Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern

^{2nd} Quarter
July 10, 2019

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of April, May, and June: In the month of April 2019, we welcomed several guests. Cliff Meidl visited us to discuss the importance of dialing 811 before digging. Dr. Jorge Cortes appeared on the show to talk about cancer research and treatment. Andria stopped by the studio to talk about the connections between modern day slavery and sex trafficking. Mark Pilkington appeared on the show to discuss possible remedies for the retail industry problems. Closing out the month of April, Mr. Thornton ran excerpts of his interview with Dr. Hobbs of the Medical College of Georgia wherein he discussed his amazing medical career and innovations in the field. Mr. Thornton began the month of May by Highlighting several local events, including the Veggie Farmer's Market, the Kids' & Caregiver's Club, and the Arts in the Heart of Augusta. Dr. Angela Bethea – Walsh visited us to discuss addictions. Andria Baisley-Miller and Elizabeth LeMack of the Cumbee Center visited us to discuss trafficking and modern day slavery. Dr. Latrice Fowler appeared on the show to talk about internet addiction: what it is and how to overcome it. Dr. Bill Karp visited the studio to discuss general nutrition for better health. Mr. Thornton highlighted Paine College's Summer Chemistry Camp mid May. Dr. David Ludden appeared on the show to talk about the time for restorative justice in intimate relations. Dr. Lisa Firestone joined the show to share thoughts on how to develop better marriages. Dr. Steven Stosny joined the show to give insights on racism and G. Scott shared his music career. Mr. Thornton aired excerpts of his interview with Kate Davis who addressed nutrition for child athletes at the beginning of June. Mr. Thornton highlighted several events: The Arts in the Heart Festival, The North Augusta Arts & Heritage Festival, and small business grants offered by Augusta Housing and Development. Mr.

Thornton also ran excerpts of his interview with Dr. Karp who addressed nutritional concerns, including during Thanksgiving. Jakeila Baker visited us to discuss strategies for succeeding in high school. Mr. Thornton aired his interview with Brianna Hall and Sierra Hall of King's Kids Academy that covered the scholarship benefit concert held at King's Kid Academy. Mr. Thornton ran excerpts of his interview highlighting facts regarding HIV as well as a HIV Testing and Health Fair. Dr. Christopher McKinney appeared on the show to talk about the intersection between innovation and business. Trish Dialva, Traci George, and Brennan Francois appeared on the show to discuss being empowered to live life well. Jeff Bumgardner appeared on the show to discuss his music ministry. Ending the month on June, Mr. Thornton highlighted several events, including: Independence Day Celebrations at Fort Gordon, Concerts in the Columbia and Richmond County Parks, Jessye Norman School of the Arts presentation, and the Music Summer Camp by Creative Impressions.
