Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern

2nd Quarter
July 10, 2021

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of April, May, and June: In the month of April 2021, we welcomed several guests. The community note highlighted the Medical College of Georgia's new Adrenal Gland Center and more information regarding appropriations from the Georgia state budget. Jennifer Lee appeared on the show to discuss the importance of higher education. Dr. Joan Luby appeared on the show to talk about the plasticity of the brain. The community note featured interview excerpts that highlighted the importance of calling 811 before digging. The community note featured excerpts that highlighted award – winning works by the guest as well as tips on how playwrights can improve their writing. Mr. Thornton listed organizations offering vaccinations with contact information to be used in scheduling appointments. The community note highlighted graduation commencements and sports achievements of local high schools. The community note highlighted various information pertaining to school events and crisis telephone numbers. Mr. Thornton highlighted exercise tips for COVID recovery. In addition to covering more on exercise for COVID recovery, Mr. Thornton offered Crisis telephone numbers. The community note featured Aid and more crisis telephone numbers were addressed. The community note addressed COVID vaccinations for people 12+ and local events at the beginning of July. Lavetta McLamb appeared on the show to discuss marriage and prayer. Mr. Thornton discussed music and announced several Juneteenth events. As we moved into the middle of June, Mayor Hardie Davis visited the studio to discuss Children's reading club. Dr. Judy Willis appeared on the show to talk about how the brain learns. At the end of June, Dr. David Wahl joined the show to discuss human sexuality and Caitlin Highland discussed ACA still in tact.
