

WXDU DURHAM, NC

QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS LIST FOURTH QUARTER 2018

Julia Donheiser, Non-Music Program Director
January 10, 2019

SECTION I: Issues Programming

In an effort to promote community awareness and to fulfill its public service commitment and obligation, WXDU has identified the following issues to be of concern to the Duke University and Durham community:

1. Community Activism and Involvement
2. History
3. Arts and Literature
4. Sports
5. Science and Technology
6. Diversity and Culture

To address these issues, WXDU broadcasts the following radio shows:

“WXDU Sports”

First and third Sunday of every month, 6:00-7:00 pm

This show covers regional sports.

“Music and Spirituality”.

Tuesdays 4:00-5:00 pm

Music & Spirituality is hosted by Rabbi Elana, Campus Rabbi at Duke. This talk show explores the concept that music is essentially spiritual, is our soul’s inherent language, and has the power to change us. Each week a unique guest joins Rabbi Elana in the station for conversation interspersed with music selected by the guest as their spiritual songs.

Other programming includes:

“Spectrum” is produced by Deutsche Welle and gives updates on science and technology from around the world.

“Living Planet” is produced by Deutsche Welle and covers environmental science and sustainability.

“World in Progress” is produced by Deutsche Welle and covers events occurring in the developing world.

“Making Contact” is produced by the Radio Project and “produces media that analyses critical social and environmental issues and encourages civic participation, by giving voice to diverse perspectives and opinions.

SECTION II: Responsive Programs

WXDU creates and shares broadcast programming to address the above-referenced issues. Specific examples of our programming include:

| Issue category | Name of show | Date | Duration (minutes) | Description |
|---|----------------------|-------------|---------------------------|---|
| Sports | WXDU Sports | 1/5/2019 | 60 | New Years Show |
| Sports | WXDU Sports | 12/8/2018 | 60 | Duke centric sports and professional sports |
| Arts and Literature, History | Music & Spirituality | 12/4/2018 | 60 | Ken Rogerson, PhD, Professor of the Practice at Duke Sanford's School of Public Policy |
| Arts and Literature, Diversity and Culture | Music & Spirituality | 11/27/2018 | 60 | Jason Atwood, Duke '20, Public Policy Major, Sports Writer for The Chronicle |
| Sports | WXDU Sports | 11/24/2018 | 60 | Duke centric sports and professional sports |
| Community activism, Arts and Literature, Diversity and Culture, History | Music & Spirituality | 11/13/2018 | 60 | Stephanie Helms Pickett, PhD, Director of the Women's Center at Duke |
| Sports | WXDU Sports | 11/10/2018 | 60 | Duke centric sports and professional sports |
| Arts and Literature, Science and Technology, Diversity and Culture, History | Music & Spirituality | 10/30/2018 | 60 | Professor Nimmi Ramanujan, Professor of Biomedical Engineering, Director of the Center for Global Women's Health Technologies |
| Sports | WXDU Sports | 10/28/2018 | 60 | Duke centric sports and professional sports |
| Sports | WXDU Sports | 10/27/2018 | 60 | Duke centric sports and professional sports |

WXDU Durham
Q4 Quarterly Issues/Programs List
January 10, 2019

| | | | | |
|---|----------------------|------------|----|--|
| Arts and Literature, Science and Technology, Diversity and Culture, History | Music & Spirituality | 10/23/2018 | 60 | Professor Jeffrey Moe, Duke Global Health Institute |
| Arts and Literature, Diversity and Culture, History | Music & Spirituality | 10/16/2018 | 60 | Grant Besner, Duke '19, Columnist for The Chronicle |
| Politics and Government | Making Contact | 11/4/2019 | 30 | The X Factor in the Midterms |
| Community activism | Making Contact | 12/18/2018 | 30 | I Am Because I Am: The Expansion of Gender Identity |
| Diversity and Culture | Making Contact | 12/2/2018 | 30 | Climate Uprising: Indigenous Women at the Global Climate Action Summit |
| Community activism, Science and Technology | Making Contact | 11/14/2018 | 30 | Fossil Refusal: Local Models not Global Markets |
| Community activism, Science and Technology | Making Contact | 10/21/2018 | 30 | The ways people have already been organizing and what sort of new energy solutions exist for the future. |
| Science and Technology | Spectrum | 11/4/2018 | 30 | Drive into a child, or swerve and hit two grandparents? Such horrendously difficult choices will soon be programmed into our cars. Cast your own vote in this moral bloodbath of an episode. |
| Community activism, Science and Technology | Living Planet | 12/2/2018 | 30 | Asking the difficult questions - Why did tragedy strike an environmental activist couple in Chile? Who will win the fight over Germany's coal phase-out and why is the movement attracting protesters from around the globe? Is the main purpose of beach cleanups is to soothe our conscience? We dig into these tricky subjects on this week's episode of Living Planet. |

SECTION III: PUBLIC SERVICE STATION EVENTS

The following list of public service announcements for events and organizations were sponsored by WXDU-FM in the 3rd Quarter of 2018. Sponsorship included on-air and website promotions.

The ArtsCenter in Carrboro presents: RIO MIRA, a marimba and vocal ensemble highlighting the music of the Pacific Coast region of Ecuador and Colombia. Saturday, October 13 at 8 pm. Tickets and more information at: artscenterlive.org

Movie Loft presents: the psychotronic horror classic THE MASK in 3D, Thursday, October 25 at Shadowbox Studio, 900 East Club Boulevard in Durham. 3D glasses will be provided; come at 7 pm for Halloween music and sounds; movie starts at 8. Learn more at: shadowboxstudio.org

Duke Performances presents: CAMILLE A. BROWN & DANCERS performing BLACK GIRL: LINGUISTIC PLAY. Friday and Saturday, February 1 and 2 at 8 pm in Reynolds Industries Theater. More information at: dukeperformances.org

The 13th annual “Tails at Twilight” fundraising gala for the Animal Protection Society of Durham takes place on Saturday, November 17 starting at 6 pm at the Washington Duke Inn.

This “well-groomed” event includes a three-course dinner, drinks, silent and live auction, dancing to a live band, and surprises. Your participation supports assistance to homeless, neglected, abused, and abandoned animals in our area. All proceeds benefit the APS of Durham. Tickets and more information at: apsofdurham.org

The Kraken will host a benefit concert event for community radio station WCOM on Friday, October 12 at 7 pm. Musical performers include JENNYANYKIND, SOUTHERN CULTURE ON THE SKIDS, ARROGANCE, and THE VELDT. Additional artists may be announced. All donations benefit WCOM 103.5 FM. For more information visit: thekrakenbar.com and wcomfm.org

Burning Coal Theatre presents: STUFF HAPPENS, a recent history play written in response to the Iraq War by DAVID HARE, directed by LILLIAN WHITE. October 11 - 28. Tickets and showtimes at: burningcoal.org

Food Insight Group (FIG) and the North Carolina Parent Teachers Association present “Durham Bowls.” Cafeteria managers and chefs design new meals for school cafeterias. Public tasting event at the Scrap Exchange, Saturday, October 13, from 3 - 6 pm. Tickets and more information at: durhambowls.org

WXDU is hosting its Fall Record Fair at Duke University’s Rubenstein Arts Center on Saturday, October 27, from 11 am - 4 pm. Expand your music collection, support vendors and local record stores, and pick up WXDU merch! Food will be provided. For more info, find WXDU on Facebook and our Facebook event page: “WXDU Fall Record Fair”

“Don’t Be Mean To People,” a music festival in support of the ACLU of North Carolina, takes place Friday and Saturday, October 19 and 20 at Ponysaurus Brewing Company in Durham. Two days of concerts in support of the Golden Rule include RAFIQ BHATIA, BODY GAMES, SHIRLETTE AMMONS & THE DYNAMITE BROTHERS, THE HOT AT NIGHTS ORCHESTRA, WYE OAK, SKYLAR GUDASZ, SPIDER BAGS, SUPERCHUNK, and more. Tickets and info at: ponysaurusbrewing.com

The “Bull City Race Fest & Food Truck Rodeo” comes to downtown Durham on Sunday, October 21. Sponsor Endurance Magazine has designated Habitat For Humanity as the charitable beneficiary for the event. There may be road closures in your area on the morning of the race. Please allow yourself extra time if you have to be somewhere on Sunday, October 21. Consider parking vehicles on nearby streets that will not be impacted. To view course maps, visit: bullcityracefest.com

Duke Performances presents: The LATVIAN RADIO CHOIR in a rare North Carolina appearance Thursday, November 15 at 8 pm in Duke Chapel. More information at: dukeperformances.org

The Animal Protection Society of Durham announces reduced adoption fees this October, thanks to the support of Two Men and a Truck and the “Movers for Mutts” campaign. The reduced fees are $75 for dog adoptions and $50 for cat adoptions. Learn more and see adoptable pets online at: apsofdurham.org

Manifest Music Festival, spotlighting musicians who identify as women, femme, trans, and non-binary folk, comes to Chapel Hill on Friday and Saturday, October 19 and 20. This year’s venues for Manifest III are: Local 506, The Nightlight, and The Cave. See the lineup, buy tickets, and learn more at: manifestmusicfestival.com

The Chatham County Council on Aging's Fall Senior Education Conference takes place on November 7 in Pittsboro. Registration deadline is October 31. More information at: chathamcoa.org

The 2018 "Murphey School Radio Show," a family-friendly variety show to benefit The Arts Center and The Carolina Theatre, takes place on Saturday, November 10 with a 3 pm matinee and an evening show at 7 pm. This year's stellar guests include New York Times bestselling author JILL MCCORCKLE, Burning Coal playwright IAN FINLAY, and singer songwriters SHANA TUCKER and CRYSTAL BRIGHT. The Murphey School is located at 3717 Murphy School Road in Durham. Learn more at: murpheyschoolradio.net

Meals on Wheels is urgently seeking volunteer drivers for Pittsboro, Goldston, Bennett, Bear Creak, and Siler City. Meals on Wheels drivers take an hour of their time to deliver hot meals and peace of mind to homebound seniors. Both regular and substitute drivers are needed. Contact volunteer coordinator Allison Andrews at the Chatham County Council on Aging: (919) 542-4512 ext 226, or email: Allison.andrews@chathamcouncilonaging.org

The Hickory Tavern, located inside the Hampton Inn in Carrboro, will host its annual fundraiser for WCOM 103.5 FM on Thursday, November 1 from 5 - 9 pm. Ten percent of food sales receipts will be donated to WCOM, a non-profit, all-volunteer, community radio station serving Carrboro and Chapel Hill. The event also features raffle prizes and the opportunity to meet show hosts. To donate raffle items, call: (919) 675-2787. Learn more at: WCOMFM.org

The Oval Park Progressive Dinner, a "Dinner a l' Art" fundraiser for the Durham Arts Council, takes place on Saturday, December 8 starting at 5:30 pm. Dine in stages at three historic Oak Park homes showcasing private art collections. Advanced tickets are required. Visit: durhamarts.org and click on "Special Events" to learn more.

Durham Parks and Recreation teams up with Beyond Fences to host BARKTOBERFEST on Saturday, October 27, from 2:30 - 7 pm at Durham Central Park. The rain or shine event is free and open to the public, and will feature costume contests, tricks and treats for canine and human alike, as well as a pet market, live music and performances, and more. Learn more about BARKTOBERFEST at: DPRPlayMore.org and BeyondFences.org

Carrboro Recreation and Parks' "Family Fun Sunday" series presents: THE PHILIPPINE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF NC. Experience traditional dances of the Philippines, and learn about the costumes, folklore, and history behind them. Anyone willing to learn will be given an opportunity to try the dances. Sunday, November 4 at 2:30 pm at the Carrboro Century Center. Call (919) 918-7364 for more information.

The Durham Art Walk Holiday Market is a festive, fine arts and crafts market featuring local artists, live music, and world class restaurants at easily strollable venues in the Durham city center. Coming soon: November 17 and 18 with hours on Saturday from 10 am - 5 pm and Sunday from 1 - 5 pm. Learn more at: durhamartwalk.com

The 60th annual Cary Band Day will be held on Saturday, November 3, at Cary High School's Cooper Field. This year's event features 38 competing high school marching bands from across North Carolina and Virginia, as well as special exhibition performances by the Cary High School Marching Band. Festivities kick off at 9:45 am, and bands will perform until 10:30 pm. Learn more at: caryband.org

Duke Performances presents: CAMILLE A. BROWN & DANCERS performing ink, the third installment in her visionary trilogy about being Black in America, Friday & Saturday, November 9 and 10 at Reynolds Industries Theater. In addition, BROWN & dance critic MICHAELA DWYER will take part in a free, public conversation at The Pinhook on Thursday, November 8 at Noon. More information at: dukeperformances.org

Duke Performances presents: The "Queen of Ranchera" AIDA CUEVAS performing music of Juan Gabriel with Mexico's MARIACHI JUVENIL TECALITLAN. Wednesday, November 7 at 8 pm at the Carolina Theatre of Durham. Information at: dukeperformances.org

Duke Music Department presents: The Duke Djembe and Afro-Cuban Ensembles performing under the direction of BRADLEY SIMMONS with guest artist BOLOKADA CONDE, master drummer and former lead soloist with Les Percussions de Guinée. Friday, November 9 at 8 pm in Baldwin Auditorium. Learn more at: music.duke.edu

North Carolina Early Voting continues now through November 3. The general election is scheduled for Tuesday, November 6. Check if you are registered to vote, see a sample ballot, and find early voting hours and locations at the Durham County Board of Elections website: dcovotes.com

The Affordable Care Act's current open-enrollment period runs through December 15. Certified Marketplace navigators with the NC Navigator Consortium are available to help North Carolina consumers enroll in affordable, comprehensive coverage on Healthcare.gov. This year NC Navigator Consortium, led by Legal Aid of North Carolina, is the only navigator group in the state. To schedule a free, in-person appointment anywhere in NC, call toll free: 1-855 - 733 - 3711 or visit: ncnavigator.net

Burning Coal Theatre presents: THE WEIR! a contemporary Irish classic by CONOR MCPHERSON directed by artistic director JEROME DAVIS. Opening November 29. Ticket information at: burningcoal.org

WXDU is proud to present: "Since4Eva: Pinhook 10-Year Anniversary" featuring WAILIN STORMS, BUILDINGS, BANDAGE, VINCAS, and MAPLE STAVE. TONIGHT Wednesday, November 11 at 7:30 pm at The Pinhook. More on Facebook and at thepinhook.com

Triangle locals can do some holiday shopping while helping a local cause through Activate Good's two-week, online holiday auction, SHOP FOR GOOD, November 13 through November 27. Activate Good's programs connect volunteers to hundreds of local charities and empower youth to lead and serve. Bid by text or online and get deals on over 100 items, from local dining to apparel and jewelry, theater tickets, travel getaways, and more. Register and learn more at: activategood.org

Duke Performances presents: MARC-ANDRE HAMELIN playing works for solo piano by Bach, Chopin, and more. Saturday, November 17 at 8 pm in Baldwin Auditorium. Information at: dukeperformances.org

Carrboro Recreation and Parks' Family Fun Sunday Series presents: a participatory class in KOREAN FAN DANCE AND DRUMMING with HEOAK LEE. Ms. Lee is the director and choreographer of "Imperial Jewel," a Raleigh-based, Korean traditional music ensemble. Sunday, December 2 at 2:30 pm at the Carrboro Century Center. Call (919) 918-7364 for more information.

Durham's "Holiday Parade" will be held rain or shine on Saturday, December 8, at 10 am, starting at the Health Department downtown and ending near Duke University East Campus. Main Street will be closed to parking and vehicular traffic from 7 am through 2 pm. After the parade, a "Holiday Fun Fest" takes place on Blackwell Street between Morehead and Lakewood, from 1 - 4 pm, with snow sledding, Santa visits, pony rides, live music, and more. Information at: DPRPlayMore.org

The 12th annual Elf Market comes to the ArtsCenter on Saturday, December 1 from 10 am - 4:30 pm. This annual holiday craft market features over 40 local vendors selling handmade goods such as clothing, body products, food items, fine art, toys, ceramics, and jewelry. The bar will be open, and there will be hands-on craft activities. Admission is free. More information at artscenterlive.org

The CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY SHOPPE CRAFT SHOW, a fundraiser for Saint Thomas More Catholic School, takes place on Saturday, December 1 from 9 am - 4 pm. Featuring the work of 65 artists and crafters from across North Carolina, the event will be held in the Friends & Family Hall of the Saint Thomas More Catholic Church in Chapel Hill. Holiday music, a raffle, bake sale, and Reindeer Cafe add festive flair. Free admission. For more information, visit: STMCSNC.org

The ArtsCenter presents: "15 by 15 Live: An NC Triangle Songwriters' Compilation" benefit concert and CD release party on Wednesday, December 12 at 7 pm. Proceeds benefit "Special Treats," a Chapel Hill chocolate shop that employs local people with disabilities. Tickets and more information at: artscenterlive.org

The Durham Arts Council's annual CALL FOR ARTISTS is now open! Visual artists are invited to apply for an exhibit in our galleries for a 6-8 week period. Exhibition opportunities are also available at the Durham Convention Center for 6-month periods. Applications are due January 31 to be considered for an exhibit between July 2019 and July 2020. Visit the Durham Arts Council website: durhamarts.org or contact: stierney@durhamarts.org

KidBright USA is a local non-profit addressing hunger in public schools by building a volunteer network delivering free, healthy snacks to classrooms with children in need. From now through December 17th, KidBright has launched a GoFundMe campaign to raise $35,000 to end hunger in Durham Public Schools. You can help by donating at GoFundMe.com for the "Bring Healthy Snacks to Kids in School" Campaign. To learn more, visit: kidbrightusa.org

On the nights of Thursday and Friday, December 13 and 14, Durham Parks and Recreation coordinates with the Morehead Planetarium to host a GEMINID METEOR SHOWER VIEWING at DPR's new Environmental Education Pavilion, housed at the historic West Point on the Eno. From 8 pm - 3 am, participants can enjoy educational activities, hot chocolate, and viewing one of the most prolific meteor showers of the year, with up to 120 meteors per hour. Children must be accompanied by an adult. For more information visit: DPRPlayMore.org or call Ryan Sailstad at: (919) 560-4405

The Animal Protection Society of Durham has two adoption events coming up on Sunday, December 23: Adoptable Cats at Barnes Supply Co. and a Dog Meet & Greet at Beer Durham both running simultaneously from 1:30 - 3 pm. Learn more and see adoptable pets online at: apsofdurham.org

The Durham Arts Council's Third Friday arts event on Friday, December 21 will be an art-filled, family-friendly affair brimming with holiday cheer! Stop by DAC and participating venues from 6 - 8 pm to enjoy caroling by the DURHAM CHILDREN'S CHOIR, live jazz from SHAQIM MULDROW, a holiday showcase from the DAC DANCERS, cookie decorating, and the The Durham Art Guild's HOLIDAY MARKET. Learn more at durhamarts.org and by following Durham Arts Council on Facebook.

An exhibit at the Nasher Museum will feature images from the forthcoming book published by the Center for Documentary Studies and UNC Press: WHERE WE FIND OURSELVES: THE PHOTOGRAPHS OF HUGH MANGUM, 1897-1922, edited and curated by MARGARET SARTOR and ALEX HARRIS. Opening reception and gallery talk are January 18. Learn more at: nasher.duke.edu

Carrboro Recreation and Parks' "Jam Session Series" presents: LINE DANCE JAM featuring NIKIYA giving instruction in the latest line dances. Friday, January 4 from 7:30 - 9 pm at the Carrboro Century Center. For more information, call Carrboro Recreation and Parks at: (919) 918-7364

The ArtsCenter presents: 1928 French surrealist silent film THE SEASHELL AND THE CLERGYMAN with a live score by TIM CARLESS. Saturday, January 19 at 8 pm. Tickets and more information at: artscenterlive.org

Girls Rock NC has announced 2019 Summer Camp dates in Durham and Raleigh. Registration forms will open on its website on January 15. To learn more, or to make an end-of-the-year, tax-deductible donation, visit: girlsrocknc.org

The effects of sexual assault can last a long time. For years after the physical assault, survivors may experience drastic changes in mood, appetite, sleep patterns, or lifestyle. The Durham Crisis Response Center has resources and help available. Call their 24-hour, local helpline at: 919-403-6562 or email: crisisline@durhamcrisisresponse.org

The City of Durham's annual Kwanzaa Celebration takes place on Sunday, December 30 from 2 - 5 pm at the Holton Career & Resource Center, located at 401 North Driver Street. For more information email: Jerome.Johnson@durhamnc.gov or call Durham Parks & Recreation at: (919) 354-2750

The African American Dance Ensemble hosts "KwanzaaFest 2019" on Tuesday, January 1 from Noon to 5:30 pm at the Durham Armory. The event includes dancing, drumming, food, vendors, children's activities, and more. The Children's Village opens at 12:30 pm, and performances begin at 2 pm. More at the African American Dance Ensemble's website: aade-inc.org