Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern
3rd Quarter
October 10, 2019

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of July, August, and September. In the month of July 2019, we welcomed several guests. Dr. Debbie Crews and Eddie G. appeared on the show to talk about optimum performance and music careers. Dr. Kevin Lehman appeared on the show to discuss developing a new kid. The first weekend of July Mr. Thornton ran excerpts of his interview with Dr. Gilligan who discussed the psychology and science behind crime. Marie McDonald joined the show to talk about the significance of diversity and inclusion. Melrose York and Rev. Greg Hatfield appeared on the show to discuss coping with grief and loss. Going into the middle of July, Mr. Thornton ran additional excerpts of his interview with Marie McDonald. Mr. Thornton featured an excerpt of his interview with stylist, Alyssa Blair and announced local events/movies at the Imperial Theater. Ending the month of July, Mr. Thornton featured excerpts of his interview with Dr. House who discussed borderline personality disorder. Mr. Thornton also highlighted the Jamz Cuts Back to School event hosted by Perry Broadcasting of Augusta and the William Quincy Murphy Blood Drive. Jon Huckins and Daniel Hill appeared on the show to discuss Christian harmony and the impact of culture.

Dr. Quincy Byrdsong appeared on the show to discuss the power of diversity to start the month of August. Overcoming stress was discussed by Dr. Lisa Firestone. Mr. Thornton featured excerpts of Daniel Hill's discussion of the impact of culture, based on his book White Awake. Ken Barnes and John Milton visited the studio to talk about the community helping with cures for diseases. Mr. Thornton ran excerpts of his interview with Alan Fadling who discussed The Unhurried Leader. Moving towards the middle of August Sharkie Zartman appeared on the show to talk about helping children athletes and Dr.

Kristin Carpenter talked about the power of setting goals. Dr. Paul Mills appeared on the show to discuss the power of being grateful. Also, Ginette Messer appeared on the show to talk about helping children overcome abuse. Mr. Thornton featured excerpts of Darlene Lancer discussion of narcissists. Crystal Smith appeared on the show to discuss seeing the beauty in front of people. Mr. Thornton also highlighted the CSRA Augusta City Classic activities and football game. Rev. Chang appeared on the show to excerpt comments, address prayer and medical treatment in dealing with illness to start the month of September. Michael Korda was interviewed and discussed World War II facts. Mr. Thornton highlighted the Arts in the Heart Festival, an all-nature body product show, and the Aiken Octoberfest. Mr. Thornton also ran excerpts of his discussion about marriage. As we moved into the middle of September Mr. Thornton highlighted the Columbia County Farmer's Market and ran excerpts of his discussion with Joanne Sexton of Augusta University that focused on cyber security and the cyber world. The month ended with John Koesler, who appeared on the show to talk about the ways to rest spiritually and physically. Mr. Thornton highlighted the Canalfest and Blanket Knitting workshop.
