

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Transportation	Hearsay	7.5.11	12:06	52 min	Biking - as a sport and a recreational activity - continues to grow in popularity. Norfolk recently unveiled new bike racks that double as art work and Virginia Beach declared its intention to be a "Bicycle-Friendly City" in the next six years. On today's program, we'll talk with biking enthusiasts about biking conditions throughout the Hampton Roads area. We'll also highlight Virginia Beach City's priority areas for safer biking conditions.
History – Ft. Monroe	HearSay	7.20.11	12:06	52 min	The clock is ticking on a final decisions about the future of Fort Monroe. The US Army closes the post in Hampton on September 15, 2011. On Tuesday of this week, officials will have hosted two meetings to help wage public support for making Ft. Monroe a National Park. On Wednesday's program, we'll talk with local leaders and advocates about the latest developments on this ongoing story.
LGBT & African American	Another View	7.22.11	12:06	52 min	What is life like if you are African American and gay or lesbian? Are the issues of racism, sexism, religion and intolerance compounded by race? Is there solace within the African American community, or rejection because of the gay lifestyle? And what about the black church...what role does it play in teaching understanding and acceptance? On the next Another

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					View we'll talk about being black and gay in Hampton Roads, with Minnie Whitehead, LCSW; businessman Finley Cooperwood, and Reverend Nanette Hilliard, pastor of Great Awakening United Church of Christ
Transportation	HearSay	7.25.11	12:06	52 Min	Last week saw significant headway in plans for area transportation projects, including a major expansion of the Midtown Tunnel. On today's program, we'll talk about the new proposals, which include tolls for using the Downtown and Midtown tunnels. Call in with your thoughts and questions.
Alcoholism	HearSay	8.1.11	12:06	52 min	Program focused on dealing/coping/overcoming alcoholism (in an overall sense), sharing stories, rehab, family issues, etc. ? – have people in studio (or phone) who can tell their stories as well – and a therapist. Spoke to the impact on families. 12 steps and alternatives to 12 steps. How rehab is a procession and not a one-time event . Discuss impact of insurance coverage for only 30 days.
Alcoholism	HearSay	8.2.11	12:06	52 min	Treatment from a policy perspective: If it's a disease, why do we have a public safety approach to it? (Jail, etc.) Programs are available to deal with addiction in jail (very few). What are the implications? This would be more of a public policy conversation. We talk to

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					Del. Harvey Morgan who's long advocated legalizing marijuana.
Transportation	HearSay	8.16.11	12:06	52 Min	After years of planning and construction, The Tide is set to carry its first passengers this Friday. On today's headline show, we'll talk about the debut of the light rail system and what passengers - and area residents - can expect from the Grand Opening. Will you be riding The Tide? Call in live at 440-2665 or 1-800-940-2240. You can also e-mail the program at hearsay@whrv.org or join us on our Facebook page www.facebook.com/hearsaywithcathy.lewis .
Obesity & Diabetes	HearSay	8.17.11	12:06	52 Min	Significant increases of obesity in adults and children are creating epidemic rates of diabetes in America. On today's program, we'll talk with medical specialists and nutritionists about the face of Diabetes in Hampton Roads - and learn what is being done to stem this pandemic.
Environment – The Health of the Chesapeake Bay	HearSay	8.22.11	12:06	52 Min	Five hundred years ago, Amerigo Vespucci first realized the scope and size of the body of water that lay between Europe and the new world. With that revelation, The Atlantic Ocean quickly became the key Western Civilization. On today's broadcast, we'll talk with author Simon Winchester about his biography of The Atlantic Ocean.

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					Later in the program, we'll talk with Will Baker, president of the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, and get an update on the health of the Chesapeake Bay.
African American Women and the Space Program	Another View	9.2.11	12:06	52 min	What is the role that African American women have played in the space program? And with Nasa having launched the last space shuttle, what can we hope to achieve in the future? Do opportunities even exist today for those interested the great beyond? If so, what are they? Join guest host Lisa Godley as Another View explores the past and future of the space program with three women from three different generations who've been in the trenches.
Police shootings in the African American Community	Another View	9.9.11	12:06	52 min	On the next Another View, the AV round table pundits share their thoughts on issues facing the African American community of Hampton Roads and beyond. This Friday we'll discuss the jobs plan put forth by President Barack Obama, the perceived rise in the number of police involved shootings of African Americans in Hampton Roads, and the phenomonon of flash mobs, among other topics. Join Virginian-Pilot columnist Roger Chesley; NSU political science professor Carol Pretlow; community activist Bill Thomas, and journalist, author and talk show host Wil LaVeist for the Another View Round Table,

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					Friday, September 9 at noon on 89.5 WHRV-FM and whrv.org.
Arts	HearSay	9.22.1 1	12:0 6	52 Min	The Governor's School for the Arts in Norfolk is one of 18, highly-competitive magnet Governor's Schools in Virginia. Students are selected from the school systems in Chesapeake, Franklin, Isle of Wight County, Norfolk, Portsmouth, Southampton County, Suffolk, or Virginia Beach. The school has departments of musical theater, visual arts, theater, instrumental music, dance, and classical vocal. Many accomplished performers and artists have risen out of the program. On Thursday's HearSay, we'll talk with the school's leadership and some of the graduates who've made it to the big time!
African American Single Parent Households	Another View	9.23.1 1	12.0 6	52 Min	According to the Annie E. Casey Foundation, 67% of African American households are headed by a single parent - in Virginia, 58% of black households are single parent households. The reasons are many - women who choose to be a single mom, divorce, death, incarceration of the dad, poverty...you get the picture. And while the usual stereotype of a single parent is a young women on welfare, uneducated and with no direction, the truth is that many single parents become so out of life circumstance. Women who suddenly

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					find themselves in a single parent situation often do not know where to turn for help. On the next Another View, we'll talk with Monica and Tony Brothers, creators of the Still Hope Foundation, an organization that works with single mothers to help them get back on track, and we'll meet a single mother who successfully completed the program. Plus, hear the soulful gospel sounds of Maurice Yancey and One Accord! It's all on Another View, Friday, September 23 at noon on 89.5 WHRV-FM, and whrv.org.
--	--	--	--	--	--

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.