FACE THE NATION

- 10/04/09 Guests: General James Jones, USMC (Ret.), National Security Advisor (1); Senator Carl Levin (D-MI), Chairman, Senate Armed Services Committee (2); Representative Ike Skelton (D-MO), Chairman, House Armed Services Committee (2); General Anthony Zinni, USMC (Ret.), Former Commander, United States Central Command (2)
- 1) Topics include: General Stanley McChrystal's meeting with President Obama / General McChrystal's request for an additional 40,000 troops to be sent to Afghanistan / reaction to recent comments made by General McChrystal criticizing the possibility of scaling back the forces in Afghanistan / importance of considering all of the elements and goals of the new March 2009 strategy for Afghanistan before deciding on a troop increase / encouraging developments in Pakistan / concern in Pakistan and Afghanistan over America's perceived loss of resolve; upcoming meetings with Iran over reports indicating that Iran has acquired sufficient information to be able to produce an atomic bomb
- 2) Topics include: praise for General McChrystal / disappointment in the perceived lack of support and questioning of General McChrystal's recommendations / support and opposition regarding committing more combat troops to Afghanistan at this time / shortage of Afghan troops / need for additional trainers and more equipment to be sent to Afghanistan / belief that a return of the Taliban to Afghanistan guarantees the return of al Qaeda / need to place focus on all of the opinions in the chain of command regarding Afghanistan before making a decision / speculation as to chances of a vote on a troop increase passing the Senate
- 10/11/09 Guests: Senator Mitch McConnell (R-KY), Senate Republican Leader (1); Senator Jack Reed (D-RI), Senior Member, Senate Armed Services Committee (2); David Ignatius, Columnist and Associate Editor, The Washington Post (3); Michael O'Hanlon, Director of Research and Senior Fellow, The Brookings Institution (3)
- 1) Topics include: reaction to rumors that the Obama Administration may consider negotiating with the Taliban / support for General Stanley McChrystal's request for an additional forty thousand troops to be deployed to Afghanistan / belief that General McChrystal should testify before Congress because it is Congress that would appropriate the funds necessary for a troop increase / reports of fraud in the recent Afghan elections involving incumbent President Hamid Karzai
- 2) Topics include: importance of focusing on all aspects of U.S. strategy, not just on the troops / concern over the costs associated with deploying additional troops / comparison of costs per American soldier versus an Afghan soldier / praise for General McChrystal's through analysis, but criticism regarding the narrow perspective, focusing on military operational aspects / call for a thorough analysis so that past mistakes are not repeated / questioning the assumption that the return of the Taliban guarantees a return of al Qaeda / reaction to Vice President Joseph Biden's argument for a troop draw down and an increased use of drone aircraft to fight and focus on al Qaeda / need to work together with the Pakistani forces, as a decision concerning Afghanistan will affect Pakistan as well
- 3) Topics include: lack of consensus on what exactly President Obama should do about Afghanistan / assessment of the current situation in Afghanistan / Taliban's recent invasion of an army compound in Rawalpindi, Pakistan / David Ignatius's recent trip to Pakistan / reaction to rumors that the Obama Administration may consider negotiating with the Taliban, in order to focus more on al Qaeda / questioning of Vice President Biden's position of using drone aircraft / Mr. Ignatius's belief that greater concerns exist concerning Pakistan than the security of their nuclear weapons

- 10/18/09 Guests: Rahm Emanuel, White House Chief of Staff (1); Senator John Cornyn (R-TX), Committee on Finance (2); Senator John Kerry (D-MA), Chairman, Foreign Relations Committee (3)
Guest Moderator: John Dickerson, CBS News Political Consultant
- 1) Topics include: reaction to a statement made by Senator John Kerry suggesting that a decision to send more troops to Afghanistan should not be made until there is more stability in the Afghan government / possibility of holding a run-off election / concern that weather conditions could hamper that possibility / need for a credible partner in Afghanistan, meaning that the people and government would be able to fill the space and opportunities created by American troops / relationship between a safe Afghanistan and America's national security; reaction to criticism from Republicans and Democrats regarding President Obama's support for taxing the very expensive insurance plans, know as Cadillac plans / the public option as a way to provide competition and reduce costs; reaction to a recent headline in The New York Times stating that bonuses have returned to Wall Street
- 2) Topics include: fear that President Obama's deliberation over sending more troops to Afghanistan will begin to look like indecisiveness and embolden our enemies / lack of an established government in Afghanistan should not be the lynchpin for deciding whether or not to protect security interests in that region; assertion that the current health care proposals will raise taxes and increase the deficit / claim that Republicans have been largely excluded from the health care process
- 3) Topics include: Senator Kerry's recent meeting with the U.S. commander in Afghanistan, General Stanley McChrystal / belief that President Obama can not make a decision concerning a troop increase without an adequate Afghan government in place / call for reform within the Afghan government / need to modify the current counterinsurgency strategy to better suit the needs of Afghanistan / belief that ultimately there is no military success in Afghanistan -- that the Afghans will define their future
- 10/25/09 Guests: Senator John McCain (R-AZ), Ranking Member, Committee on Armed Services (1); Senator Russ Feingold (D-WI), Committee on Foreign Relations (2)
- 1) Topics include: reaction to the recent violence in Baghdad, Iraq / assurance that today's car bomb attack will not require any delay in the withdrawal of U.S. troops; support for General Stanley McChrystal's request for additional troops to be sent to Afghanistan / belief that President Obama should not wait until after the run-off election to make the decision regarding additional troops / reaction to a recent statement made by former Vice President Dick Cheney criticizing President Obama for his indecisiveness / respect for former Vice President Cheney / desire to support President Obama / opinion regarding Vice President Biden's proposed counter terrorism strategy which relies mainly on drone aircraft; criticism against the lack of transparency regarding the formulation of the health care proposals / Senator McCain's lack of support for health care reform that includes a public option
- 2) Topics include: belief that the American people will not support a troop increase / criticism for former Vice President Cheney over his comments accusing President Obama of dithering / questioning the assumption that the return of the Taliban to Afghanistan guarantees a return of al Qaeda / going after al Qaeda should be the number one priority, not going after the Taliban / promise to try and block President Obama in the Senate should he decide on a troop increase / support for a flexible timetable to drawdown troops; support for the inclusion of the public option in a health care plan / clarification regarding the public option as a moderate idea versus the more liberal single payer system / need to include the public option now, in order to instigate some control over the abuses that have occurred in the insurance industry

60 MINUTES

- 10/04/09
- “The Swindler” - an interview with convicted Ponzi schemer and former attorney Marc Dreier, who discusses how he scammed $400 million dollars from his investors. He used most of the money to expand his law firm and finance a lifestyle designed to create the illusion that he already was a billionaire. Dreier is now serving a twenty-year prison sentence in Illinois. Also interviewed: Gerald Shargel, Dreier’s attorney; Joanne Rapuano, attorney at Dreier’s law firm; and Tori LaLonde, Dreier’s office manager. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen)
- “130 Million Tons of Waste” - a report on the health risks caused by the improper disposal of coal ash, which contains mercury, arsenic, lead and other toxic metals. Problems occurred in Kingston, Tennessee, where coal ash disposed by the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) eventually spilled into the Emory River; and in Chesapeake, Virginia, where coal ash was spread under a golf course. Interviewed: Jim Roewer, lobbyist for the power industry; Leo Francendese, environmentalist for the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA); Gary Topmiller, resident who lives near the Emory River; Anda Ray, who oversees environmental policy at the TVA; Lisa Jackson, head of the EPA; Ted Yoakam, lawyer from Virginia; Robyn Pierce and Stacy Moorman, who live across the street from the contaminated golf course. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)
- “The Great Migration” - a report on the wildebeest migration across the volcanic plain of the Masai Mara in Kenya and the dangers that confront them. These include predators and the low water level in the Mara River, caused by the destruction of the Mau Forest for human agricultural needs and the burning of the trees for charcoal. Interviewed: Robin Reid, scientist, Colorado State University; John Sena, resident of the Mau Forest; Dickson Kaelo, who works for a non-profit foundation that’s paying the Masai to turn over management of their land to a wildlife conservancy. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster, Rebecca Peterson)
- Andy Rooney Topic: “What’s Happening To The Post Office?” - Andy has gotten wind of potential changes to the postal service and he’s not a fan
- 10/11/09
- “Golf Company” - a report on Company G, 2nd Battalion, 8th Marine regiment in Afghanistan, who is battling the enemy in Helmand Province. Sent there as part of President Obama’s troop buildup, they are part of a new plan to separate the enemy from the people, and then convince the Afghans to support their government. U.S. forces are now being told to protect civilians, even if the enemy gets away. Interviewed: Second Lieutenant Dan O’Hara, Lieutenant Colonel Christian Cabaniss, Lance Corporal Jonathan Quiceno, Brigadier General John Nicholson, Captain Matt Martin. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster)
- “A Blow To The Brain” - a report on new studies that show that some athletes, especially professional football players who suffer many blows to the head, may become brain damaged. Interviewed: Ted Johnson, linebacker for the New England Patriots; Dr. Robert Cantu, a neurosurgeon who co-authored a study done by the University of North Carolina; Dr. Ann McKee, a neuropathologist at Boston University School of Medicine; Dr. Andrew Tucker, a member of the NFL’s Brain Injury Committee and team doctor for the Baltimore Ravens; Sylvia Mackey, wife of Hall of Famer John Mackey, who now suffers from severe dementia after many hard hits in his playing days with the Baltimore Colts; Victor Lystedt, whose 13-year-old son, Zackery, suffered a concussion during a football game. (C: Bob Simon - P: Catherine Olian)
- “The Birdmen” - a report on an extreme sport that has killed several of its participants, called birdmen, who wear specially-made wingsuits and jump off mountain tops and glide at speeds of 140 miles per hour. 60 MINUTES talks with some of the sport’s top athletes and shows them in action in the Romsdal Valley of Norway. Interviewed: JT Holmes, an American professional skier from Lake Tahoe; Julian Boule, a South African skydiver and aerial photographer; and Tom Erik Heiman, birdman. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Tom Anderson)
- Andy Rooney Topic: “Andy Rooney: Sleeping In America” - Are we literally sleeping our lives away? Andy seems to think so

- 10/18/09 "H1N1" - a report on the H1N1 flu virus - which is increasingly targeting young, healthy people - and how the Center For Disease Control is fighting this pandemic. Interviewed: Dr. Michele Moss from the Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock; Chad Duvall, father of Luke, an H1N1 flu patient at the hospital; Rear Admiral Anne Schuchat, the CDC's chief health officer in the war on H1N1; Dr. Sherif Zaki, pathologist; Dr. Peter Palese from Mount Sinai Medical Center in Manhattan, one of the nation's top virologists; Dr. Tom Frieden, director of the CDC. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Gelber, Sam Hornblower, Michael Radutzky)
- "The Kanzius Machine" - a followup to "The Kanzius Machine" (OAD: 4/13/08). An interview with John Kanzius, a leukemia patient who invented a radio wave machine that may someday offer effective treatment for cancers without the debilitating side effects of radiation and chemotherapy. Kanzius tried the untested machine on himself and believed that it slowed down the progression of his disease. Even though he ultimately died in February of 2009, scientists believe that his machine has promise. Also interviewed: Marianne Kanzius, his wife; Dr. Steven Curley, a liver cancer surgeon at MD Anderson in Houston, who was treating John and continues cancer research using John's machine; and Dr. Peter Depowski, pathologist. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Tanya Simon) (This is a follow-up to "The Kanzius Machine" OAD: 4/13/08)
- "Drew Barrymore" - an interview with the former child star, who has become an accomplished actress, producer, and director. She discusses her famous acting family and how she overcame her drug addiction through a rehabilitation program. Also interviewed: director Steven Spielberg. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: John Hamlin)
- 10/25/09 "60 Billion Dollar Fraud" - a report on Medicare and Medicaid fraud, focusing on criminals in South Florida, who set up phony clinics and pharmacies and, with the use of illegally obtained but valid patient numbers and Medicare codes, are able to bill Medicare for unrequested and undelivered supplies. Interviewed: FBI Special Agent Brian Waterman; Justice Department prosecutor Kirk Ogrosky, who oversees half a dozen Medicare fraud strike forces; United States Attorney General Eric Holder; "Tony" (not his real name), who ran a string of phony medical supply companies; Clara Mahoney and Ed Davis, two Medicare patients who reported fraudulent charges on their Medicare statements; and Kim Brandt, Medicare's Director of Program Integrity. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen, Joel Bach)
- "Fight For A Cure" - a report on epilepsy, a brain disorder affecting nearly three million Americans and which may not be getting the research and funding it deserves. President Obama's senior advisor David Axelrod and his wife, Susan, talk about their oldest daughter, Lauren, who was diagnosed with epilepsy. Susan and two other mothers started CURE, a nonprofit organization to raise awareness and fund innovative epilepsy research. Also interviewed: Dr. Frances Jensen of Children's Hospital in Boston; Captain Pat Horan, a veteran who developed epilepsy after sustaining head injuries in Baghdad, and his wife, Patty; Monica Lovelace, an epilepsy patient who is part of a clinical trial at California Pacific Medical Center in San Francisco; and Dr. Peter Weber, a neurosurgeon who is treating Monica. (C: Katie Couric - P: Kyra Darnton)
- "Tyler Perry" - a profile of writer, director, producer, and actor Tyler Perry. Long ignored by Hollywood, Perry talks about his films, the inspirations behind the characters he has created, including the popular "Madea", and his devoted audience: largely African-American, church-going, working class, and female. Also interviewed: Oprah Winfrey. (C: Byron Pitts - P: Ruth Streeker)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Weighs In On Health Care" - Mr. Rooney weighs in on one of the most controversial issues of the moment

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 10/03/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Show Me The Money” - In November 2000, bank manager and single mother Michelle Renee was in her Vista, California home with her seven-year-old daughter Breea, when three masked gunmen broke into the house. The gunmen held them captive overnight, and in the morning strapped dynamite onto their backs. Breea was shoved into a closet, while Michelle was ordered to rob the bank where she worked. If she didn't comply, the gunmen said they would detonate the dynamite. She obeyed, and the next morning she cleaned out the bank vault and gave the gunmen a duffel bag containing $360,000. Police and FBI investigation soon apprehended four suspects: Christopher Butler, Lisa Ramirez, Christopher Huggins, and Robert Ortiz. But investigators were suspicious that Michelle had been involved in the robbery -- the dynamite had turned out to be fake; she had claimed that she had recognized one of the masked robbers as a customer, even though he had been in her bank only once; and she herself had filed for bankruptcy - for the second time - only a month before the robbery. However, no proof was ever discovered to confirm this suspicion. Eighteen months later, Butler and Ramirez went on trial. Ramirez's confession was ruled inadmissible because it implicated Butler, who had admitted to nothing. Finally, Ramirez was found innocent, and Butler guilty only of kidnapping Renee's daughter and roommate, Kimbra; he was not convicted of kidnapping Michelle Renee. Two months later, Huggins and Ortiz went on trial, and were found guilty of all charges, including the kidnapping of Michelle Renee. Includes interviews with Michelle Renee; Breea Renee; Loretta Myers, former co-worker with Michelle Renee; Rick Brown, neighbor of Renee; investigators Dale Martin, Rudy Zamora, Randi Demers; Tom Manning, prosecutor; Herb Weston, attorney for Ramirez. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Lisa Freed, Sarah Huisenga)
- 10/10/09 PREEMPTION
- 10/17/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Untold Story of Caylee Anthony” - Until June 2008, Casey Anthony, a 22-year-old single mother, lived with her two-year-old daughter, Caylee, in the Orlando, Florida home of her parents, Cindy and George Anthony. After a reported heated argument with her mother, she then moved out, taking Caylee with her. A month later, Cindy tracked Casey down and demanded to see Caylee. Casey then said that Caylee had been kidnapped a month ago by her nanny, a woman named Zenaida Fernandez-Gonzalez. After an intensive search, investigators came to doubt the existence of this woman. In October 2008, Casey was charged with Caylee's murder: she had not reported her daughter missing for a month, and then she allegedly lied to police. In December 2008, Caylee's skeletal remains -- stuffed in plastic bags, her mouth sealed with duct tape -- were discovered a short distance from her grandparents' home. Onscreen graphics at conclusion: Casey Anthony's lawyers are requesting a change of venue for her trial. They claim Orlando is too hostile to select a fair jury. Her trial is expected to begin next summer (2010). Includes interviews with: Cindy and George Anthony, parents of Casey Anthony; Brad Conway, attorney for Cindy and George Anthony; Diane Fanning, author, “Mommy's Little Girl”; John Morgan, attorney for Zenaida Gonzalez; Jesse Grund, former boyfriend of Casey Anthony; Pam Bondi, a Tampa, Fla. prosecutor; Jose Baez, Linda Kenney Baden, and Todd Macaluso, attorneys for Casey Anthony; Zenaida Gonzalez, single mother of six; Holly Gagne, friend of Casey Anthony. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

10/24/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Curious Case of Colonel Shue" (9:00-10:00pm) - In April 2003, Air Force Colonel Philip Shue died in a violent car crash when his vehicle struck some trees alongside a Texas interstate highway. When his body was first pulled from the car, investigators found that there was a six-inch vertical gash in his chest, both his nipples had been removed, and duct tape was wrapped around both his wrists and his boots. After a year of investigation, all the agencies involved -- the Air Force, and both local and state police -- agreed that Col. Shue, a psychiatrist, had suffered a psychological breakdown and committed suicide. A grand jury, convened at the request of the district attorney, found no evidence of any crime and believed the ruling of suicide should stand. However, Tracy Shue, his widow, is adamant in her insistence that her husband had been abducted and tortured, and had then somehow broken free. Tracy thinks that Philip's first wife, Nancy, who still held insurance policies on his life worth one million dollars, should be investigated. Nancy had refused to cancel these policies, even after Philip claimed that he had received an anonymous letter warning him of a plot against his life by Nancy and her current husband, Donald Timpson. Nancy was also a board-certified sex therapist who had studied the practice of sadomasochism. Two months after Philip's death, Tracy filed a civil lawsuit seeking to prevent Nancy from collecting the million dollar death benefit, and seeking damages from the insurance companies for not previously canceling the policies. As part of the lawsuit, Tracy's lawyers demanded that Nancy answer their questions, but she took the Fifth Amendment more than twenty times, refusing to answer any questions about murder or motives or torture. In 2008, the civil lawsuit went to trial. Nancy had been dropped as a defendant, as had one of the insurance companies. Both Nancy and Tracy received million dollar death settlements of Philip Shue's policies. With regard to damages, the presiding judge ruled in favor of the insurance company. But he also ruled that the evidence considered by the Court substantiated a finding that the death of Philip Shue was indeed a homicide. Nancy Shue declined repeated requests from 48 HOURS to be interviewed. No law enforcement agency has ever named her or her husband as suspects or persons of interest in the case. Includes interviews with: Tracy Shue, widow of Philip Shue; Nina Williard, friend of Tracy and Philip; Doctor Vincent Di Maio, chief medical examiner, Bexar County, Texas; Dr. Cyril Wecht, pathologist; Joe Moura, private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Lieutenant Roger Anderson, lead officer for the military's investigation of the case; George Brown, friend of Philip Shue. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Peter Henderson) (OAD: 04/18/09). Onscreen graphic update for this first rebroadcast: In June 2009 the Texas Attorney General ruled Col. Philip Shue's death certificate does not have to be changed. The official cause of death remains suicide.

10/24/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Haunted" (10:00-11:00pm) - In July 2002, Mike Sisco and his fiancée Karen Harkness were shot to death in Karen's Topeka, Kansas home. Police investigation ultimately focussed on Dana Chandler, Mike's ex-wife and the mother of his two children. Mike and Dana had gone through a bitter divorce in 1998, and Mike had custody of the children. Dana left Kansas, but she then established an ongoing pattern of harassing and stalking her ex-husband, and also harassing Karen on the phone. Dana's obsession convinced family members that she was involved in the murders, but no hard evidence has ever linked her to the crimes. The families believe that evidence that might have implicated her was lost or destroyed in the initial police investigation of the crime scene. So, although police strongly suspected Dana's involvement in the murders, she was never arrested or charged. In 2007, an independent analysis of the evidence, done by retired New York Lieutenant Commander Vernon Geberth, concluded that Dana Chandler was "the one and only person who had the motive, means, and opportunity to commit these murders". In January 2009, Topeka got a new district attorney, Chad Taylor, who says that the Harkness-Sisco case is now a priority. Onscreen graphics at conclusion: Hailey Sisco has been granted a permanent restraining order against her mother. District Attorney Chad Taylor is awaiting the results of new DNA testing. The investigation remains active. Includes interviews with: Harold Worswick, father of Karen Harkness; Carol Sisco Engler, mother of Mike Sisco; Richard Volle, detective, Topeka police; Dustin Sisco, son of Mike Sisco and Dana Chandler; Hailey Sisco, daughter of Mike Sisco and Dana Chandler; Erin Sutton, daughter of Karen Harkness; Chad Harkness, son of Karen Harkness; Cathy and Mark Boots, Mike Sisco's sister and his brother-in-law; Joseph Moura and Paul Ciolino, private detectives working for 48 HOURS; Tim Sisco, Mike's brother; Mike Worswick, Karen Harkness' brother; Chad Taylor, Topeka district attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

10/31/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Deadly Prophecy” - Faylene Eaves, divorced Arizona mother of two, married Doug Grant, a divorced single dad, in 1993. They were both Mormons. Faylene was especially devout, according to Doug’s sister, Tammy Fuentes, who also says that, several years later, Faylene told her of receiving a message from God telling her that Doug had a girlfriend and that she should divorce him. Doug acquiesced. He then planned to marry Hilary Dewitt, but in August 2001, Faylene wanted to re-marry him, citing a revelation from God that she should put her family back together. They did re-marry, and to celebrate their reunion, vacationed in the Timpanogas National Park in Utah. There, according to Doug, Faylene thought she had a vision of Jesus in the clouds and fell off a cliff while trying to get a better look. She survived, but three days later was found drowned in her bathtub, her blood full of the muscle relaxants and sleeping medication (Ambien) that had been prescribed after her fall. As a precaution against Faylene taking both drugs together, the physician’s assistant had told Doug not to fill the Ambien prescription without calling him first -- but Doug had done so anyway. In the journal that Faylene had kept, she seemed to suggest that it was God’s will that she die “to fulfill a mission on the other side of the veil.” And, in letters to Hilary Dewitt, Faylene had written that she wanted Hilary to marry Doug after she died -- which he did, just weeks after Faylene’s death. Although Faylene’s death was initially ruled an accident, pressure from her family made the police eventually take a closer look at Doug Grant. He had never called 911 upon discovering Faylene in the tub. Because of this, and because of incriminating information provided by Jim McElyea, an old friend of Doug, police arrested Doug in the summer of 2005 for the murder of his wife, Faylene. In mid-November 2008, his trial began; in March 2009, he was convicted of manslaughter. Concluding onscreen graphics: Jenna is suing Doug Grant for the wrongful death of her mother. Faylene and Doug’s two sons live with Hilary Dewitt, who is their legal guardian. Includes interviews with: Jenna Stradling, daughter of the late Faylene Grant; Doug Grant, widower of Faylene Grant; Chad White, physician’s assistant, friend of Doug Grant; Paul Rubin, reporter; Juan Martinez, prosecutor; Hilary Dewitt, second wife of Doug Grant; Mel McDonald, attorney for Doug Grant; Tammy Fuentes, sister of Doug Grant; Sy Ray, detective; Jim McElyea, friend of Doug Grant.
