

KWMU 90.7 ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS PUBLIC RADIO QUARTERLY ISSUES / PROGRAMS LIST

2018-07-01 to 2018-09-30

1. Arts
2. Economy
3. Education
4. Environment
5. Government
6. Health/Welfare
7. Local Culture
8. Politics
9. Race
10. Religion
11. Science/Tech

Arts

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Sound Bites: Barbecue	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 02, 2018	12:37 PM	10:37 PM	23:00	In our Sound Bites segments produced with Sauce Magazine, we explore barbecue in St. Louis.
Muny Opera	Morning Edition	July 02, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	In the wake of the recent protest at The Muny, the discussion continues, with national publications taking sides and local theater-makers of color voicing disapproval at the Muny's production as well as what they see as dismissive responses by their peers, which, they say, reveal a long-simmering divide.
Union Avenue Opera	SLOTA - Seg. C	July 06, 2018	12:40 PM	10:40 PM	14:00	A discussion about Union Avenue Opera's season-opening production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S Pinafore."
Musician profile	Morning Edition	July 06, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Profile of a 21-year-old musician who is getting international recognition for her music. She is originally from St. Louis.
Arts as Healing	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 09, 2018	12:37 PM	10:37 PM	23:00	A discussion about the efforts of the Arts as Healing Foundation to provide therapeutic art lessons and other educational activities to cancer patients and others with chronic illnesses.
Unique Places to Visit	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 09, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	37:00	A discussion with St. Louis based travel writer Bill Clevlen about his new book on uniquely American places to visit, "100 Places to Visit in America Before You Die."
Ancient Mississippi house at SIUE	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 10, 2018	12:37 PM	10:37 PM	23:00	A discussion about the uncovering of an ancient Mississippian-era house on SIUE's campus.
Recording Industry Documentary	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 11, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	32:00	A discussion with Justin Fisher about his documentary "Gateway Sound" exploring the state of the recording industry in St. Louis and elsewhere in light of music streaming, slumping record sales and easily accessible recording technology, in advance of its screening at Cinema St. Louis' Filmmakers Showcase.
	SLOTA - Seg. C	July 11, 2018	12:43 PM	10:43 PM	17:00

Insight Theatre Company						A discussion about Insight Theatre Company's production of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest."
2018 St. Louis Filmmakers Showcase	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 11, 2018	12:32 PM	10:32 PM	11:00	A discussion with Cinema St. Louis artistic Director Chris Clark about this year's St. Louis Filmmakers Showcase.
Southern Cooking	SLOTA - Seg. C	July 13, 2018	12:28 PM	10:28 PM	32:00	A discussion with St. Louis native Joe Johnston about his new book, "Grits to Glory: How Southern Cookin Got So Good."
Parallel Chords	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 16, 2018	12:37 PM	10:37 PM	23:00	A discussion about Catherine Dudley-Rose's feature film "Parallel Chords" and her process in expanding it from the short that was screened 3 years ago.
Pony Express	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 17, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	38:00	A discussion with Jim DeFelice about his book "West Like Lightning: The Brief, Legendary Ride of the Pony Express."
Impact of children's books	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 17, 2018	12:38 PM	10:38 PM	22:00	A discussion about the impact children's books can have on young impressionable minds featuring the authors of two books defying expectations of gender and race.
Universities Grapple with Increased Attention to Title IX Concerns	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 18, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	46:00	A discussion about the ways in which area colleges and universities are responding to renewed focus on issues related to sexual assault, harassment and discrimination.
Cokie Roberts	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 19, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	49:00	A discussion with author and political commentator Cokie Roberts about the role of pioneering women and their significance today.
Jenifer Lewis book/event	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 26, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	34:00	A discussion with actress, comedian, singer and activist Jenifer Lewis about the release of her book "Mother of Black Hollywood: A Memoir" and her homecoming appearance on Saturday, July 28.
theater	Morning Edition	July 26, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	An interview with the Repertory Theatre of St. Louis newly appointed artistic director Hana Sharif about her theater background, why she is coming to St. Louis, what challenges she expects to face and what she envisions doing to meet them.
COCA theater	Morning Edition	July 27, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	COCA presents the show West Side Story using white students to play Puerto Rican roles. This comes a few weeks after protests at the Muny over inappropriate casting.

LouFest	Morning Edition	August 05, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	When local event promoter Listen Live entertainment announced the cancellation of LouFest through a tweet at quarter to three on Wednesday morning, festival ticket-holders, vendors, and musicians set to perform were left to sort through the pieces.
Herb Alpert	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 06, 2018	12:40 PM	10:40 PM	20:00	A discussion with trumpeter, composer and artist Herb Alpert about his music and his art, including his exhibition of abstract mixed-media paintings and bronze sculptures that will be on display at The Grandel.
St. Lou Fringe Festival	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 08, 2018	12:42 PM	10:42 PM	18:00	A discussion about the 2018 St. Lou Fringe Festival.
International music	Morning Edition	August 09, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Dozens of people who moved to St. Louis from around the world will perform some music of their homelands at the Pulitzer Arts Foundation.
Diversity in Comedy	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 14, 2018	12:39 PM	10:39 PM	21:00	A discussion about the St. Louis comedy scene and the diversity represented and cultivated by that.
Weill Opera Staged by Union Avenue Opera	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 16, 2018	12:35 PM	10:35 PM	25:00	A discussion about Union Avenue Opera's production of Kurt Weill's "Lost in the Stars."
Hip Hop	Morning Edition	August 16, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	This year marks the 30th anniversary of two landmark hip-hop albums. Straight Outta Compton by NWA and It take a Nation of Millions to Hold Us Back by Public Enemy. Several musical professionals discuss the importance that this album has on pop culture and what it meant for black history.
Behind the Headlines: Public Housing in East St. Louis	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 17, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	32:00	A Behind the Headlines discussion about public housing in East St. Louis.
Brandon Bieber	Morning Edition	August 20, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Profile of Broadway and touring actor/dancer and St. Louis native Brandon Bieber who is coming home to direct the St. Lou Fringe musical comedy "Race Cars and Romance," which opens Aug. 23.
Colombian Dance	Morning Edition	August 24, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	St. Louisan Carmen Sofia Dence, a native of Barranquilla, Colombia, formed Grupo Atlantico dance company 25 years ago to preserve her culture and that of other ethnicities.
	SLOTA - Seg. B		12:38 PM	10:38 PM	22:00

Denise Thimes Remembers Aretha Franklin		August 28, 2018				A discussion with vocalist Denise Thimes about her experiences with Aretha Franklin as the world says goodbye to her.
Big Muddy Blues Festival	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 29, 2018	12:39 PM	10:39 PM	21:00	A discussion about the 2018 Big Muddy Blues Festival (that takes place over Labor Day weekend).
Daniel Estrin	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 03, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	60:00	A discussion with NPR's International Correspondent in Jerusalem and St. Louis native Daniel Estrin about the decade he has spent as a journalist in the Middle East (recorded June 13, 2018 before an audience in the UMSL at Grand Center Community Room).
Art With a Purpose	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 12, 2018	12:19 PM	10:19 PM	19:00	A discussion about two organizations participating in this weekend's Mosaics Fine Art Festival in St. Charles, one that promotes creativity and assistance for those with substance abuse disorders and mental illness and the other that assists those with development disabilities.
Celebrating Boulevard's 100th Issue	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 13, 2018	12:36 PM	10:36 PM	24:00	A discussion about the literary magazine's nearly 35-year history of publishing excellent works of fiction, poetry and nonfiction by both luminaries and emerging writers.
LouFest	Morning Edition	September 13, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	As LouFest organizers assured the public that everything was fine in the frantic week before the event, word leaking out behinds the scenes and the reality of the status of the Forest Park site itself told a much different story.
Regional Arts Commission Initiative	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 14, 2018	12:39 PM	10:39 PM	21:00	A discussion about the Regional Arts Commission's year-long, multi-phased community planning initiative.
Bookfest St. Louis Is Back	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 17, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	40:00	A discussion about the region's vibrant writing community, the long journey that accompanies many a first novel and the Central West End's jam-packed, second annual Bookfest St. Louis.
SLSO New Season and Transition	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 18, 2018	12:40 PM	10:40 PM	20:00	A discussion about the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra's new season and a talk about the transition period before Stéphane Denève takes over next season as music director.
St. Louis Native Details World War I Prison Breaks	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 19, 2018	12:22 PM	10:22 PM	38:00	A discussion with St. Louis native Neal Bascomb about his book, "The Escape Artists: A Band of Daredevil Pilots and the Greatest Prison Break of the Great War."
Immigration	Morning Edition		5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00

		September 20, 2018				Migrant farmers around Missouri and Illinois are facing difficulties with ICE. Many of the immigration problems they face could be fought with a lawyer's help but most of those lawyers are based in St. Louis or Chicago, out of reach for most of the farmers.
The Rep's Evita	SLOTA - Seg. C	September 21, 2018	12:34 PM	10:34 PM	26:00	A discussion about The Rep's production of "Evita" and about the company's last year for artistic director Steven Woolf.
Theater	Morning Edition	September 27, 2018	5:45 a.m	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Slaying Dragons, a St. Louis theater company focused on mental health, will stage the classic play "A Hatful of Rain," about the devastation of opioid addiction, Sept. 28-29. The 1956 play was last performed in St. Louis shortly after it was written, when morphine abuse was becoming well-known, and its messages resonate today with the rise of addiction to prescription painkillers like Percocet and OxyContin.
St. Louis Chamber Chorus Explores Friendship	SLOTA	September 28, 2018	12:32 PM	10:32 PM	28:00	A discussion with St. Louis Chamber Chorus' artistic director Philip Barnes and Latvian composer Eriks Esenvalds about the high-profile composer's world premiere of a piece commissioned on the theme of 'friendship.'
BTH: Reflecting on Anita Hill Hearings	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 28, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	14:00	A Behind the Headlines discussion with former STLPR editor Margaret Wolf Freivogel, who covered the Clarence Thomas confirmation hearings.

Economy

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Rural life	Morning Edition	July 12, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Small towns in Iowa have figured out how to reverse brain drain.
Big business	Morning Edition	July 13, 2018	5:45	7:45	4:00	July 14 is the 10-year anniversary of In-Bev acquiring AnheuserBusch. An exploration of how the takeover another industry in St. Louis ... advertising.
Great Recession	Morning Edition	July 16, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	An interview with Bob Chapman, a St. Louis man who owns the Barry-Wehmiller packaging plants. He adopted the slogan "Everybody Matters" and found creative ways to avoid laying off workers during the recession
	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 25, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	39:00

A New MetroLink Stop						A discussion about what the new Cortex MetroLink Station and other plans in the works mean for transit in the region.
Golf	Morning Edition	August 06, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	The head groundskeeper and a small army of workers, interns and volunteers have been working around the clock to prepare Bellerive Country Club in Town and Country for the 100th PGA Championship.
Airport Privatization	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 20, 2018	12:35 PM	10:35 PM	13:00	A discussion about the potential privatization of St. Louis Lambert International Airport.
What's Next for the Delmar Loop	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 21, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	39:00	A discussion about the state of the Loop as it welcomes new leadership, awaits an operating trolley and evolves along its eastern end.
Entrepreneurship and Micro Business	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 28, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	38:00	A discussion about the role of entrepreneurship and micro-business in the region and the services provided by the Grace Hill Womens Business Center to encourage it.
McKee Reportage	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 30, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	29:00	A discussion about recent STLPR reportage about developer Paul McKee's agreements with the City of St. Louis.
Great Recession	Morning Edition	September 21, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	We talk to millennials who graduated from college during the depth of the Great Recession and struggled to find jobs in their fields, or were hired as consultants without benefits
Surviving and Even Thriving as a Smaller Grocery Store	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 25, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	36:00	A discussion with three St. Louis grocers who manage to make a living and develop customer loyalty in an industry dominated by bigger companies.

Education

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
School funding	Morning Edition	July 03, 2018	5:45 am	7:45 am	4:00	The small Bunker School District in the northeastern Ozarks is owed millions of dollars from Doe Run, as the mining company fights its property tax assessment in Reynolds County. The school says the withholdings, plus legal fees, is draining the district's finances by nearly a million dollars a year.
St. Louis Teens Return to Kenya	SLOTA - Seg. C	August 10, 2018	12:53 PM	10:53 PM	07:00

						A discussion with STLPR reporter Ryan Delaney from Africa as he recently spent time in Kenya with Kenyan-born teens from St. Louis.
Ryan Delaney's Reportage from Africa	SLOTA - Seg. C	August 20, 2018	12:48 PM	10:48 PM	12:00	A discussion with STLPR reporter Ryan Delaney about his recent reportage from Africa.
Teacher shortage	Morning Edition	August 27, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Gov. Bruce Rauner signed several bills into law this month intended to alleviate the Illinois teacher shortage. But some teachers and union leaders doubt the measures are enough.
Kenyan students	Morning Edition	August 29, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	A group of six Kenyan children now living in north St. Louis County traveled to Kenya for two weeks in August. Some saw their ancestral home for the first time, others since they were infants. They built a school classroom and complete other service work.
History	Morning Edition	August 30, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	2:00	Before SLU can begin construction on its $50M science and technology building, the history department is digging into the site to find evidence of a Civil War encampment.
Successful Charter Schools	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 18, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	40:00	A discussion with leaders of three St. Louis charter schools about how they have achieved success.
Behind the Headlines: Charter Schools	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 28, 2018	12:14 PM	10:14 PM	11:00	A Behind the Headlines discussion with STLPR reporter Ryan Delaney about charter schools in the St. Louis area.

Environment

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Flooding	Morning Edition	July 30, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Twenty-five years after the great flood of 1993, we look at the science behind what caused the flood and what engineers and scientists think they can do to prevent another great flood.
Flooding	Morning Edition	July 31, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	A profile of a couple who nearly lost their home and work space during the great flood in Nona, MO.
Flooding	Morning Edition	August 01, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Businesses along the riverfront in St. Charles dodged a water bullet in 1993, especially when compared to areas like the Chesterfield Valley. Some of the lessons learned have led to new development and rapid population growth in the county.

Flooding	Morning Edition	August 02, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	The town of Valmeyer was completed relocated after being destroyed in the great flood of 1993. This year, there is a musical tribute to the town.
Flooding	Morning Edition	August 03, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Twenty-five years after the great flood of '93, scientists are still split over whether or another flood is possible. Some say the man made efforts to train the rivers may actually cause worse flooding.
Mississippi River Cities and Flooding	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 06, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	40:00	A discussion about how the Flood of '93 has changed the cities and towns along the Mississippi River.
Pesticide drift	Morning Edition	August 10, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	From getting rid of weeds and insects in your garden to growing a bumper corn crop, pesticides can help people get the most out of their plants. But there are issues with the chemicals. Sometimes they drift off course and may cause health problems.
River clean up	Morning Edition	August 26, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	The EPA last month released its plan for cleaning up portions of the Big River and other streams affected by historic lead mining in St. Francois County. The Missouri Coalition for the Environment and the Nature Conservancy say the plan is not aggressive enough to protect wildlife and want the EPA to use strategies that are less damaging to the environment.
Preservation	Morning Edition	August 30, 2018	5:47 a.m.	7:47 a.m.	2:00	As part of an effort to restore natural areas along the Upper Mississippi River, the Army Corps of Engineers is working on a $28 million project to improve the Clarence Cannon National Wildlife Refuge in northeast Missouri.
History of Climate	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 10, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	36:00	A discussion with historian Andrew Hurley about the history of climate and its impact on St. Louis.
Drought	Morning Edition	September 18, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Most of Missouri is still suffering from drought, despite recent rainfall from the remnants of a tropical storm. And the dry weather has been especially hard on agriculture - an industry key to Missouri's economy.
West Lake Landfill	Morning Edition	September 28, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	The final plan that the Environmental Protection Agency has for removing 70 percent of the radioactivity at the West Lake Landfill Superfund site differs from an earlier proposal. The long-awaited decision to remove World War

II nuclear waste will be followed by a cleanup process that will cost $205 million and take four and a half years to complete, one year sooner than the earlier plan. It also is less expensive.

Government

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Rare Copy of the Declaration of Independence	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 02, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	37:00	A discussion about the preservation and significance of Washington University Libraries' rare copy of the Declaration of Independence.
Supreme Court Nominee	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 10, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	37:00	A discussion about the implications of President Trump's nominee to fill Justice Anthony Kennedy's seat on the U.S. Supreme Court.
Behind the Headlines: VP Pence's Visit	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 20, 2018	12:26PM	10:26 PM	08:00	A discussion with STLPR reporter Jo Mannies about Vice President Mike Pence's visit to St. Louis.
Pros and Cons of Proposition A	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 27, 2018	12:26 PM	10:26 PM	34:00	An examination of both sides of Proposition A which will be on the August 7 ballot and if passed would make Missouri a "right to work" state.
Legal Roundtable	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 31, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	60:00	A discussion with a panel of legal experts about the U.S. Supreme Court in light of Justice Anthony Kennedy's resignation, municipal courts in the region four years after the death of Michael Brown in Ferguson and other current legal issues.
St. Louis County Prosecutor-elect Wesley Bell	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 09, 2018	12:40 PM	10:40 PM	20:00	A discussion with Ferguson councilman Wesley Bell who beat long-term incumbent Bob McCulloch to become the next prosecutor for St. Louis County.
Disappearing Data	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 20, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	35:00	A discussion about the importance of preserving data and other information resources, particularly in the public sector, that may be in danger of becoming inaccessible.
Illinois Issues Forum	SLOTA - Seg. C	August 24, 2018	12:40 PM	10:40 PM	20:00	An excerpt of the Illinois issues forum "Election 2018: Seeking Solutions" examining fiscal solutions to the prominent issues in the upcoming Illinois elections and exploring why people are leaving Illinois (recorded August 16 in Alton, IL).

Northside Regeneration	Morning Edition	August 28, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	2:00	Paul McKees Northside Regeneration initiative has changed multiple times over the last 10 years, but the biggest change came with the signing of the "Future Assurances Agreement" in 2016. The cut the Board of Alderman out of the process.
Northside Regeneration	Morning Edition	August 28, 2018	5:47 a.m.	7:47 a.m.	2:00	Agreements between the city and McKee set responsibilities and accountability checks for both sides, including an independent ombudsman, a database of property complaints, a new building inspector and annual updates of property lists. From our reporting so far, little to none of this was done.
Justice Sonia Sotomayor	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 11, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	35:00	An excerpt of Don Marsh's on-stage conversation with U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor.
Criminal justice	Morning Edition	September 12, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	The Bail Project aims to have teams of “bail disruptors” working to free people from jail in 40 cities across the country. The nonprofit’s first local team got started in St. Louis in February and has posted bail for nearly 700 people so far. In addition to bailing people out, they are working to influence stakeholders in the criminal justice system to end cash bail.
Circuit Attorney Kim Gardner	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 14, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	39:00	A discussion with St. Louis Circuit Attorney Kim Gardner about pressing issues.
Former FBI Director James Comey	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 19, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	22:00	A discussion with former FBI Director James Comey about news of the day. Comey will be appearing in St. Louis next month.
Computer Crimes and Digital Forensics	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 20, 2018	12:33 PM	10:33 PM	27:00	We’ll talk about what steps local law-enforcement agencies are taking to combat computer-related crimes and to conduct digital forensics.
Legal Roundtable	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 26, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	60:00	Our monthly Legal Roundtable of experts has in-depth analysis of various legal topics and key issues in the news locally and nationally.

Health/Welfare

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 03, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	45:00

Efforts to combat regional human trafficking							A discussion about the ways in which regional human trafficking is being addressed including recent legislation, police training and recovery programs.
Rural health	Morning Edition	July 09, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00		The hospital in rural Kennett, Missouri officially closed in early June. That left thousands scrambling for medical care. It's the latest rural hospital to close in the U.S.
Plant-based living	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 12, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	44:00		A discussion about plant-based diets and lifestyles as well as the upcoming first St. Louis plant-based summit July 14.
Chess	Morning Edition	July 17, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00		Two St. Louis homeless shelters, Biddle House and Peter & Paul, have started a chess program that pairs residents with local volunteers.
Immigration	Morning Edition	July 19, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00		A profile of two women studying for their citizenship test through a low-literacy program at the St. Louis International Institute. The story demonstrates hurdles of becoming a citizen when never having gone to school in your native country.
Behind the Headlines: Wash U Student Discrimination in Clayton	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 20, 2018	12:12 PM	10:12 PM	14:00		A Behind the Headlines discussion about one of the top news stories this week involving the discrimination by Clayton police of 10 Washington University freshmen.
Duck Boat Tragedy at Table Rock Lake	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 20, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	12:00		An update on the tragic sinking of a duck boat on Table Rock Lake in Branson, killing 17 people.
The History and Science of Vaccination	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 23, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	41:00		A discussion with Michael Kinch, author of "Between Hope and Fear: A History of Vaccines and Human Immunity."
Recreation	Morning Edition	July 23, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00		Wonderland Camp helps children with disabilities from the St. Louis area experience summer outdoor activities like boating and rock climbing.
Cultural Leadership Honors Emmett Till's Legacy	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 24, 2018	12:28 PM	10:28 PM	16:00		A discussion about how a local organization, Cultural Leadership, honors Emmett Till's legacy in light of the news that the U.S. Department of Justice is reopening the investigation into his murder that occurred in 1955.
Living Kidney Donation	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 25, 2018	12:39 PM	10:39 PM	21:00		A discussion about how living organ donors, and those who care for both donors and recipients, are changing and saving lives.

Documentary film	Morning Edition	July 25, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	An interview with the maker of a documentary about the Homer G. Phillips hospital in the Ville neighborhood. It is being screened at multiple St. Louis venues this summer.
Opioid Epidemic: Lawsuit and Prevention	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 07, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	39:00	A discussion about a new lawsuit that targets multiple aspects of the opioid epidemic and about the efforts of NCADA to combat misuse.
Retirement	Morning Edition	August 08, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	More than a third of Americans between the ages of 65 and 70 are still in the workforce. For some, it is a simple matter of making ends meet. But for others, continuing to work helps maintain social connections and a sense of purpose.
Kidney dialysis	Morning Edition	August 14, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Kidney failure is an expensive problem in the U.S. Dialysis - which removes toxins from the blood - costs taxpayers billions of dollars every year. But there is a cheaper dialysis option, that's better for a lot of patients. It is called peritoneal dialysis.
Fathers' Child Support Issues	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 15, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	38:00	A discussion about resources for fathers who have legitimate issues meeting their child support obligations.
Housing	Morning Edition	August 17, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	At least 7,000 people are on the St. Clair County Housing Authority waiting list for Housing Choice Vouchers. Many of East St. Louis Housing Authority tenants are on that list. But people may not qualify for vouchers as long as they live in public housing.
Antibiotics	Morning Edition	August 21, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Pediatricians have become more cautious about giving antibiotics to preterm infants. Doctors have long given antibiotics to preemies to prevent infection, but research shows that the practice could contribute to increasing antibiotic-resistant pathogens and potentially disrupt a the microbiome.
Grandparenting	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 23, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	36:00	A discussion about the role grandparents can play in the lives of their grandchildren and one couple's experiences travelling with their grandchildren.
Incarceration	Morning Edition	August 23, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Through a series of in-depth interviews, SLU professor Shannon Cooper-Sadlo is working to understand how formerly incarcerated moms negotiate the trauma and stress of imprisonment and prolonged separation from their children.
	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 24, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	33:00	A discussion with two reporters from the Belleville News-Democrat on MetroLink safety.

Behind the Headlines:
MetroLink Safety

Addressing
Maternal and
Infant Mortality
Rates Among At-
Risk Women

SLOTA - Seg. B

August 27,
2018

12:36 PM

10:36 PM

24:00

A discussion about how Ferguson-based Jamaa Birth Village is seeking community-driven solutions to a nationwide health issue.

Coping with Difficult Work
Environments

SLOTA - Seg. A

August 29,
2018

12:00 PM

10:00 PM

39:00

A discussion about dealing with workplace bullying, cruelty and other behaviors that can contribute to a toxic job situation.

Shelley vs.
Kraemer 70th
Anniversary

SLOTA - Seg. C

August 30,
2018

12:48 PM

10:48 PM

12:00

A discussion about the most recent episode of We Live Here that takes a look at the 70th anniversary of the landmark Shelley vs. Kraemer case with descendants of people involved in the case.

Smoking

Morning Edition

August 31,
2018

5:45 a.m.

7:45 a.m.

4:00

When the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development implemented a no-smoking rule for residents of public housing in late July, the policy was seen as good news by some residents. People with health problems were particularly happy that their buildings would be smoke free. But for longtime smokers, the change is a challenge

Living with Breast
Cancer, Part One

SLOTA - Seg. B

September
04, 2018

12:36 PM

10:36 PM

24:00

A discussion about how one local woman has begun documenting her treatment journey and opening up about her experience since receiving a difficult diagnosis two months ago.

Discrimination

Morning Edition

September
04, 2018

5:45 a.m.

7:45 a.m.

4:00

In 2016, an LGBTQ couple was denied housing at a St. Louis County senior living facility on the basis of a cohabitation policy defining marriage as the union of one man and one woman, as marriage is understood in the Bible. Now the couple is taking Friendship Village senior housing community to court for discrimination on the basis of sex.

Suicide Prevention

SLOTA - Seg. A

September
05, 2018

12:00 PM

10:00 PM

37:00

A discussion about suicide prevention awareness and a first-hand experience recovery story from a suicide-attempt survivor, in light of September being National Suicide Prevention Awareness Month.

Alternate
Transportation for
Metro-East
Commuters

SLOTA - Seg. B

September
06, 2018

12:41 PM

10:41 PM

19:00

A discussion about alternate modes of transportation for metro-east commuters now that the MLK Bridge over the Mississippi River is to be closed for one year.

Video Game Addiction	SLOTA - Seg. C	September 07, 2018	12:22 PM	10:22 PM	21:00	A discussion about the newly classified disease by the WHO, video-game addiction, what the implications of it are and how one man sought to overcome his addiction.
We Live Here Maplewood Update	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 12, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	14:00	An update on We Live Here story that focuses on the nuisance law in Maplewood, Missouri.
Activist DeRay Mckesson	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 13, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	36:00	A discussion with civil rights activist and Ferguson protester DeRay McKesson, author of "On the Other Side of Freedom."
Medical food	Morning Edition	September 14, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Medical foods serve as a vital nutrition source for people with metabolic disorders that cannot process certain components of regular foods, but insurers often refuse to cover them, saying they are not in the business of cover oral nutrition, no matter how medically necessary.
Digital Wellness	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 21, 2018	12:12 PM	10:12 PM	22:00	A discussion about how parents and educators can use social media and online information to help their children better connect to the world, develop authentic relationships and model acceptable behavior.
Aging Courageously	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 24, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	36:00	A discussion about aging courageously and finding fulfillment after 50.
Importance of Children's Books	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 27, 2018		10:38 PM	22:00	A discussion of the importance children's books.
We Live Here	SLOTA - Seg. C	September 28, 2018	12:25 PM	10:25 PM	07:00	A discussion about the latest episode of STLPR's podcast, We Live Here.

Local Culture

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Urban blight	Morning Edition	July 02, 2018	5:45 am	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Profile of a young girl who lives in a neighborhood surrounded by blight. She is concerned about the safety of her siblings and friends.
A Sobering Aspect of St. Louis History	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 03, 2018	12:45 PM	10:45 PM	15:00	A discussion about the harrowing daily life many children experienced in 19th- and early-20th-century St. Louis.
	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 12, 2018	12:44 PM	10:44 PM	16:00

Hit List and Plant-Based Restaurants						A discussion about new restaurants to try in July and about the rise of plant-based, vegetable-focused menus and restaurants in St. Louis.
Local Guitarist Wins Contest to Perform with 30 Seconds to Mars	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 13, 2018	12:18 PM	10:18 PM	10:00	A discussion with a local college student and guitarist who won a contest to perform with 30 Seconds to Mars at Hollywood Casino Amphitheater.
St. Louis Arches in Puerto Rico	SLOTA - Seg. C	July 20, 2018	12:41 PM	10:41 PM	19:00	A discussion about the St. Louis Arches' trip to Puerto Rico.
Arch Rival Roller Derby Going to Spain	SLOTA - Seg. C	July 24, 2018	12:44 PM	10:44 PM	16:00	A discussion about the highly ranked Arch Rival Roller Derby team and its upcoming international competition in Spain.
Body Positivity	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 26, 2018	12:34 PM	10:34 PM	26:00	A discussion about the difficulty in maintaining a positive body image, especially among adolescents amid media messages, and some local efforts to challenge those notions.
Memories of the Flood of '93	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 30, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	60:00	A discussion about memories of the flood of 1993, 25 years after the Mississippi river crested in St. Louis.
Sound Bites: A Taste of Peru	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 01, 2018	12:33 PM	10:33 PM	19:00	In the next installment of SOUND BITES produced with Sauce Magazine, a discussion about the food and culture of Peru -- and where to find it in St. Louis.
We Live Here: Vacant Properties	SLOTA - Seg. C	August 01, 2018	12:52 PM	10:52 PM	08:00	A discussion about the next episode of the "We Live Here" podcast focusing on how one millennial is addressing the issue of vacant properties in order to reclaim his Walnut Park neighborhood.
Scooting Around Town	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 07, 2018	12:39 PM	10:39 PM	21:00	A discussion about what to make of the new electric scooters that have recently appeared in St. Louis.
Baseball memories	Morning Edition	August 07, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	On Sept. 8, 1998, Mark McGwire broke Roger Maris home run record by hitting his 62nd against the Cubs at Busch Stadium. His later admission that he used steroids has changed the way some baseball fans view McGwires record, and the homerun chase that captivated fans that summer.
Behind the Headlines: 100th PGA Championship Tournament	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 10, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	33:00	A discussion about what it takes to put on the major tournament in golf as the 100th PGA Championship takes place at Bellerive Country Club in St. Louis County.

Behind the History: Who is Bellerive?	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 10, 2018	12:33 PM	10:33 PM	20:00	As the 100th PGA Championship takes place at Bellerive Country Club we learn about the man for whom it was named, Louis Saint Ange de Bellerive.
Hit List	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 13, 2018	12:44 PM	10:44 PM	16:00	A discussion about new local restaurants to try during the month of August.
Black Pride	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 15, 2018	12:38 PM	10:38 PM	22:00	A discussion about the intersection of black and queer identities and how the organization STL Black Pride offers support for the community in advance of its celebratory weekend Aug. 17-19.
We Live Here: Tenants Rights Decision	SLOTA - Seg. C	August 17, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	60:00	A discussion about the latest installment of the "We Live Here" podcast, a followup on the decision of the Missouri Supreme Court in a case involving the rights of tenants.
Legal Roundtable	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 22, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	60:00	A discussion about the implications of Wesley Bell's win in the St. Louis County Prosecutor primary race, Forward Through Ferguson's report on the progress or lack thereof on the Ferguson Commission Calls to Action and other current legal issues with our Legal Roundtable panel of experts.
Baseball	Morning Edition	August 22, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	A Curious Louis article that answer the question: What happens to the baseballs that get discarded during a ballgame at Busch Stadium?
USS Missouri History and Renovations	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 23, 2018	12:36 PM	10:36 PM	24:00	A discussion about the history and recent renovations of the USS Missouri, the historic battleship where WWII ended
Curious Louis: What Happens to Baseballs?	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 24, 2018	12:33PM	10:33 PM	07:00	A discussion with STLPR reporter Mary Leonard about her Curious Louis story that answered the question of what happens to baseballs at a Cardinals game.
USMC Combat Helicopter Reunion	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 30, 2018	12:29 PM	10:29 PM	19:00	A discussion with a local veteran of the Vietnam War who's participating the USMC Combat Helicopter Association reunion Sept. 5-7 in St. Louis.
A Farewell to Mary Edwards	SLOTA - Seg. C	August 31, 2018	12:36 PM	10:36 PM	24:00	A discussion with longtime STLPR employee and St. Louis on the Air executive producer Mary Edwards.
Book Recommendations	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 31, 2018	12:15 PM	10:15 PM	21:00	A discussion about book recommendations with the owner of a local bookstore and with the woman who writes the blog Modern Mrs. Darcy and hosts the What Should I Read Next podcast.
Hit List	SLOTA - Seg. C		12:48 PM	10:48 PM	12:00

		September 05, 2018				A discussion about new restaurants to check out during the month of September as recommended by Sauce Magazine.
LouFest Cancelled	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 05, 2018	12:37 PM	10:37 PM	11:00	A discussion about the overnight cancellation of LouFest.
Behind the Headlines: Financing Music Festivals	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 07, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	17:00	A discussion with the founder of LouFest about its origins and about how music festivals are financed.
Alternate LouFest Plans	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 07, 2018	12:17 PM	10:17 PM	05:00	A discussion about other activities happening in the St. Louis area this weekend amid the cancellation of LouFest.
McGwire Record Breaking Anniversary	SLOTA - Seg. C	September 07, 2018	12:43 PM	10:43 PM	17:00	A discussion about the 20th anniversary of Mark McGwire breaking Roger Maris' home run record by hitting his 62nd against the Cubs at Busch Stadium.
History of Beer in St. Louis	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 11, 2018	12:36 PM	10:36 PM	24:00	A discussion with author Cameron Collins about a book he co-authored, "St. Louis Brews: The History of Brewing in the Gateway City."
Rwandan Bakery	Morning Edition	September 11, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	St. Louis native Markey Culver started a network of women-run bakeries in East Africa with a mission of social enterprise after being inspired by fresh-baked bread during her time as a Peace Corps volunteer in Rwanda. The flagship Kigali bakery just celebrated its third anniversary. But growth and success has come in fits and starts.
Swimming to Ferguson Documentary	SLOTA - Seg. C	September 12, 2018	12:35 PM	10:35 PM	23:00	A discussion about how one local resident decided to swim around Manhattan to raise money and awareness about issues raised in the wake of the Ferguson unrest and a new documentary about the journey.
DeRay Mckesson	Morning Edition	September 12, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	Activist and author DeRay Mckesson will hold an author appearance event for his book, "On the Other Side of Freedom: The Case for Hope, a meditation on resistance, justice, and freedom," a portrait of the Black Lives Matter movement from the front lines.
Lebanese Man Making Return Trip to U.S. Lebanons	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 17, 2018	12:40 PM	10:40 PM	20:00	Fadi BouKaram, a man from Lebanon who is making a return trip to U.S. towns named Lebanon.
Minimalism	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 20, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	33:00	A discussion about the trend of minimalism, what makes it so appealing and who subscribes to the lifestyle.

Scottish Culture	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 24, 2018	12:36 PM	10:36 PM	24:00	A discussion about Scottish culture in St. Louis in advance of the Scottish Games & Culture Festival.
Sound Bites: Low-ABV Drinks	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 25, 2018	12:36 PM	10:36 PM	24:00	A discussion about the growing trend among St. Louis bars and restaurants – low-ABV drink offerings – from our friends at Sauce Magazine.
History of the Pony Express	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 27, 2018		10:00 PM	38:00	A discussion with Jim DeFelice about his book "West Like Lightning: The Brief, Legendary Ride of the Pony Express."

Politics

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
Abortion	Morning Edition	July 10, 2018	5:45 am	7:45 am	4:00	Abortion is always a hot campaign topic but will be even more prominent this year as President Trump's appointee to the Supreme Court could change Roe v. Wade. This comes with a backdrop of defunding of Planned Parenthood. Hawley and McCaskill are both making their positions key to their campaigns.
Behind the Headlines: Gov. Greitens Legal Woes	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 13, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	18:00	A Behind the Headlines discussion with STLPR reporter Jo Mannies about the week's news concerning former Gov. Greitens latest legal woes.
VP Pence Visit	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 19, 2018	12:49 PM	10:49 PM	05:00	A discussion about an appearance by Vice President Mike Pence's visit in St. Louis.
State Auditor	Morning Edition	July 24, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Four Republicans are seeking to take on State Auditor Nicole Galloway in the primary election.
Congressional races	Morning Edition	July 26, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	Two congressional seats that take in large portions of the St. Louis metro area have competitive Democratic primaries. In the 1st District, Lacy Clay faces a challenge with support of "progressives." The 2nd District features at least three candidates with a chance to take on Congresswoman Ann Wagner.
Behind the Headlines	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 27, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	26:00	A discussion about President Trump's stop in Granite City, Illinois, this week.
First District Congress Democratic	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 01, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	32:00	A discussion with Cori Bush about her campaign to be the Democratic candidate for a seat in the U.S. House of Representatives in Missouri's 1st Congressional District.

Primary: Cori
Bush

Primary Election	Morning Edition	August 01, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	A look at the race for St. Louis County Prosecutor where Wesley Bell faces off against long-time prosecutor Bob McCulloch.
First District Congress Democratic Primary: William Lacy Clay	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 02, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	32:00	A discussion with William Lacy Clay about his campaign to be the Democratic candidate and retain his seat in the U.S. House of Representatives in Missouri's 1st Congressional District.
St. Louis County Executive Democratic Primary: Mark Mantovani	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 02, 2018	12:32 PM	10:32 PM	28:00	A discussion with Mark Mantovani about his campaign to become the Democratic candidate for St. Louis County executive.
Election	Morning Edition	August 02, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	Voters will decide if Missouri should be a right-to-work state on the August ballot. This story explains what they means and what is at stake with the issue.
St. Louis County Executive Democratic Primary: Steve Stenger	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 03, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	28:00	A discussion with Steve Stenger about his campaign to be the Democratic candidate and retain his position as St. Louis County executive.
Behind the Headlines - Primary Election	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 03, 2018	12:30 PM	10:30 PM	24:00	A discussion about candidates and issues that will be on the ballot in the August 7 primary election.
Election	Morning Edition	August 03, 2018	6:45 A.M.	8:45 A.M.	4:00	The St. Louis County Executive race will be decided in the August primary. The sitting executive is a highly controversial character, but it is unclear if the challenger is popular enough to change the status quo.
Primary Election	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 08, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	42:00	A discussion analyzing the results of the August 7 primary election.
Jason Kander on Courage	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 13, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	44:00	A discussion with former Missouri Secretary of State Jason Kander about his new book, "Outside the Wire: Ten Lessons I've Learned in Everyday Courage"
The Psychology Behind	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 14, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	39:00

Conspiracy Theory						A discussion about the propensity to endorse conspiracy theories in light of the many such theories that seem to plague the internet age.
Dark Money Film	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 17, 2018	12:32 PM	10:32 PM	20:00	A discussion about "Dark Money," a documentary film exploring the influence of untraceable corporate money on elections and elected officials.
Trump Effect in Missouri	SLOTA - Seg. B	September 10, 2018	12:36 PM	10:36 PM	24:00	A discussion with STLPR reporters Jason Rosenbaum and Marshall Griffin about President Trump's effect on Missouri politics and the beginning of special legislative sessions in the state.
Behind the Headlines	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 21, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	12:00	A discussion about what Sen. Claire McCaskill's opposition to the president's Supreme Court nominee means for the current U.S. Senate race between her and Missouri Attorney General Josh Hawley.
Young voters	Morning Edition	September 24, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	Young voter turnout is typically low and high school teachers are not seeing signs that it will increase this election. There are a lot of issues high school students care about — from gun control (especially after this year's Parkville, Florida, shooting) to school safety and immigration — but that does not mean they will show up to vote.
Black voters	Morning Edition	September 25, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	Young black activists in St. Louis called attention to specific issues, such as justice reform, ahead of this year's primary. But it is unclear whether those strategies will work in the general election, when voters may feel that the issues may not affect their lives as directly.
Suburban voters	Morning Edition	September 26, 2018	6:45	8:45	4:00	Suburban voters went for Trump overwhelmingly in 2016, but it is unclear if they will do the same in the senatorial campaign this year.
Business owners	Morning Edition	September 27, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	Small business is often called the engine for growth in the U.S. economy. In Missouri, 99 percent of all businesses are classified as small ... and they employ nearly half of the state's employees. Small business owners in the St. Louis region explain what they're thinking about ahead of the midterm elections.
Religious voters	Morning Edition	September 28, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	Southwest Missouri has been pegged as an "Evangelical Epicenter." Many of these evangelicals rallied around Republicans in 2016, including Donald Trump. At the same time, there's a small yet vocal group of Christian activists who are unhappy with the current administration's policies on immigration and taxes. Some of these churches have experienced tension within their own congregations.

Race

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
We Live Here: Gentrification	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 05, 2018	12:53 PM	10:53 PM	07:00	A discussion about the latest episode of the "We Live Here" podcast focusing on gentrification that can lead to African American communities being lost.
Behind the Headlines - Lack of Diversity at Arch Ribbon Cutting	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 06, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	20:00	A discussion about the controversy about the lack of diversity at the ribbon cutting of the newly refurbished arts grounds.
I Live Here: Homes and the Stories They Tell	SLOTA - Seg. C	July 19, 2018	12:54 PM	10:54 PM	06:00	A discussion about the latest episode of the St. Louis Public Radio podcast "We Live Here," which draws on last week's storytelling event.
Colorism	Morning Edition	July 20, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	A new show throws light on the cultural history of colorism among African-Americans.
The Experiences of Black Workers in Health Care	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 23, 2018	12:41 PM	10:41 PM	19:00	A discussion about challenges and disparities facing black doctors and other people of color who work in the medical field.
Eyewitness Account of Emmett Till's Abduction	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 24, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	28:00	In light of the U.S. Department of Justice reopening the investigation into the murder of Emmett Till, we air an encore presentation of a 2014 conversation with Till's cousin, Simeon Wright.
Guns	Morning Edition	August 07, 2018	5:00 a.m.	8:30 a.m.	2:30	Local St. Louis activist Ohun Ashe organized a unique outing for black women in St. Louis — a $5 ladies only event at a gun range in south St. Louis. Hundreds of people expressed interest in the event on Facebook. About 16 percent of non-white women own guns, according to a Pew Research Pole.
Forward Through Ferguson Report - Four Years After Brown Death	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 09, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	40:00	A discussion about the progress on the Ferguson Commission's calls to action on the fourth anniversary of the death of Michael Brown in Ferguson.

Racism, Sports Protests and the Law	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 16, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	35:00	A discussion about the legal aspects of employer policies regarding protests, especially by team sports players, and the racial implications of them.
Young Black Males	SLOTA - Seg. B	August 21, 2018	12:39 PM	10:39 PM	21:00	A discussion about the St. Louis American series on young black males.
'Use Your White Voice'	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 04, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	36:00	A discussion about code switching and common cultural responses to black voices as illustrated in two newly released films.
Documentary TV	Morning Edition	September 13, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	The second season of St. Louisan Cami Thomas mini documentary series Smoke City begins Sept. 27. The project looks at the relationships residents in St. Louis have with each other and the city following unrest in Ferguson almost five years ago.
Civil unrest	Morning Edition	September 14, 2018	6:45 a.m.	8:45 a.m.	4:00	The Griot will open "Civil Unrest in Review: Photographs by Eric Pan," featuring photographs of the civil unrest that followed the not guilty verdicts of Darren Wilson and Jason Stockley. The Sept. 15 exhibition includes other images, memorabilia, and footage collected during the protests.

Religion

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
#ChurchToo	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 16, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	37:00	A discussion about the way that many Christian churches have increasingly come under fire and responded to the #MeToo movement.
Daniel Lord Documentary	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 18, 2018	12:40 PM	10:40 PM	20:00	A discussion with Stephen Werner about his documentary "Daniel Lord, S.J.: The Restless Flame — Thinking Big in a Parochial World" which focuses on the life and work of St. Louis Jesuit Daniel Lord.
Mass of Reparation	SLOTA - Seg. A	September 06, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	41:00	A discussion about the Archdiocese of St. Louis' plans for a Mass of Reparation for victims of clergy sexual abuse and a conversation about how the Church handles such claims locally.

Science/Tech

ISSUE	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	DATE	DURATION	DESCRIPTION
-------	-----------------	------	----------	-------------

			1ST AIRTIME	2ND AIRTIME
Flint Water Crisis	SLOTA - Seg. A	July 05, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	53:00	A discussion with Dr. Mona Hanna-Attisha, author of What the Eyes Don't See: A Story of Crisis, Resistance, and Hope in an American City , which focuses on what can be learned from the water crisis in Flint, Michigan (recorded June 28 before an audience at the St. Louis County Library).
Space-Themed Pop Culture	SLOTA - Seg. B	July 06, 2018	12:20 PM	10:20PM	20:00	In advance of a First Friday event at the St. Louis Science Center, we'll talk about space-themed pop culture with a curator from the National Air and Space Museum.
Behind the Headlines: Temporary Flight Restrictions	SLOTA - Seg. C	July 20, 2018	12:34 PM	10:34 PM	07:00	A discussion about Temporary Flight Restrictions in light of Vice President Mike Pence's visit to St. Louis.
Bias in AI	SLOTA - Seg. A	August 27, 2018	12:00 PM	10:00 PM	36:00	A conversation about the cross over between bias and artificial intelligence; is it possible that AI can be unbiased?
Space travel	Morning Edition	September 17, 2018	5:45 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	4:00	NASA is rolling out its next era of space travel and a St. Ann native is in the middle of it all. Astronaut Robert Behnken is training to be part of the first crew to fly the SpaceX CrewDragon. The vehicle will provide roundtrips to the International Space Station