Issue: Irrigation Assistance for Farmers

Program: Wings Morning Scene

WGZZ News reported on a newly-passed state tax incentive for farmers who invest in irrigation technology and how the plan – which was co-sponsored in the legislature by Auburn Senator Tom Whatley – is expected to help increase crop production in the state.

This program aired at 6:50, 7:50 and 8:50am.

7/26/12

Issue: Death in the AU Family

Program: Wings Morning Scene

WGZZ paid tribute to the man who created “Aubie”, Auburn University’s beloved mascot. Newspaper artist Phil Neel first drew the character in a Birmingham Post-Herald cartoon back in the 1950s. Mr. Neel died July 25th in his hometown of Trussville. He was 84.

This program aired at 6:50, 7:50 and 8:50am.

8/21/12

Issue: Opelika Technology Update

Program: Wings Morning Scene

WGZZ News reported on a new “Bill of Rights” being considered in Opelika. Described as a smart grid bill of rights for Opelika residents, the document was prepared after studying such policies in other communities and gathering input from local residents, as the city continues installing its new fiber-optics network.

This program aired at 6:50, 7:50 and 8:50am.

9/17/12

Issue: State Referendum

Program: Wings Morning Scene

WGZZ reminded listeners about tomorrow's (9/18) statewide vote on the issue of allowing lawmakers to borrow state trust fund money in order to pay operating expenses. Details of the plan were delivered along with encouragement to get out and vote.

This program aired at 6:50, 7:50 and 8:50am.
