

WXDU, DUKE UNIVERSITY DURHAM, NC

QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS LIST FOURTH QUARTER 2022

Forrest DeMarcus, Non-Music Programming Director
January 10, 2023

SECTION I: Issues Programming

In an effort to promote community awareness and to fulfill its public service commitment and obligation, WXDU has identified the following issues to be of concern to the Duke University and Durham community:

1. Community Activism and Involvement
2. History
3. Arts and Literature
4. Sports
5. Science and Technology
6. Diversity and Culture

To address these issues, WXDU broadcasts the following radio shows:

“WXDU News”

Sundays 6:00-7:00 pm

Host Forrest DeMarcus plays a mix of syndicated news pieces and WXDU original content. Original content covers arts, humanities, and sports in the Duke and Durham area, and may include interviews, live lectures, and other forms of discussion.

“WXDU Sports”

Every other Sunday, 6:00-7:00 pm

Hosts Matt Burr and Miguel Bordo cover regional sports.

“WXDU Conversations in Health Care”

Periodically, Sundays 6:00-7:00 pm

DJs Gavin Yamey and Garreth Kelleher interview local health specialists about current global health news and how it applies to North Carolina and Durham.

“Music and Spirituality”.

Every other Wednesdays 3:30-4:30 pm

Music & Spirituality is hosted by Rabbi Elana, Campus Rabbi at Duke. This talk show explores the concept that music is essentially spiritual. Each week a unique guest joins Rabbi Elana in the station for conversation interspersed with music selected by the guest as their spiritual songs.

Syndicated programming examples:

“Spectrum/Science Unscripted” is produced by Deutsche Welle and gives updates on science and technology from around the world.

“Living Planet” is produced by Deutsche Welle to cover environmental science and sustainability.

“Making Contact” is produced by the Radio Project and “produces media that analyses critical social and environmental issues and encourages civic participation, by giving voice to diverse perspectives and opinions.

“World in Progress” is produced by Deutsche Welle and covers ecological and geopolitical news from around the globe.
