

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Politics	HearSay	7.2.12	12:06	52 min	host Cathy Lewis as we continue our coverage of the issues and candidates that are shaping the political rhetoric within our Commonwealth and the entire nation. On today's "Candidate Conversation" segment, we're joined by former Virginia Governor Tim Kaine. We'll converse about his experiences as governor and the issues central to his campaign for the U.S. Senate.
Politics	Another View	7.20.12	12:06	52 min	On the next Another View a candid conversation with Virginia State Senators Mamie Locke and Louise Lucas! What was the driving force that propelled these women into politics? What will be the "hot button issue" in this upcoming General Assembly? Is race or gender ever an issue as they represent their constituents? We'll find out about their backgrounds and discuss the recent loss of their colleague, the late Senator Yvonne Miller. Join us for an inside look at our government at work as we talk with Senator Mamie Locke and Senator Louise Lucas on the next Another View
Transportation	HearSay	8.6.12	12:06	52 min	If you live in Hampton Roads, chances are you drive or utilize public transportation to complete your daily commute. On today's HearSay, host Cathy Lewis checks in with Hampton Roads Transit and the Virginia Department of Transportation about the latest developments from each agency and what steps they're taking to improve the quality of public

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					transportation and reduce traffic congestion locally. More specifically we will discuss the new VDOT 511 system and the recent Elizabeth River ferry grant awarded to HRT.
Equality	HearSay	8.9.12	12:06	52 min	Over half a century ago, our region was a central battleground in the fight for desegregation. In Norfolk, local activists played a crucial role in the effort to equalize and integrate the city's schools. Host Cathy Lewis is joined by the authors of the new book, "Elusive Equality: Desegregation and Resegregation in Norfolk's Public Schools." They'll discuss their extensive research of the oral interviews, archival material, and local newspaper coverage that tells the harrowing story of Norfolk's struggle for educational equality
Transportation	HearSay	8.13.12	12:06	52 min	Amidst the local and nationwide discussions about traffic, pollution, fuel prices and obesity, some would argue that there is a unified solution. Ride a bicycle. If Americans exchanged just one in five of their average daily car trips with a ride on a bicycle, the effect would be the equivalent of taking 48 million vehicles off the road. While the math is compelling, the reality facing local cyclists is that our region is far from "bike friendly." We'll consider the challenges facing local bike enthusiasts as we discuss the state of cycling across Hampton Roads.
Gun Control / hurricanes	HearSay	8.15.12	12:06	52 min	This week we'll consider the latest news stories that have you talking, including soaring local gun sales, the impending selection of a Republican

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					vice-presidential candidate and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's recent increase in the number of storms predicted during the remainder of hurricane season. We open up our lines for you to let us know your thoughts by joining us live on air at 440-2665 or 1-800-940-2240. You can also e-mail the program at hearsay@whrv.org or join us on our Facebook page www.facebook.com/hearsaywithcathylewis .
Healthcare	Another View	8.17.12	12:06	52 min	African American men in Hampton Roads have the highest rate of prostate cancer in the nation! Why aren't black men in our region getting the information, screenings and treatment they need? This week on Another View we'll discuss the problem and look at solutions. I'm Lisa Godley and I'll be filling in for Barbara Hamm Lee this week. Join me, Dr. Nathaniel Stinson and Dr. Richard Wright along with cancer survivors: Terrance Afer-Anderson and Charlie Hill; as we discuss this life threatening disease and the upcoming symposium designed to provide information and screenings to those who need it most. Also, my interview with Grammy award-winning artist... Pharrell Williams. We'll tell you what he's doing to give back to kids in Hampton Roads!
Civil Rights	Another View	8.31.12	12:06	52 min	On the next Another View we'll explore the crucial role network television played during the Civil Rights movement of the 1960's. Our guest is UVA Professor Aniko Bodroghkozy, author of "Equal Time:

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

					Television and the Civil Rights Movement." She'll share her thoughts on how network news and entertainment shows like Julia and Good Times made a difference in our perception of Blacks and Whites. Plus, Lisa Godley tells us how the game of chess is making a positive difference in some urban neighborhoods in Norfolk!
Education	Another View	9.7.12	12:06	52 min	It's a new school year, and for Norfolk Public Schools - a new plan for improvement. As part of our American Graduate: Let's Make It Happen initiative, we'll talk with education leaders about their plans to increase the on-time graduation rate, decrease the drop out rate, and ensure students have a safe, academically stimulating and positive environment in which to learn. And we'll discuss concrete ways that the community can get involved through innovative partnerships. Our guests include: Dr. Samuel King, Superintendent, NPS; Dr. Kirk Houston, NPS School Board Chair; Dr. Marvin Bright, Provost, Norfolk Campus, Tidewater Community College; and Kevin Monroe, Principal, Booker T. Washington High School. And Lisa Godley brings us the story of Uth Act - which means Youth Achieving Change Together. It's a group of Hampton Public School kids who are trained to be community leaders! It's all on Another View, Friday, September 7 at noon on 89.5 WHRV-FM, or stream us at whrv.org.
Transportati	HearSay	9.10.1	12:0	52 min	On today's HearSay, host Cathy Lewis discusses one of our region's

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

on		2	6		most hotly contested transportation issues -- light rail service to the Virginia Beach oceanfront. Voters will have a chance to decide the fate of the light rail expansion this November when they vote on the proposed referendum. We'll take consider if the Tide's Norfolk success is cause for expansion and hear from those pushing hardest to make light rail access in Virginia Beach a reality.
Politics	HearSay	9.13.17	12:06	52 min	Now that the Democratic and Republican National Conventions have drawn to a close, we'll take a look at their highlights and discuss both their impact and relevance. Host Cathy Lewis will also be joined by members of both the Virginia Republican and Democratic Delegations about their experiences in Tampa and Charlotte.
Politics	HearSay	9.17.12	12:06	52 min	Join us for our inaugural edition of this election year's Candidate Conversation series. On today's installment, host Cathy Lewis is joined by the candidates from the 2nd Congressional District of Virginia. We'll leave the bright lights, glaring opposition, and aggressive campaign advertising behind and foster a candid discussion where the candidates can share their thoughts on tough issues and their goals for the district.
Education	HearSay	9.25.12	12:06	52 min	Tonight's PBS Frontline special, "Dropout Nation," highlights the myriad of factors depressing graduation rates at a Texas High School. Unfortunately, those factors aren't limited to the Lone Star State and impact children across the country. On today's HearSay, we'll examine how those challenges play out in our region's schools and speak with a diverse group of educators, administrators and advocates who are on the front line of this ongoing fight for our children's futures.

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

---

--	--	--	--	--	---

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.