday with the Annual Big Wheel race and vendors in the park. The block dance follows and is always a big hit with folks looking to dance and catch up with neighbors and friends. Canton Chamber of Commerce Executive Director, Tammy Mackin says this year’s theme is “We Will Dairy On” and she joins Jody Tosti on “Community Connection.” CC:18

06/01 Classic cars, a barbecue, music and a Touch-A-Truck event is some of what you’ll find this weekend in Ogdensburg for their Annual Car-B-Que. Laura Pearson, executive director of the Greater Ogdensburg Chamber of Commerce joins Jody Tosti on “Community Connection” to talk about this family event that’s in its 18th year. CC:

06/02 At Garner Park in Potsdam tomorrow, visitors can help make music with three large scale, permanent outdoor instruments. The Community Outdoor Music Park at the end of Raymond Street is nestled along the Raquette River and is the first section of the future Downtown Riverwalk Trail. SLC Arts and North Country Children’s Museum helped make it happen and the museum’s director, Sharon Williams joins Jody Tosti on “Community Connection.” CC:

06/03 Jake Yaegar is back on his bike this summer doing more fundraising, this time for the American Cancer Society. This ride will bring the Waddington resident to Kansas for a 350-mile adventure. This is a testament to his love for his dad, bicycles and the outdoors and he joins Jody Tosti on "Community Connection."