Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern
^{4th} Quarter
January 10, 2019

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of October, November, and December. In the month of October 2018, we welcomed several guests. Zee Zee Wright, Jane Barrett, and John Beveridge of Augusta University visited the studio to talk about the Dream of Harlem play that helped raised money for the AU Cancer Research Center. Bruce Nagy appeared on the show to discuss clean energy. As we moved into the middle of October, Ms. Bratton of the Augusta African-American Historical Society appeared on the show to discuss the role of the society in informing the community about the legacy of its past and present black history-makers and their upcoming community history presentation. Dr. Stephen visited us to discuss practicing Christianity and Dr. Dale Atkins and Amanda Salzhauer visited us to discuss the advantage of being kind. Jose Humphrey joined the show to talk about ministering to the inner city population. Sharkie Zartman appeared on the show to discuss how parents can develop successful young athletes. Toward the end of October, Dr. Chitwood appeared on the show to discuss an upcoming conference regarding the church and tax law. Darlene Lancer appeared on the show to talk about building self-esteem and Adrian Pei appeared on the show to talk about dealing with adversity.

Beginning in November, Mr. Thornton featured excerpts of his interview with Christine Betts of the Lucy Craft Laney Museum regarding the museum's December trolley tour. Mr. Thornton highlighted the Winterland event and the final Augusta River on the Market event of the year. Towards the middle of November, Mr. Thornton highlighted several events, including Augusta University's job fairs, Art Night at the Pink Slips Analog art studio, the Georgia Field Trials(bird and dog competition), and the Holiday Gingerbread Village that was held at the Augusta Museum of History. To end the month, Mr. Thornton ran excerpts of his discussion with Dr. Dale Atkins and Amanda Saulzhauer about principles of kindness. He also highlighted the Nutcracker presentations held at the Imperial Theater and the Miller Theater. Mr. Thornton began the month of December by highlighting excerpts of Lt. Zion's discussion of the GSP profession and their partnership with Toys for Tots. Dr. Teresa Ghilarducci appeared on the show to discuss successful retirement planning. Dr. Stephen Cutchins visited us to talk about defending the Christian faith. Dr. Langer shared tips on communicating the faith effectively. Mr. Thornton mentioned a play held at the Imperial Theater. Moving into the middle of the month, Crystal Smith visited us to talk about developing well-being. Dr. Dorothy B. Gandy of Vorhees College visited us to discuss the options students had that was affected by the closing of Virginia College. Traci George also visited the studio to discuss the scholarships offered by the Augusta Lincoln League. Rev.'s Jeff Flowers and Brennan Francois appeared on the show to discuss coping with loss during the holidays. Mr. Thornton interviewed Sr. Terry Linhart who talked about the self-aware leader. Members of Mike Frost Jazz Group appeared on the show to talk about their music career. Dr. Debashishe Bose was interviewed about the symptoms of and treatments for cancer.
