Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern
3rd Quarter
October 10, 2017

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of July, August, and September. In the month of July 2017, we welcomed several guests. Mr. Thornton began the month by highlighting safety tips for the 4th of July and tips on sleeping better. Dr. Gregory Murray of Augusta University visited the studio to discuss political behavior of voters and AU's cybersecurity program. Catherine Stewart of Children's Hospital of Georgia (CHOG) appeared on the show to discuss the mission of CHOG and their upcoming fundraiser. Annie Blair also appeared on the show to give teaching tips for parents. In the middle of the month, Mitzi Proffit joined us to discuss the impact of Medicaid cuts on Georgia. The trial of Adolf Hitler was discussed when David King appeared on the show. Moving toward the end of the month, Jim Ledbetter joined the show to talk about one nation under gold. Mr. Thornton discussed the Perry Broadcasting of Augusta Annual Jamz Cutz event in which free backpacks filled with school supplies were given out to children K-12. Boys received free haircuts and girls received free manicures. Dr. Mark Thompson visited the studio to discuss Healthcare and policy. Christine Miller-Betts also visited the studio to discuss history and events being held at the Lucy C. Laney Museum. Dr. Hardee President of Paine College visited us to discuss progress being made at Paine College and plans for further success. Dr. William Hatcher and Joanne Sexton visited the studio to discuss Cyber Security. Christine Miller-Betts returned to the studio to talk about Laney Museum ribbon-cutting. Mid-week of August, Alan Fadling appeared on the show to discuss The Unhurried Leader and Richard Langer appeared to talk about Winsome Persuasion. Mr. Thornton highlighted information regarding the solar eclipse. Dr. Stephen Cutchins visited the studio to discuss defending the Christian Faith. Dr. David C. Hess appeared on the show to discuss the vision for the Medical College of Georgia and Dr. Joan Luby appeared to discuss why and how to protect and nurture our children's brains. To begin the month of September, Mr. Thornton discussed the Hurricane Harvey Fundraiser event hosted by Perry Broadcasting and the City of Augusta and its leadership. The fundraiser was held to donate funds to the victims of the hurricane and their families. Dr. Rivandra Kolhe appeared on the show to discuss how IBM computers help fight against cancer. Mr. Thornton later ran an excerpt of his interview with Jennifer Lee who discussed challenges to receiving higher education. Moving toward the middle of September Jack Evans appeared on the show to talk about branding. Joel Eichenbach appeared on the show to discuss traveling to Mars. There was a discussion about music careers by Edwin G. Hamilton. Dr. Ruth Anderson visited us to talk about Health and fitness. Mr. Thornton ran another excerpt of an interview with Dr. Charles Wheelan who discussed history and management of money. Toward the end of September, Mr. Thornton ran an excerpt of Dr. Kolhe's interview on IBM's cancer interventions. To end the quarter, Mr. Thornton highlighted tips on helping senior citizens live healthy.
