Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern
4th Quarter
January 10, 2023

To serve the public interest, the station broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to the CSRA and its listening public. The following lists issues most significant to our programming and the treatment of them:

Issues of importance this quarter included the following during the months of October, November, and December. In the month of October 2022, we welcomed several guests. In the beginning of October 2022, Mr. Thornton aired highlights of his interview with the Praise 96.3FM sports announcer, Charles McNeil, and mentioned local events. Dr. Richard Averbeck appeared on the show to discuss The Law and the Christian. Mr. Thornton featured details regarding registering to vote and mentioned more local events. Brittany Walker and Jessica Quintero – Harris of Tri – Development Center of Aiken County, Inc. appeared on the show to talk about employment training and opportunities offered at their organization. Moving into the middle of the month, Dr. Janis Coffin of the Medical College of Georgia was interviewed to discuss breast cancer awareness. Michelle Warren was interviewed and she discussed social activism. In the beginning of November, the community note addressed research that compares the nation's economic condition when shaped by Democrats vs Republicans since 1953. Mr. Thornton highlighted information pertaining to the Georgia senatorial runoff election. Moving towards the middle of the month, the community note featured local events and Frankie May and Frankie Hogan appeared on the show to discuss insights regarding loss and crisis. The community note featured more local events and insights regarding suicide prevention shared by Dr. Karen Mason. The community note highlighted the runoff election in Georgia and local events to start the month of December. Dr. Stephen Post was interviewed and talked about doing good. Pastor Michael Gamble appeared on the show to discuss developing faith. Dr. Patti Bauer was interviewed to talk about being pregnant and active. The community note highlighted the impact of unfair fines and fees on communities of color as well as local events. Moving into the middle of December, Mr. Thornton aired his interview with Dr. Lisa Firestone about her insights on reducing stress. Dr. David Wahl appeared on the show to discuss human sexuality and desire. Eric Parker and Dr. De Leo was interviewed and discussed the power of tech and healthcare. As the end of the month approached, Mr.

Thornon aired excerpts of Ms. Carroll's discussion of St. Jude's mission. Jakeila and Denice Baker appeared on the show to discuss the $2.6 million dollars in scholarships raised. The community note highlighted medical matters including updating Medicaid contact information, and Mr. Thornton announced local events.
