Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern
2nd Quarter
July 10, 2023

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of April, May, and June: In the month of April 2023, we welcomed several guests. The community note featured summer camps and local events at the beginning of April. Dr. Os Huinness appeared on the show to talk about signals that can motivate discovery and fulfillment. Dr. Beth Birmingham and Ms. Eeva Simard appeared on the show to discuss insights from their book Creating Cultures of Belongings. Moving towards the middle of the April, Mr. Thornton covered more local events. The start of May 2023, Mr. Thornton talked about summer camps available. The community note summarized the Georgia insurance market place and pros and cons of Georgia's current tax policy and a new exercise medical device. In the middle of May, Mr. Thornton aired more discussions about summer camps. Mr. Thornton aired excerpts of his discussion about progress in the local medical industry and local events at the end of May. The month of June 2023, the community note highlighted local events. The community note highlighted measures being taken to address children's crises and local events. Mr. Thornton interviewed Travis Shaw who discussed his music CD. The community note highlighted career search information and local events. Ending the month of June, the community note highlighted the Educational Spotlight which focused on Augusta Technical College. The community note also highlighted local events.
