Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern
4th Quarter
January 10, 2022

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of October, November, and December. In the month of October 2021, we welcomed several guests. In the beginning of October 2021, the note featured excerpts of Ms. Griggs discussion of hope for homosexuals who desire change in their sexual orientation. Ashley Hales appeared on the show to talk about Rhythms for life. The community note featured highlights of a possible treatment, in the form of a pill, for COVID -19, and Mr. Thornton highlighted an upcoming event in the local area. Steven Murphy appeared on the show to discuss Pablo Escobar. Mr. Thornton ran excerpts of the interview wherein guests discussed their plays and awards. Mr. Thornton also discussed more upcoming events. Travis Shaw visited the studio to discuss his music. The community note featured highlights regarding benefits of proposed changes to the federal Medicaid program, and upcoming local events. Mr. Thornton note addressed the need for adequate school funding in Georgia and featured excerpts of an interview with Gerald Scott who discussed an upcoming play. Drew Jackson appeared on the show to discuss how God speaks through wombs. Robert Chao Romero was interviewed to talk about Life of the "Brown Church." The community note featured upcoming events. The community note information regarding food insecurity and how to combat it as well. Torin Ellis appeared on the show to talk about her career success. Mr. Thornton aired excerpts of his interview with guests Dr. Bowman who discussed the importance of taking measures to be safe from COVID – 19, and the merger of University Hospital with the Piedmont Health Systems and Dr. Whirl who discussed his academic career and the success of and vision for ATC. President Brooks Keel appeared on the show to discuss his career and the vision for Augusta University. Dr. Sheldon Solomon visited the studio to talk about the loss of rational thinking. Dr. Firestone addressed depression and suicide, especially as they pertain to the impact of COVID – 19, and ways of coping both. The community note featured excerpts of Mr. Thornton's interview with Dr. Solomon, who discussed reasons people reject rational thinking. Mr. Thornton also highlighted local events. Dr. Cary Green appeared on the show to discuss leadership from a biblical perspective. The community note featured the outcome of a recent donation raiser for the homeless and excerpts of the interview with Shaun Harris who was leading a Christmas donation event for children. Mr. Thornton highlighted a show for children and adults that was discussed by Joseph and Treza Edwards. Mr. Thornon also gave holiday eating tips. Frankie May and Frankie Hogan was on the show to talk about coping with loss and grief. The community note featured excerpts of Mr. Warrens interview on Raising Sons of Promise(from his book).
