

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Local Arts	HearSay	4.4.11	12:06	54 min	This week, the Virginia Opera opens a new production to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the start of the Civil War, Rappahannock County , Cathy talks with members of the cast and crew about this period piece, which transforms the stage with projections of the Civil War and evocative songs.
Racism	HearSay	4.7.11	12:06	54 min	Stand Against Racism This month, YWCAs around the nation are bringing people together from all walks of life to raise awareness that racism still exists. On Thursday's HearSay, guest host Barbara Hamm Lee talks with local advocates about efforts to end racism in our area and celebrate the richness of diversity.
Local and national issues – From the Headlines	HearSay	4.11.11	12:06	54 min	A possible government shutdown and Epsilon's personal data theft are just two of the stories we are following on this HearSay From the Headlines broadcast. On Monday's HearSay, Cathy Lewis examines the most compelling and local stories of the day and wants to hear from you.
Violence on Campus – Va Tech	HearSay	4.19.11	12:06	54 min	Living For 32 Despite being shot four times, Colin Goddard is one of the few survivors of the Virginia Tech shootings in Norris Hall four years ago. After a long and difficult recovery, he began volunteering with the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence, the nation's largest gun control organization. Colin joins Cathy to talk about his work as an advocate for victims of gun violence, which took him on an undercover investigation of the gun industry.

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.

Quarterly Issues/Programs List

LGBT Community	HearSay	5.26.11	12:06	54 min	For the first in its 23 year history, the LGBT group Hampton Roads Pride will hold its annual "Out in the Park" festival at Norfolk's Town Point Park. The larger venue is not only expected to draw more people in the area, but more attention from others outside the local gay and lesbian community. On Thursday's HearSay, we'll talk about the evolution, the current state, and the ideas about the future of the LGBT community in Hampton Roads.

There Follows a listing of the significant issues responded to by WHRV 89.5 FM, Norfolk, VA, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period ____ to _____. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect priority or significance.