Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern
4th Quarter
January 10, 2021

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of October, November, and December. In the month of October 2020, we welcomed several guests. In the beginning of October 2020, Jennifer Taub appeared on the show to discuss the impact that Big Dirty Money has on America. Mr. Thornton highlighted polling sites for early in-person voting in Columbia County, Georgia. During the middle of October, Phyllis Brooks of the McDuffie County Board of Elections appeared on the show to discuss important information to consider when voting in McDuffie County, Georgia. Closing out the month, Mr. Thornton highlighted voting in Aiken County, South Carolina. The community note featured tips on improving air quality in the beginning of November. Mr. Thornton highlighted information that included sports tips for parenting student athletes. As we moved forward, Mr. Thornton highlighted information regarding Georgia's runoff election and an excerpt of Dr. Barfield's discussion of young athletes and burnout. Trish Dialva appeared on the show to discuss positioning yourself for success. Velton Showell, III was interviewed to talk about getting out of the rut. Closing out the month, Frankie May and Frankie Hogan appeared on the show to highlight an excerpt of ways of coping with loss. Caitlin Highland appeared on the show in December to highlight facts regarding the Georgia runoff election. Also, citizen priorities for Georgia legislators were conveyed by Ms. Highland. Amy Morin appeared on the show to talk about building the mind and Dr. Elliot Cohen appeared on the show to discuss marriage and sexual love. Dr. Dan Benardot joined the show to give points about sports nutrition. Jimmy Deloach, Jr. was interviewed to talk about coping with loss and grief. Michael Gamble joined the show to discuss our life destination. Ellis Johnson and Anne Johnson interview was aired regarding programs for underserved youth of the community and an event held for them. Closing out the month of December, Arthur Andrews appeared on the show to talk about motivation for life and Dr. David Ludden discussed restorative justice.
