

WXDU DURHAM, NC

QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS LIST SECOND QUARTER 2018

Julia Donheiser, Non-Music Program Director
July 10, 2018

SECTION I: Issues Programming

In an effort to promote community awareness and to fulfill its public service commitment and obligation, WXDU has identified the following issues to be of concern to the Duke University and Durham community:

1. Community Activism and Involvement
2. History
3. Arts and Literature
4. Sports
5. Science and Technology
6. Diversity and Culture

To address these issues, WXDU broadcasts the following radio shows:

“Unapologetic Black Radio”

Second and fourth Sundays of every month, 6:00-6:30 pm (academic year)

Unapologetic Black Radio discusses campus life at a predominately white institution for Black students. The show is hosted by undergraduate students Naomi Lilly, Treniyyah Anderson and Aanan Henderson.

“WXDU Sports”

First and third Sunday of every month, 6:00-7:00 pm

This show covers regional sports.

“Music and Spirituality”.

Tuesdays 4:00-5:00 pm

Music & Spirituality is hosted by Rabbi Elana, Campus Rabbi at Duke. This talk show explores the concept that music is essentially spiritual, is our soul’s inherent language, and has the power to change us. Each week a unique guest joins Rabbi Elana in the station for conversation interspersed with music selected by the guest as their spiritual songs.

Other programming includes:

“Spectrum” is produced by Deutsche Welle and gives updates on science and technology from around the world.

“Living Planet” is produced by Deutsche Welle and covers environmental science and sustainability.

“World in Progress” is produced by Deutsche Welle and covers events occurring in the developing world.

“Making Contact” is produced by the Radio Project and “produces media that analyses critical social and environmental issues and encourages civic participation, by giving voice to diverse perspectives and opinions.

SECTION II: Responsive Programs
