

WMOV and WJEH AM ISSUES/ANSWERS LIST
March 31, 2021

A Touch of Grey (one hour program)

Molly Carmel, author of “Breaking Up With Sugar;” Dr. Jacquelyn Obani, cardiologist and author of “Women and Heart Disease: The Real Story” ...8:00-9:00a, January 3, 2021.

Dr. Gary Eppler, professor at Harvard Medical School and author of “Alive With Life: A Medical Doctor’s Guide To Live Your Best Life;” Dr. William H. Harris, noted hip replacement surgeon and author of “Vanishing Bone: Conquering The Stealth Disease Caused by Total Hip Replacements”...8:00-9:00a, January 10, 2021.

David M. Rubenstein, author of “The American Story;” Pamela Garber, relationship counselor, on concerns over age discrimination...8:00-9:00a, January 17, 2021.

Janice Clarke Johnston, author of “Mid-Life Maze: A Map To Recovery and Rediscovery After Loss;” Dr. Santo diMarabella, author of “The Lessons of Caring: Inspiration and Support for Caregivers” ...8:00-9:00a, January 24, 2021.

Judith Matlock, professor at the Columbia School of Journalism on conflict reporting, and author of “How To Drag A Body and Other Safety Tips You Hope To Never Need;” Becky Sue Epstein, wine expert, on getting back to dining out...8:00-9:00a, February 7, 2021.

David M. Rubenstein, author of “The American Story;” Pamela Garber, relationship counselor, on concerns over age discrimination...8:00-9:00a, February 14, 2021.

Syndicated conservative talk show host Mike Gallagher and former Blood, Sweat and Tears vocalist David Clayton Thomas offer radically differing views of the world we live in...8:00-9:00a, February 21, 2021.

Matt Peterson, Director of Information Resources at the American Diabetes Association, on their publication, “Managing Type Two Diabetes for Dummies;” David Anderson, President and CEO of BarBarA...8:00-9:00a, February 28, 2021.

Kathleen O’Keefe Canavos, participant in a study on dreams as a diagnostic tool; Dr. Jacquelyn Obani, cardiologist and author of “Women and Heart Disease” ...8:00-9:00a, March 7, 2021.

Dr. Jillian Andrews, author of “Keep Calm and Log On;” Molly Carnell, author of “Breaking Up With Sugar,” on dealing with food addictions...8:00-9:00a, March 14, 2021.

Charles Garfield, founder of Shanti and author of “Our Wisdom Years: Growing Old With Joy, Fulfillment, Resilience and No Regrets” ...8:00-9:00a, March 21, 2021.

Molly Carmel, author of “Breaking Up With Sugar;” Dr. Jackquelyn Obani, cardiologist and author of “Women and Heart Disease: The Real Story”...8:00-9:00a, March 28, 2021.

The Valley Today (five minutes in length)

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on this week’s COVID vaccine schedule for those over 80 years of age, 4:10p, January 4, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Superintendent of Jackson County Schools, on the schedule plans for the next two weeks, 4:40p, January 4, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Sheriff Ross Millinger on his taking office, 4:10p, January 5, 2021.

Tom Wagner of the West Virginia Ski Areas Association on how the holiday period went for the state’s resorts, 4:40p, January 5, 2021.

Interview with Ripley High School teacher Adena Barnette on the challenges of the changing teaching methods necessitated by the COVID pandemic, 4:10p, January 6, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors’ Bureau, on an upcoming event at the Cedar Lakes Conference Center, 4:40p, January 6, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood High School Principal ... on the challenges of a constantly changing teaching schedule during the pandemic, 4:10p, January 7, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on upcoming virtual meetings for area farmers, 4:40p, January 7, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on the actions of Wayne Delegate Derrick Evans at the U.S. Capitol this week, 4:10p, January 8, 2021.

Interview with Hoppy Kerchival, host of MetroNews “Talkline” program, on the opening of the West Virginia legislative session this coming week, 4:40p, January 8, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the lack of COVID vaccine being allocated to the county, 4:10p, January 11, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on the current financial condition of the city government, 4:40p, January 11, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on the resignation of Delegate Derrick Evans and the start of the ceremonial legislative session, 4:10p, January 12, 2021.

Interview with Beth Casey, CEO of the West Virginia Girl Scout Council, on the start of Girl Scout cookie sales, 4:40p, January 12, 2021.

Interview with Ripley High School track and cross country coach Jimmy Groves on proper procedures to run in the cold weather, 4:10p, January 13, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on upcoming events in Jackson County, 4:40p, January 13, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Schools' Superintendent Blaine Hess on the new back-to-school decisions made by the state school board and what it will mean for Jackson County schools, 4:10p, January 14, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, about how farming is nature's version of social distancing, 4:40p, January 14, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County's new state senator Amy Nicole Grady on her first days on the job in Charleston, 4:10p, January 15, 2021.

Interview with Hoppy Kerchival, host of MetroNews "Talkline" program, on what to expect from this year's state legislative session starting next month, 4:40p, January 15, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on how the COVID-19 vaccine waiting list is continuing to grow, 4:10p, January 18, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Sheriff Ross Millinger on last week's major drug bust in the county, 4:40p, January 18, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on the new marina proposed for Riverfront Park, 4:10p, January 19, 2021.

Interview with Luke Swiney, Principal at Ravenswood High School, on having students back in the classroom this week, 4:40p, January 19, 2021.

Interview with Denise Toler of Jackson General Hospital on the latest COVID rules and restrictions currently in place at the hospital, 4:10p, January 20, 2021.

Interview with Marsha Humphrey, President of Main Street Ripley, about the group's plans for 2021, 4:40p, January 20, 2021.

Interview with Ripley High School Principal Jimmy Fraiser on the thoughts of students as they return to the classrooms, 4:10p, January 21, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on this being the time for gardeners to make their plans for the coming growing season, 4:40p, January 21, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Auditor J.D. McCuskey on what it's going to take to get the two political parties working together again, 4:10p, January 22, 2021.

Interview with Mark Curtis, Chief Political Correspondent for WOWK-TV, on the governor's aspirations for the state in 2021, 4:40p, January 22, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the growing waiting list for COVID-19 vaccinations in the county, 4:10p, January 25, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Superintendent of Jackson County Schools, on the continuation of remote learning despite the upgrade of the county COVID status, 4:40p, January 25, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood native Jared Hunt on his new role in the state capital, 4:10p, January 26, 2021.

Interview with Ripley native Jeff Waybright on another term as the Chief of Staff in the State Auditor's office, 4:40p, January 26, 2021.

Interview with Tom Wagner, Vice-President of Winterplace Ski Resort, on how the resorts around the state are dealing with the COVID-19 pandemic, 4:10p, January 27, 2021.

Interview with Melissa Litton, Education Coordinator at the Cedar Lakes Conference Center, on arts and crafts events coming in February, 4:40p, January 27, 2021.

Interview with House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on his priority items for the upcoming legislative session, 4:10p, January 28, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent John David Johnson on winter pest control, 4:40p, January 28, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County's representative to the West Virginia State Senate, Amy Nicole Grady, on her aspirations for the coming legislative session, 4:10p, January 29, 2021.

Interview with Denise Toler from Jackson General Hospital on the importance of continuing to visit with one's doctor in the current health climate, 4:40p, January 29, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the growing list of county residents seeking the COVID-19 vaccine, 4:10p, February 1, 2021.

Interview with Julie Turley, sign language interpreter for Governor Jim Justice's media briefings, talks about the experience, 4:40p, February 1, 2021.

Interview with Jimmy Fraiser, Principal at Ripley High School, on the continuing challenges facing teachers and students due to the pandemic, 4:10p, February 2, 2021.

Interview with Jennifer Casto, sign language interpreter for Governor Jim Justice's media briefings, on the experience of the last 10 months during the pandemic, 4:40p, February 2, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Jackson County School Superintendent, on how snow days are really no longer snow days, 4:10p, February 3, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on the postponement of another event in Jackson County due to COVID-19, 4:40p, February 3, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood High School Principal Luke Swiney on going forward as the school begins the second semester, 4:10p, February 4, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on winter pruning, 4:40p, February 4, 2021.

Interview with Susan Jones, a counselor at Ripley Middle School, on the challenges facing counselors in the age of COVID, 4:10p, February 5, 2021.

Interview with Shawn Cassell of Snowshoe Ski Resort on how the season has gone as skiing reaches the midpoint of the season, 4:40p, February 5, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the county finally receiving dosages of the COVID-19 vaccine, 4:10p, February 8, 2021.

Interview with Brad McElhinney of West Virginia MetroNews on changes to expect for this year's legislative session in Charleston, starting this week, 4:40p, February 8, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County representative to the West Virginia House of Delegates Steve Westfall on how this legislative session will be different with COVID-19 protocols, 4:10p, February 9, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Treasurer Riley Moore on the contest they are conducting for the 529 College Savings Plan, 4:40p, February 9, 2021.

Interview with Mark Curtis, Chief Political Correspondent for WOWK-TV, on the governor's State of the State address, 4:10p, February 10, 2021.

Interview with Frank Miller from the Parchment Conference Center on an event they held last week that brought the community together, 4:40p, February 10, 2021.

Interview with Amy Nicole Grady, Jackson County representative to the West Virginia State Senate, on her first day in the legislature and her thoughts on the governor's State of the State address, 4:10p, February 11, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Agriculture Extension Agent John David Johnson on this being the right time to trip fruit trees, 4:40p, February 11, 2021.

Interview with Mitch Carmichael on his being nominated by Governor Justice for the cabinet-level position of Secretary of Economic Development, 4:10, February 12, 2021.

Interview with House of Delegates member Steve Westfall on his thoughts about the governor's proposal to phase out the state income tax, 4:40p, February 12, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the arrival of additional COVID-19 vaccine in the county, 4:10p, February 15, 2021.

Interview with Byrd White, West Virginia Secretary of Transportation, on the work of the Department of Highways snowplow drivers during the current stretch of winter weather, 4:40p, February 15, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates member Steve Westfall on how things are moving quickly in this year's legislative session, 4:10p, February 16, 2021.

Interview with Ann Ali, Communications Director for the West Virginia House of Delegates, on the best way for the public to get information on what is occurring at this year's legislative session, 4:40p, February 16, 2021.

Interview with Phil Moyer of AEP on efforts to restore power in Jackson County in the wake of the winter storm, 4:10p, February 17, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Sheriff Ross Millinger on safety measures to keep in mind in the storm recovery, 4:40p, February 17, 2021.

Interview with Phil Moyer of AEP on efforts to restore service in Jackson County, 4:10p, February 18, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on proper care of animals in the extreme cold, 4:40p, February 18, 2021.

Interview with Phil Moyer from American Electric Power on how it may be next week before some customers see a return of their power, 4:10p, February 19, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates member Steve Westfall on the fast-tracking of bills in this year's legislative session and whether that is a good thing or not, 4:40p, February 19, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on this week's COVID-19 vaccine schedule in the county, 4:10p, February 22, 2021.

Interview with Phil Moyer of American Electric Power on the status on reconnections in the county, 4:40p, February 22, 2021.

Interview with Phil Moyer of American Electric Power on the progress on getting power back up for all Jackson County customers, 4:10p, February 23, 2021.

Interview with Ann Ali, Communications Director for the West Virginia House of Delegates, on her new position, 4:40p, February 23, 2021.

Interview with Denise Toler of WVU Medicine-Jackson General Hospital, on the hospital's role in this week's COVID-19 vaccine clinic in Jackson County, 4:10p, February 24, 2021.

Interview with Marsha Hunt, President of Main Street Ripley, on the governor's increase in occupancy rates for restaurants and retail outlets, 4:40p, February 24, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Treasurer Riley Moore on a new savings plan being considered by the legislature, 4:10p, February 25, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on this being the time to plant potatoes, 4:40p, February 25, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on pending legislation that could affect area businesses, 4:10p, February 26, 2021.

Interview with Greg Atkinson of Tudor's and Gino's on the affect the governor's new capacity limits will have on restaurants and retail businesses in the state, 4:40p, February 26, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the increasing number of COVID vaccinations the county is receiving, 4:10p, March 1, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Senator Amy Nicole Grady explaining her vote on some education legislation, 4:40p, March 1, 2021.

Interview with National Weather Service meteorologist Tony Edwards on what it takes to become a weather spotter for the service, 4:10p, March 2, 2021.

Interview with Mark Roberts, Chief Political Correspondent for WOWK-TV, on whether there have been any surprises during the current legislative session, 4:40p, March 2, 2021.

Interview with Ripley High School principal Jimmy Fraiser about getting back to normal school activities, 4:10p, March 3, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on Jackson County's celebration of its 190th birthday, 4:40p, March 3, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Superintendent of Jackson County Schools, on the increasing number of in-person instruction in the district, 4:10p, March 4, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent John David Johnson on issues area cattlemen need to be aware of, 4:40p, March 4, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Sheriff Ross Mellinger on his decision to switch from the Democrat to Republican party, 4:10p, March 5, 2021.

Interview with Buddy Stemple, CEO of Constellium of Ravenswood, on how the plant is assisting NASA in its goal of sending astronauts back to the moon and to Mars, 4:40p, March 5, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on this weeks' vaccination clinic and the progress they are making, 4:10p, March 8, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Treasurer Riley Moore on a move to set term limits for state officials, 4:40p, March 8, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on the governor's tax reduction proposal, 4:10p, March 9, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Sheriff Ross Mellinger on his department's participation in the statewide click or ticket safety campaign, 4:40p, March 9, 2021.

Interview with Marsha Humphrey, President of Main Street Ripley, on how the relaxing of COVID-19 restrictions will help area businesses, 4:10p, March 10, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on how the decrease in COVID-19 restrictions could lead to more fair and festivals this year, 4:40p, March 10, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on farmers beginning the plowing of their fields, 5:40p, March 11, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on how the loosening of COVID-19 restrictions is helping local businesses, 5:40p, March 12, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, reflecting on one year of the COVID-19 pandemic, 4:10p, March 15, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia Senator Amy Nicole Grady on National Women's Month and her role as a leader to students, 4:40p, March 15, 2021.

Interview with Jackson County Commission President Dick Waybright on the stimulus money that is coming to the county, 4:10p, March 16, 2021.

Interview with Mitch Carmichael on his new position as Cabinet Secretary of Economic Development in West Virginia, 4:40p, March 16, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on the stimulus moneys received by the city, 4:10p, March 17, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on the finalizing of plans for the city's 4th of July celebration, 4:40p, March 17, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia Commissioner of Tourism Chelsea Ruby on what her becoming part of the governor's cabinet means to the state's economy, 4:10p, March 18, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, on what area cattlemen need to be concentrating on currently, 4:40p, March 18, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on the coming week's COVID-19 vaccination schedule, 4:10p, March 22, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Treasurer Riley Moore on a new vocational school student savings plan, 4:40p, March 22, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on the COVID-19 situation in the legislature and the governor's tax proposal, 4:10p, March 23, 2021.

Interview with Mark Curtis, Chief Political Correspondent at WOWK-TV, on the security situation at the state legislature, 4:40p, March 23, 2021.

Interview with Denise Toler from WVU Medicine-Jackson General Hospital on what's new at the hospital, 4:10p, March 24, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on plans for the Mountain State Arts and Crafts Festival, 4:40p, March 24, 2021.

Interview with Blaine Hess, Jackson County Schools' Superintendent, on the governor's decision to do away with the colored county map, 4:10p, March 25, 2021.

Interview with John David Johnson, Jackson County Agricultural Extension Agent, about farmers getting into the field in this current stretch of good weather, 4:40p, March 25, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood mayor Josh Miller on the return of fairs and festivals come May 1, 4:10p, March 26, 2021.

Interview with Ravenswood High School Principal Luke Swiney on activities starting back up at the school, 4:40p, March 26, 2021.

Interview with Amy Haskins, Director of the Jackson County Health Department, on this week's COVID vaccination schedule, 4:10p, March 29, 2021.

Interview with Greg Atkinson of Tudor's Biscuit World and Gino's Spaghetti House on how the governor's lessening of restrictions for restaurants is helping to increase business, 4:40p, March 29, 2021.

Interview with Jimmy Fraiser, Principal at Ripley High School, on getting schools back to normal, 4:10p, March 30, 2021.

Interview with Hoppy Kerchival of the MetroNews Network on the West Virginia Scholars program, 4:40p, March 30, 2021.

Interview with West Virginia State Senator Amy Nicole Grady on the experience of her first legislative session, 4:10p, March 31, 2021.

Interview with Mike Rubin, Director of the Ripley Convention and Visitors' Bureau, on an upcoming kayak series sponsored by Main Street Ripley, 4:40p, March 31, 2021.

Jackson County Connection (2 minutes in length)

Brian McCommon on accomplishments by the Ravenswood Parks and Recreation Department in 2020, 7:32a, January 1, 2021.

A report on the residual effects of loneliness as a consequence of lockdowns due to the pandemic, 7:32a, January 4, 2021.

A look at Ohio's bipartisan redistricting commission, 7:32a, January 5, 2021.

Tom Susman reports on upcoming craft workshops scheduled for the Cedar Lakes Conference Center, 7:32a, January 6, 2021.

Comments by U.S. Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell opposing efforts to decertify electoral college vote, 7:32a, January 7, 2021.

Brian McCommon on the structure of the West Virginia National Guard and the Guard's new commanding general, 7:32a, January 8, 2021.

West Virginia House of Delegates representative Joshua Higgingbotham on what to expect at the legislative session opens this week, 7:32a, January 11, 2021.

A look at an Ohio program designed to curb drug abuse in the wake of the pandemic, 7:32a, January 12, 2021.

Dick Waybright, President of the Jackson County Commission on the status of the county as commissioners prepare for their first meeting of the year, 7:32a, January 13, 2021.

A report on the need for additional COVID-19 stimulus moneys from Congress, 7:32a, January 14, 2021.

Brian McCommon on shopping for the best home loan interest rates, 7:32a, January 15, 2021.

Tom Susman reports on the governor's decision to reopen schools throughout the state to in-person learning, 7:32a, January 18, 2021.

Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on the proposal for construction of a new marina in the city, 7:32a, January 19, 2021.

Mark Curtis, Chief Political Correspondent for WOWK-TV on the significance of Presidential inaugurations, 7:32a, January 20, 2021.

Excerpts from President Joe Biden's Inaugural Address, 7:32a, January 21, 2021.

Brian McCommon on changes made to the inauguration of West Virginia Governor Jim Justice due to COVID concerns, 7:32a, January 22, 2021.

Tom Susman reports on the current state of the pandemic in Jackson County, necessitating the closure of local schools, 7:32a, January 25, 2021.

West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall on what the legislature can do to alleviate the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic in the state, 7:32a, January 26, 2021.

A report on efforts in the state of Ohio to raise the minimum wage, 7:32a, January 27, 2021.

U.S. Senator Shelley Moore Capito's questioning of President Biden's Commerce Secretary nominee on the prioritization of broadband expansion in rural areas, 7:32a, January 28, 2021.

Brian McCommon explains the ins and outs of real estate appraisals, 7:32a, January 29, 2021.

Tom Susman reports on the granting of licenses to two Ravenswood outlets for the future sale of medical marijuana, 7:32a, February 1, 2021.

Ravenswood Mayor Josh Miller on a new state law that may require the city to raise water and sewer rates, 7:32a, February 2, 2021.

A report on the large number of Ohio and West Virginia residents on Medicaid, 7:32a, February 3, 2021.

Stephanie McCoy, Administrator of WVU Medicine-Jackson General Hospital, on the hospital being recognized for its expertise and patient satisfaction, 7:32a, February 4, 2021.

A report on the increase of the prison population in West Virginia, while other states see the number of inmates shrinking, 7:32a, February 8, 2021.

Tom Susman on the growing availability of COVID-19 vaccines in West Virginia, 7:32a, February 9, 2021.

A report on the dangers that come with medical marijuana, 7:32a, February 10, 2021.

A review of West Virginia Governor Jim Justice's State of the State address, 7:32a, February 11, 2021.

A report on concerns that the Ohio legislature isn't taking proper precautions against the spread of COVID-19, 7:32a, February 15, 2021.

Tom Susman previews a West Virginia political poll commissioned by WMOV to be announced Tuesday afternoon, 7:32a, February 16, 2021.

Walter Smittel, Jackson County Emergency Services Director, on the effort to re-establish power in the county in the wake of Monday's ice storm, 7:32a, February 17, 2021.

Tom Susman on the first look at results of Republican party sentiments in the state of West Virginia, 7:32a, February 18, 2021.

Brian McCommon on home appraisal integrity, 7:32a, February 19, 2021.

West Virginia Governor Jim Justice on his proposal to eliminate the state income tax, 6:32a, February 23, 2021.

A report of concerns about the possible effects of elimination of the income tax in West Virginia, especially to social programs, 7:32a, February 24, 2021.

West Virginia Senator Mark Maynard on his advocacy for the development of off-road and ATV trails as a means to increase tourism in the state, 7:32a, February 25, 2021.

Brian McCommon on the joys, and occasional pitfalls, of home ownership, 7:32a, February 26, 2021.

Tom Susman reports on a bill being considered by the West Virginia legislature designed to speed up the development of charter schools in the state, 7:32a, March 2, 2021.

A report on what West Virginia hopes to gain from an infrastructure bill being considered by Congress, 7:32a, March 3, 2021.

West Virginia House of Delegates representative Steve Westfall discusses legislation to fund the Cedar Lake Conference Center, 7:32a, March 4, 2021.

Brian McCommon reports on a leadership change at the West Virginia Air National Guard, 7:32a, March 5, 2021.

West Virginia House of Delegates representative Jonathan Pinson on his efforts to avoid the closure of Lincoln State Hospital, 7:32a, March 8, 2021.

Charles Wilfong, President of the West Virginia Farm Bureau, on their opposition to efforts by gas producers to undercut the value of mineral rights for farmers, 7:32a, March 9, 2021.

Tom Susman on the major components of the tax reform bill introduced by West Virginia Governor Jim Justice, 7:32a, March 10, 2021.

U.S. Senator Shelley Moore Capito talks of her concerns about the COVID-19 relief bill passed by Congress, 7:32a, March 11, 2021.

A report on the resurrection of Obama-care and it's affect of some Ohioans, 7:32a, March 15, 2021.

West Virginia House of Delegates member Johnathan Pinson on legislation designed to support standardized training for law enforcement officers in the state, 7:32a, March 16, 2021.

A report on the increase of COVID-19 vaccinations available in Ohio and West Virginia, 7:32a, March 17, 2021.

West Virginia State Senator Amy Nicole Grady on her support of legislation creating educational savings accounts, 7:32a, March 18, 2021.

Brian McCommon on the annual increase in the housing market come the spring, 7:32a, March 19, 2021.

West Virginia House of Delegates representative Joshua Higginbotham on his bill that would require vision assessments for grammar school students, 7:32a, March 22, 2021.

Ravenswood businessman John Casey on his impressions of the governor's town hall event on restructuring taxes in the state, 7:32a, March 23, 2021.

U.S. Senator Shelley Moore Capito on what she saw on her fact-finding trip to the U.S. southern border with Mexico, 7:32a, March 24, 2021.

U.S. Senator Shelley Moore Capito on federal legislative proposals on infrastructure improvements, 7:32a, March 25, 2021.

Brian McCommon with an update on the latest accomplishments by the Ravenswood Parks and Recreation Department, 7:32a, March 26, 2021.

Tom Susman reports on proposed state legislation that would allow off-road vehicles to make use of ATV and bicycle trails in state parks, 7:32a, March 29, 2021.

West Virginia House of Delegates representative Joshua Higginbotham on his request to the governor for special COVID relief for some citizen groups, 7:32a, March 30, 2021.

A report on a new program in the state of Ohio designed to ensure water quality, 7:32a, March 31, 2021.

