

WHYI-FM
Miami, FL
Quarterly Issues/Programs List
Fourth Quarter, 2017
01/04/18

WHYI-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Hurricane Irma Devastation
 - Awareness on Dangers of Carbon Monoxide
 - Walk for Autism
 - Preparing youths to succeed in a global economy
 - Child Abuse and Strengthening Families Through Education
 - Leukemia and Lymphoma Society
 - Funding Extraordinary Cancer Research
-

Section I
LOCAL PROGRAMMING

Section I lists regularly-scheduled and special programs that represent the station's issue-responsive programming providing the most significant treatment of the issues listed above for the calendar quarter.

The Here's Help Show

Sunday 6AM/1 Hour

Date Taped: 9/26/2017

Date program airs: 10/01/2017

Segment 1: Hurricane Irma Devastation

Today's first guest was Executive Chef Matthew McDonald. He came on the show to discuss the upcoming event called Chefs4Neighbors. The event will be held at the National Hotel and will benefit the Florida Keys and Puerto Rico and the devastation left by Hurricane Irma. The event will be held on October 11th from 7pm to 9pm and the tickets start at $75 as a minimum donation. Some of South Florida's most famous chefs will be preparing locally inspired dishes and wine pairings with live music from Larry Smith. For more information, please go to www.blacktie-southflorida.com.

Segment 2: Carbon Monoxide Intoxication

The second guest is Barbara Bertot, RN. She has a long standing career in nursing. She has won many awards. She is also the CEO/President of Janelle's Wishing Well Foundation. The foundation was established to honor the memory and spirit community involvement of Janelle Bertot, and alumni of Western High School, class of 2003. She was a victim of accidental carbon monoxide intoxication. The Foundation's mission is to raise public awareness on the dangers of carbon monoxide poisoning through community out-reach. She gave a lot of facts about carbon monoxide. She also gave information on their upcoming fundraiser, which is a Midnight Masquerade on October 14th. For more information, www.janelleswishingwell.org

Student Corner:

Jason is 16 and has been in the program for two weeks. He seems to be doing well in school and is helping out in the dining room. He was using Zanax and was skipping school. His parents are coming in this week for family therapy.

Date Taped: 10/3/2017

Date program airs: 10/08/2017

Segment 1 and 2: Parkinson's Foundation Events

Today's guests were Robin Cohen-Miller, the executive director for the Parkinson's Foundation and Ed Gray from the Florida Movement Therapy Centers and he is chairman and VP of the Parkinson's Foundation. They were on to discuss the upcoming fundraising walks all over South Florida. They walks coming up in Miami, Boca, Delray and Fort Lauderdale. Their efforts have raised $14 million dollars in the first 100 events in the first five years. They also mentioned that they serve the Palm Beach as well. They will be having 79 teams and hope to raise $300 million dollars over the next 20 years. For more information, please visit their website.

Student Corner:

Brian is 22 and here from the Keys. He is in the Horticulture program and really likes his teacher Emiliano. They are currently working with Foodscapes and the City of Opa Locka on an organic urban farm, which will lead to other jobs for our students. Brian has been in our program for two months.

Date Taped: 10/10/2017

Date program airs: 10/15/2017

Segment 1: Medical Relief to Puerto Rico and Virgin Islands after Hurricane Irma

Today's first guest was Dr. Eric Stelnicki to discuss his charity CHARM. Charm is a non-profit dedicated to bringing hope to children around the world by joining medical, nursing and allied health professionals together to perform life-saving surgical procedures to impoverished kids that would never receive the care. They are having a fundraiser to help provide emergency medical relief to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands after Hurricane Irma. It will held on October 18th at Thursday's on Las Olas. From 6:30pm until 10:30pm. For more information, go to www.charmkids.org.

Segment2: Co-Founder of CHARM, Provides Surgeries To Other Countries

The second guest was Melissa Stelnicki, who happens to be the first guest's wife. She co-founded charm and she is also a registered nurse. She also performs mission work in other countries and spoke about some of her most challenging missions. She also discussed going to Puerto Rico to do surgeries on some kids that were made homeless after the storm. She mentioned that her work can be overwhelming at times, but mostly she feels very fulfilled.

Student Corner:

Scott is in our student's corner this week. He is 18 and just received his GED in our program. He has been here for 2 months and worked very hard with our GED teacher Mr. Merk. He had been using cocaine but now he is clean and excited for his future.

Date Taped: 10/17/2017

Date program airs: 10/22/2017

Segment 1 and 2: International Film Festival

Today's guests were Jim Norton and Gregory Von Hausch. Jim is the Chairman of the Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival and Greg is the CEO of the Festival and the St. Augustine Festival as well. They came on the show to promote their festival. The 32nd annual festival will be held from October 27th-November 19th. They gave a full description on all of the other festivals that came before and named a lot of the celebrities that have been in attendance over the years. They are expecting over 10,000 people to attend. There are three venues where you can go and watch the film; Hard Rock, Savor Cinema or Hollywood. They also talked about the film student competition that has raised millions of dollars for student scholarships

Student Corner:

Juan is 14 years old and was quite nervous to come on the radio show. He was using marijuana and has been in our program for 6 weeks. He is doing well in school and has been approved for a weekend pass. He really likes his music class and is learning to play the piano.

Date Taped: 10/24/2017

Date program airs: 10/29/2017

Segment 1 and 2: Walk for Autism

Today's guests were from the Dan Marino Foundation. Nick Vavano, the business Development Manager and Susan Morantes, who is the student admissions Manager. She gave a brief overview of her career which includes positions at Nova Southeastern and the University of Miami. She serves on several Autism related boards and has an adult son, Sean that has Autism. They were on the show to discuss the Marino Campus and Walk About Autism. The DMF was formed in March in 1992 by Dan and Clair Marino when they learned their son had Autism. Their mission is to empower individuals with Autism and other developmental disabilities. They serve teens and young adults in Miami, Broward and the whole State of Florida. They also discussed the VITA program, the Marino Campus programs/open house and the Summer/ Spring programs. Their charity slogan is Money Raised here, Stays here. The Walk about for Autism is on January 27, 2018 at the Hard Rock Stadium and they are expecting 15,000 people. This walk has raised over 3.7 million dollars.

Student Corner:

Rich is 19 and is here from Palm Beach. He has an issue with OxyContin and cocaine. He is in family therapy with his dad two times a week and it has been very helpful. He is doing really well in art class and he is also in Culinary. He is working on designing the flyer for our holiday bake sale.

Date Taped: 10/31/2017

Date program airs: 11/5/2017

Segment 1: Paint and Sip Non-Profit Events at Studio

Today's first guest was Deborah Lind. She is the owner of Pinot's Palette, a paint and sip art studio in Fort Lauderdale. She came on the show to promote holding non-profit events at the studio. They will donate the cover charge back to the charity. Pinot's Palette was founded in 2009 and is a pioneer of the paint and sip experience. There are more than 180 locations and they are doing a lot to help the victims of Hurricane Harvey and Irma.

Segment 2: Empower Children to Express Themselves after Aftermath of a Hurricane

Today's second guest is author Jayne Bonilla. Jayne is a motivational speaker and an author. She wrote the book If Hurricanes were candy canes. The book was written to empower children to express themselves in the aftermath of a Hurricane. She originally wrote the book in 1992 during Andrew, but wanted to promote it again considering it could really help kids that are struggling in the wake of Irma and Harvey. This book is used in many schools as well.

Student Corner:

Peter was the student today. He is culinary and is having a great time learning to cook with Ms. Tracy. Peter is in drug court and is 21 year old. He has been here for 6 weeks and is doing well.

Date Taped: 11/7/2017

Date program airs: 11/12/2017

Segment 1 and 2: Small Business Saturday

Today's guests were from Publix and Andrea Graham, from the Graham Company. They came on the show to promote their upcoming event, the 33rd Annual Main Street Festival of Lights. The FOL is held on Saturday, 11/25 at 5-9pm. It is the kickoff to the holiday season. All of the merchants of main street are invited to take part in the festivities. There will be photo stations, characters, and many other things to do. Publix is the supporting sponsor and they have a kids activity zone. Santa will be making an appearance and you can adopt a pet.

They also spoke in depth about Small business Saturday, which is a day to celebrate and support small businesses and all that they do for our community.

Student Corner:

Julio was the student on the show today. He is 13 and was using marijuana. He has been in the program for 2 and a half months. He is enjoying school because of the smaller class size, he is able to have more individual attention. He also is doing well in his art class.

Date Taped: 11/14/2017

Date program airs: 11/19/2017

Segment 1: Future of Pembroke Pines

Today's first guest was Vice Mayor Angelo Castillo from Pembroke Pines. He gave a brief description of his career and history of his accomplishments. He also talked about upcoming projects and events in Pembroke Pines in the next couple of months. They spoke about the history of PP and said it is the 11th largest city in Broward County. They spoke about the potential threats and opportunities and the future of the city.

Segment 2: Partnership with Foodscapes and City of Opa Locka

Today's second guest was Emiliano, our new horticulture instructor. He came on to introduce himself and to tell our listeners about our new partnership with Foodscapes and the city of Opa Locka. He also discussed what he will be growing in the garden in the next few months and the possibility of selling the herbs and vegetables at a local farmer's market.

Student Corner:

Jesse was the student. He is 19 and is here from the Keys. He is in the GED program and is also in Horticulture. He recently got a job and is working hard to save up so that he get an apartment locally. He feels this is a better environment for him than the Keys. His drug of choice was cocaine.

Date Taped: 10/24/2017

Date program airs: 11/26/2017 (Repeat of 10/29/17 Show)

Segment 1 and 2: Walk for Autism

Today's guests were from the Dan Marino Foundation. Nick Vavano, the business Development Manager and Susan Morantes, who is the student admissions Manager. She gave a brief overview of her career which includes positions at Nova Southeastern and the University of Miami. She serves on several Autism related boards and has an adult son, Sean that has Autism. They were on the show to discuss the Marino Campus and Walk About Autism. The DMF was formed in March in 1992 by Dan and Clair Marino when they learned their son had Autism. Their mission is to empower individuals with Autism and other developmental disabilities. They serve teens and young adults in Miami, Broward and the whole State of Florida. They also discussed the VITA program, the Marino Campus programs/open house and the Summer/ Spring programs. Their charity slogan is Money Raised here, Stays here. The Walk about for Autism is on January 27, 2018 at the Hard Rock Stadium and they are expecting 15,000 people. This walk has raised over 3.7 million dollars.

Student Corner:

Rich is 19 and is here from Palm Beach. He has an issue with OxyContin and cocaine. He is in family therapy with his dad two times a week and it has been very helpful. He is doing really well in art class and he is also in Culinary. He is working on designing the flyer for our holiday bake sale.

Date Taped: 11/28/2017

Date program airs: 12/3/2017

Segment 1: Junior Achievement Uncorked Event

Today's first guest was Laurie Salarullo. She came on the show to discuss her upcoming fundraiser JA World Uncorked on January 20, 2018. This is for the Junior Achievement of South Florida which was founded in 1959 by the Fort Lauderdale Rotary Club. The JA inspires and prepares youth to succeed in a global economy. Also, to promote their education and help them find jobs and hone in on interviewing skills. They have 5,000 volunteers and this year they were able to serve 50,000 students. Tickets and sponsorships are available and the event will be at the Seminole Hard Rock.

Today's second guest was Paco Velez from Feeding South Florida. Feeding South Florida is a member of the Feeding America network. Their mission is to end hunger in South Florida. They rescue 46 million pounds of food each year and they are able to serve 710,370 people. Out of this number, 250,000 of them are kids. They also discussed an upcoming fundraiser Holiday Table Sort-A-Thon on December 16th at 8am at the South Florida Main warehouse. They even invited the listeners to come out and volunteer.

Student Corner:

Today Andrew joined us on student's corner. He is 23 and has been with us for 4 months. He is set to graduate this week. He really liked his broadcasting class and gave a little background on his life. He is getting an apartment when he leaves here and he has a job with pesticide company.

Date Taped: 12/5/2017

Date program airs: 12/10/2017

Segment 1 and 2: Culinary at Here's Help

Today's entire show was Chef Tracy and the culinary students. Two of the students shared their backgrounds for the student's corner. They discussed the upcoming events that they are going to be a part of. They are preparing paella for the upcoming Junior Orange Bowl Tennis Tournament on 12/19. On 12/21, they are going to be preparing cookies and taking them to Badia Spices for their holiday luncheon. Also, they are going to be making the food for our holiday party on 12/22. Tracy discussed different cooking techniques and mentioned that it will be good for them to learn some of these recipes so that they can make them for their families. They also discussed more events that are coming up in January such as the Autism walk put on by the Dan Marino Foundation.

Date Taped: 12/12/2017

Date program airs: 12/17/2017

Segment 1: Boot Camp on Etiquette

Today's first guest was Yvonne Salas. She is the founder of Etiqueta Excellence Manners. She has been servicing South Florida for the last 13 years. She teaches people good manners in the attempt to make society more civil, friendly and respectful. The host mentioned her coming and speaking to some of our students. She mentioned she is having a boot camp for young people starting 1/15 at Grand Palms Golf Club in Pembroke Pines.

Segment 2: Preventing Child Abuse and Strengthening Families Through Education

Today's second guest was Rosa Maria Plasencia. She is the CEO of Amigos for Kids President. Amigos is a nonprofit organization that is dedicated to preventing child abuse and strengthening families through education. She will be having their annual Toy Drive which begins the day this episode will play on 12/17. It will start at El Dorado Furniture and there will be many local celebrities including Santa Claus. They also grant wishes for the kids. They take them to police stations, sporting events and local holiday light festivals.

Student Corner:

Today's student was Ray. Ray is 22 and is here from West Palm Beach. He has had some problems settling in at home and decided to come here voluntarily. He is in culinary and real like his art class. He has been here for 2 and a half months and has done really well in the holiday culinary events.

Date Taped: 12/19/2017

Date program airs: 12/24/2017

Segment 1: Leukemia and Lymphoma Society

Today's first guest was Belkis Gutierrez from the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. The society was founded in 1949 by the De Villiers Family, Their mission is to cure blood cancer leukemia, lymphoma and Hodgkin's disease. They serve the Miami, Broward and Monroe parts of Florida. They also came to promote their event the Student of the Year Gala kick off on 2/12/2018. They are expecting 150 people. Also, they have many fundraising events throughout the year and invited the listeners to attend.

Segment 2: V Foundation-Funding Extraordinary Cancer Research

Today's second guest was Lesley Visser and Footy, our CEO. Lesley works at CBS as a sports broadcaster. Footy is good friends with her and stopped in the studio when he found out she was the guest. She came to promote her new book on her career and the charity work she has done over the last 20 years with the V Foundation. Their mission is to fund extraordinary cancer research and to save more lives. Lesley is on the board and recently underwrote an event an Indian Creek Country Club. Her book is available at Barnes and Noble and Amazon.

Student Corner:

Today's student corner was Chris. He is 18 years old and just received his high school diploma. He also got off of probation and finished drug court. He decided to go to culinary school and is about to get his food handler's license. We are all very proud of him and his accomplishments.

Date Taped: 12/19/2017

Date program airs: 12/31/2017 (12/24/17 Rebroadcast)

Segment 1: Leukemia and Lymphoma Society

Today's first guest was Belkis Gutierrez from the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. The society was founded in 1949 by the De Villiers Family, Their mission is to cure blood cancer leukemia, lymphoma and Hodgkin's disease. They serve the Miami, Broward and Monroe parts of Florida. They also came to promote their event the Student of the Year Gala kick off on 2/12/2018. They are expecting 150 people. Also, they have many fundraising events throughout the year and invited the listeners to attend.

Segment 2: V Foundation-Funding Extraordinary Cancer Research

Today's second guest was Lesley Visser and Footy, our CEO. Lesley works at CBS as a sports broadcaster. Footy is good friends with her and stopped in the studio when he found out she was the guest. She came to promote her new book on her career and the charity work she has done over the last 20 years with the V Foundation. Their mission is to fund extraordinary cancer research and to save more lives. Lesley is on the board and recently underwrote an event an Indian Creek Country Club. Her book is available at Barnes and Noble and Amazon.

Student Corner:

Today's student corner was Chris. He is 18 years old and just received his high school diploma. He also got off of probation and finished drug court. He decided to go to culinary school and is about to get his food handler's license. We are all very proud of him and his accomplishments.

Section III
PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Section III lists public service announcements that the station broadcast during the preceding calendar quarter that address community issues.

ISSUE	ORGANIZATION OR TITLE	DURATION	RUNS
AUTISM	DAN MARINO FOUNDATION	000:15	88
FLORIDA CLASSIC	CYSTIC FIBROSIS	000:15	62
MSABC	AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY	000:15	13
FUND RAISER	MARCH OF DIMES	000:15	31

