

OUR WORLD WITH BLACK ENTERPRISE

Show Synopsis Episode 77

Show No. 77
Week of 10/12/09

Emmy-award winning actress Lynn Whitfield tells us why breast cancer prevention is personal and why she's the national spokeswoman for the Taking Charge of Breast Cancer Initiative...She's our headliner.

Plus in our roundtable discussion, Black Hollywood is creating and distributing its own projects. We talk about the rise and need for independent films with Lindsey Christian, director of the new independent film "Jazz in The Diamond District"; actor Clifton Powell, who also stars in the film; and Jeff Friday, Founder & CEO of The Film Life and founder of the American Black Film Festival, which is in its 13th year.

And, in this week's Slice of Life, we visit the first sugar free school in the nation with Dr. Vivian Sanders Butler, former principal of Browns Mill Elementary School in Lithonia, Georgia and founder and CEO of Ennovy, Inc., a behavior management resource company.
