

WTAJ

QUARTERLY ISSUES

1Q - 2014

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Monday, March 31, 2014 3:04 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 3/31/2014

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News Monday, March 31, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

What's coming up in the Asbury Park Press

Will pot become legal in New Jersey? Bill would put end to states' online betting. Open note to see full details. FULL ARTICLE
More: Kwastest

Absinthe in Asbury: Watermark cocktail has 'Snazzy' appeal

Here's something to drink about: There are plenty of cool, creative and downright lovely libations being shaken and stirred at hip lounges around the Jersey Shore. FULL ARTICLE
More: Living

Neighborhood doesn't want private girls' high school

On Wednesday, Rabbi Ephraim Elmbaum will again meet with the Jackson Zoning Board to demonstrate 1) how the community of Jackson will benefit from an Orthodox Jewish high school for girls, and 2) how the school will not negatively affect the residential. FULL ARTICLE
More: Opinion, Letters to the Editor

Hit Hersheypark for chocolate, coasters and Bruce Springsteen

If the wind is right, visitors can inhale the odor of chocolate being made in Hershey's candy factory. Inside the company's Chocolate World attraction, such smells are pumped in. FULL ARTICLE
More: Living

What's going on in your town this week

The Ocean County Democratic Party has endorsed U.S. Sen. FULL ARTICLE

More: News

Washington Notebook: Menendez, Smith back autism funding

New data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention show a continued increase in autism prevalence rates, with New Jersey at the top of the list. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Columnists, Linda Fulton Herman

Bill would put end to states' online betting

New Jersey's new online gambling industry may get the kudos before it even gets off firmly established. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, New Jersey News

Small-business development centers give entrepreneurs a boost

One program available across the United States creates and save American jobs, one job every seven minutes. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Business

Hersheypark resorts cater to every taste

At Hersheypark, picking the perfect hotel is half the adventure. From top-of-the-line luxury accommodations to campgrounds, finding the resort to meet your family's needs is sweetly simple. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Living

Small Business Spotlight Q&A: Salon St. Clair in Spring Lake values 'old school' work ethics

Salon St. Clair was started by Margaret Farrell James and Lisa DePalma Colorio in Spring Lake in 1988. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Business, Business Q and A

Should NJ issue driver's ID cards to undocumented immigrants?

We know that they drive anyway, so what's the big deal about issuing some form of driver's license to undocumented immigrants? (I'll wait for the screaming and shouting to subside). A bill in the Assembly proposes to do that. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Columnists, Larry Higgs

NJ prosecutors: it's high time to legalize pot

Proponents of legalizing marijuana in New Jersey received a boost from an unlikely source — the very people who prosecute pot users. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Atlantic Highlands teen with cancer gets help from 200-plus bikers

A couple hundred motorcycles thundered through an Atlantic Highlands suburb to help raise the spirits of a 14-year-old battling cancer and to help raise funds for his fight against the disease. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Police: Little Egg Harbor man texted photos of stolen power tools to their owner

A Little Egg Harbor man was arrested after he allegedly stole power tools in a dispute over money, according to a news release from township police.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Toms River firefighters hold 'real-world' drill at township house in wake of Point Pleasant motel, Edison school fires

With smoke billowing out the front door, firefighters began unrolling hoses from one of the trucks toward the house. Another team put on Scott Air Packs before entering to conduct a search and rescue. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Belmar garage damaged from vehicle fire

A fire in the driveway of an Elm Avenue home melted the vinyl siding of a garage and engulfed a sport-utility vehicle on Sunday morning, Belmar Fire Department Chief Brand said. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form. (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want, or don't want, to receive.

Home | About Us | Contact Us | Privacy Policy | Terms of Use | Site Map

Editorial | Local | National | Business | Sports

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Tuesday, January 07, 2014 4:05 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ Colantoni, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 1/7/2014

To view this email as a web page, go here.

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News Monday, January 7, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

What's coming up in the Asbury Park Press

Sports updates. Open note to see full details. FULL ARTICLE
More: Kwaster

Frank Cotroneo gets prison for Ritacco bribery scheme; former Toms River mayor Carmine Inteso also sentenced

Frank L. Cotroneo, an insurance broker who played a key role in the corruption scandal centered on Toms River Regional Superintendent Michael J. Ritacco, avoided a long federal prison term Monday in exchange for his cooperation, which helped bring down the bribery scheme. Carmine C. Inteso Jr., 47, who once served as Toms River mayor, was sentenced to six months in prison and six months of house arrest for tax evasion, stemming from his acceptance of payments from one of the players in the corruption case.

FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

'Polar vortex' on the loose as frigid cold barrels toward New Jersey

Tuesday could be the coldest day in two decades in New Jersey, with the wind chill adding to the dangerous conditions, a climate expert said Monday.

FULL ARTICLE

More: News

Marina Mabrey begins classes at Manasquan, sitting out 30 days after transfer

Martina Mabrey attended classes Thursday to begin her second go-round at Iwanasquan High School, which means the 30-day clock on her suiting up for the Warriors was set in motion. FULL ARTICLE »
More: Sports, High School Basketball

Two Jersey Shore men admit to stealing charity money intended for 9/11 families

Two Jersey Shore men admitted guilt Monday in a scheme in which they stole thousands of dollars in donations by falsely claiming they were raising money to help families of those who died in the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center. FULL ARTICLE »
More: News, Jersey Shore

Ronald Savoy accused of masturbating in front of Lakewood deli employee and her son

Ronald Savoy, 42, of Lakewood, is accused of taking off his clothes and masturbating in front of an Ocean Avenue deli employee and her 8-year-old son, said Det. Sgt. Greg Staffordsmith, spokesman for Lakewood police. FULL ARTICLE »
More: News, Jersey Shore

Shane Wood of Toms River pleads guilty in Sandy contractor fraud

Shane 'Shaine' Wood, 49, of Sharon Drive, Toms River, admitted Monday he provided a fraudulent insurance certificate and worked as an unregistered contractor in the aftermath of superstorm Sandy despite the fact that state authorities had revoked his registration, the Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office said. FULL ARTICLE »
More: News, Jersey Shore

Michael J. Garry Jr. of Ocean Township broke into apartment, went to sleep, police say

Michael J. Garry Jr., 41, ended up in handcuffs after a local woman came home and found him asleep in a bed in her home, authorities said. FULL ARTICLE »
More: News, Jersey Shore

Drone secrecy bill passed by Assembly

A measure regulating the use of drones by law enforcement agencies and fire departments, and allowing some of the information obtained to be kept secret, passed the state Assembly in a near-unanimous vote Monday. FULL ARTICLE »
More: News, NJ Politics

The sauce that powered Bon Jovi

It's a family thing for the Bongioni Brand pasta sauce. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Entertainment

Middletown school board reschedules organization meeting

The township school board canceled tonight's organization meeting.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Man stole ShopRite worker's jacket and iPod, Manchester cops say

Police charged Hugh R. Mullin, 59, of Gouldsboro Park, with theft after he took a worker's jacket off a pallet from the Manchester Plaza ShopRite about 8:45 p.m. Sunday, said Manchester Police Capt. Lisa Parker. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey, Mayhem

Monmouth prosecutor promotes LeMieux, Linskey

Acting Monmouth County Prosecutor Christopher J. Gramiccioni has tapped the head of his office's investigations division to be his top aide, and a veteran of the state attorney general's office to be third in command of the office, following the retirements last week of his two former top assistants.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Six Flags' El Toro named No. 1 wooden coaster in U.S.

Six Flags Great Escape's towering El Toro roller coaster was named the No. 1 wooden roller coaster in the nation Monday by About.com's travel and theme park expert, Arthur Levine. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Can Steve Lonegan win in the 3rd District?

When Steve Lonegan made a campaign stop on the steps of the Ocean County Courthouse in August for his unsuccessful U.S. Senate bid, he made a point to single out his good friend, the mayor of Lavallette, Walter G. LaSpera, for his support. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Politics

Long Branch gets $14.5 million, but boardwalk won't be back for summer

The city will receive $14.5 million in federal funds to repair a roughly 1-mile section of bluffs and boardwalk, but residents and beachgoers won't see a fully refurbished boardwalk this summer. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from: The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail, you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form. (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Account Management Form
Unsubscribe
The Asbury Park Press Online Account Management Center

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Wednesday, January 15, 2014 4:03 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ Colantoni, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 1/15/2014

To view this email as a web page, go here.

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News Wednesday, January 15, 2014 SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

What's coming up in the Asbury Park Press

Light of Day begins! Open note to see full details. FULL ARTICLE
More: kwastes

Bidder: State officials wanted Chris Christie to star in tourism ads

Chris Christie says he had no role in the planning of last year's $25 million 'Stronger Than the Storm' advertising campaign, but a bidder says state officials made it clear the Republican governor should star in the TV commercials.

- APP.com exclusive: New documents show Christie office hiding details of storm TV ads
- Editorial: Widen probe into Sandy aid
- More: Christie ally lacked background on 'Storm' contract, critics claim
- On the blogs: Sweeney: N.J. needs a 'Sandy bill of rights'

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Watchdog Investigations

Chris Christie addresses scandal in State of the State address

This year's State of the State address promised to be Gov. Chris Christie's national moment to bolster his position as the Republican front-runner in the 2016 presidential race. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, NJ Politics

Charles Scott of Jackson arrested on $118,125 child support warrant

Charles Scott, 43, of Jackson remained jailed Tuesday night after police arrested him on a child support warrant for more than $118,000, authorities said.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Lacey cops seek man who stole Grey Goose vodka from Lacey Liquors

A man stole a $38 bottle of vodka from Lacey Liquors after buying the same.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Dametrious R. Summers of Atlantic City charged with marijuana distribution in Lacey Dametrious R. Summers, 35, of Atlantic City was charged during the weekend with possession of marijuana with intent to distribute and police said Tuesday they're trying to find out the destination for the marijuana.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Brick CVS evacuated after threat, police find no explosives

A CVS store was evacuated and police used dogs to search for an explosive device Tuesday night after a threat was received, but no bomb was found.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Three North Jersey contractors accused of taking appliances from Sandy-damaged Brick home

Three northern New Jersey contractors have been accused of stealing appliances from a Bay Way home that was undergoing repairs following superstorm Sandy.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Berkeley missing child located, Project Lifesaver credited

A 16-year-old child who had been missing was located Tuesday night, police said.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Democrats replacing Brick GOP appointees

The ouster of Republican appointees continued as the newly sworn Democrat-led municipal administration suspended the township's assistant business administrator. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Local Government

Progress against heroin in Lacey

Last spring, it looked like the township's 2014 drug goals all would be even worse than the previous years. Like many other communities, Lacey is dealing with a heroin crisis. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Local Government

Who helps the helpers? Food stamp cuts put added pressure on Ocean County Hunger Relief

The GPS in your car might have a difficult time calculating the correct route to Germania Station Road. FULL ARTICLE

More: News

Press on Your Side: NJ urges Target customers to sign up for credit monitoring

New Jersey's top law enforcement officer has a little advice for Target customers in New Jersey: Sign up for the offer by Target, which was hit by a massive data breach last month, for a free year of credit monitoring. FULL ARTICLE

More: Columnists, Press on Your Side

Tyshon Taylor, owner of abused pit bull Heaven, given 90 days in jail

Tyshon Taylor, the owner of Heaven, the pit bull neglected to the point of near death, was sentenced Tuesday to 90 days in jail, while his mother, Amanda Boyd, was fined $750, and his grandmother, Norma Ivanus, was fined $500 for ignoring the puppy's needs. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Jersey Bawling

Mrs. New Jersey America to visit Super Plunge on LBI

Evangel McLeod, Mrs. NJ America 2010, will make a special guest appearance and will participate in the Awards Ceremony at St. Francis Center's annual Super Plunge. The 10th Annual Super Plunge Sunday is scheduled for Super Bowl Sunday, Feb. FULL ARTICLE

More: News

FEMA awards $1.5M to Ocean County

The Federal Emergency Management Agency has awarded $1.5 million to Ocean County, Congressman Jon Runyan announced today. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Local Government

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Privacy Policy | Terms and Conditions | Feedback | Contact Us
Home | About Us | Advertise | Help | Site Map

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Monday, January 20, 2014 4:05 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ Colantoni, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 1/20/2014

To view this email as a web page, go here.

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News Monday, January 20, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

As bridge scandal continues, Democrats come under attack

The George Washington Bridge scandal has bruised Gov. Chris Christie's reputation as the everyman, above partisan politics, could threaten his rumored presidential ambition and has led to the dismissal of some longtime members of his power circle. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, NJ Politics

NJEA: Teachers feel 'terrorized' by new evals

Throughout New Jersey, teachers and administrators are bracing for the first set of evaluations that tie staff reviews to student performance.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Education & Schools

Locals honor the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.

It's the 20th anniversary of the Rev. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Snow, colder weather on the way

Snow and frigid temperatures are expected to hit the Shore area this week.

The National Weather Service is forecasting one to three inches of snow will fall starting Tuesday morning into Tuesday evening. The chance of snow is 70 percent. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Monmouth stuns Canisius on Nicholas' trey

at buzzer

The wildest, not to mention biggest win in recent memory for the Monmouth University men's basketball team on Sunday afternoon was further proof that, this season, anything can happen in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: Sports, Monmouth University Sports

Dems to expand Bridgegate investigation to Sandy relief claims

New Jersey Gov. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, JUL Politics

It's not just the Jets and Giants: Super Bowl has never been kind to host teams

We all know the story about Giants general manager Jerry Reese putting a Super Bowl countdown clock in MetLife Stadium as incentive for his team to reach the title game in its own building. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Sports, Super Bowl

Brick police search for van that hit 7-Eleven

Police are searching for a white work van that crashed into a 7-Eleven store on Brick Boulevard Sunday morning and then fled the area. Police Sgt. Henry Drew said in a news release. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Cutting trees to save the forest

Hundreds of Atlantic white cedar trees toppled or damaged by superstorm Sandy are being cut in Double Trouble State Park, a first step in what state foresters say will be regeneration of the 25-acre site from natural seed beds. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

The incredible, shrinking property tax rebate

Living in New Jersey is so expensive that the state helps cover health insurance for kids in a family of four with an income of $80,000.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: Inside

Springsteen, faithful fight Parkinson's at Light of Day

There was a little faith and magic in the night Saturday at the Paramount Theatre in Acubyn Park. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Entertainment

Welcome to your new Asbury Park Press!

We are giving you more. A lot more. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Monsignor Donovan captures Ocean County cup

Monsignor Donovan High School boys' swimming team co-head coach, Gary Scallon, kissed the championship cup Sunday. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Sports, High School Swimming

Press readers aid man impoverished during guardianship

Ken Schmidt, who won an uphill battle last month to regain the legal rights he lost when he suffered a brain injury in a fall two years ago, is starting the new year on a happier note. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Scandal talk follows Christie on Florida GOP fundraising jaunt

When Chris Christie was in his first campaign for governor in 2009, congressional Democrats wanted the state's former top federal prosecutor to explain how he chose a firm headed by his one-time boss, John Ashcroft, for a rich no-bid contract to monitor a company accused of corporate crime.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, NJ Politics

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in).

Replying to this message with "Unsubscribe" in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Our website has a subscription form | Contact us at 856-926-6200 or 856-926-6201 | Feedback | Privacy Policy | Terms of Service | Advertise

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Monday, January 27, 2014 4:05 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ Colantoni, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 1/27/2014

To view this email as a web page, go here.

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News | Monday, January 27, 2014 | SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

This year's Westminster Dog Show is largest yet

When Christy Wrede arrives in Manhattan for the Masters Agility Championship at Westminster with her canine contenders Logan and Emma, she's not expecting to win. FULL ARTICLE >
More: Living

Small Business Spotlight Q&A: Alpha Funding Solutions in Lakehurst offers loans for real estate

Alpha Funding Solutions is a private and direct asset-based lender, also referred to as a 'hard money lender.' We specialize in time-sensitive and difficult-to-finance small balance transactions from $100,000 to $2,000,000.

FULL ARTICLE >
More: Business, Business C and A

Super Pet Expo returns to New Jersey

February is going to the dogs — and cats and, well, animals in general.

FULL ARTICLE >
More: Living

Middletown BOE to vote on $30M upgrade referendum

The local school board — which operates 17 schools throughout the township — is expected to decide this week whether to ask voters to authorize a referendum for millions in facilities upgrades. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Education & Schools

Alternate Route: Your guide to Super Bowl traffic and transit

There's going to be a little known sporting event played less than a week from now called the Super Bowl, and it could be a traffic nightmare if you take the road that everyone travels to the game. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Columnists, Alternate Routes

Surprise! The real cost of the Super Bowl for New Jersey residents

While next Sunday's Super Bowl is often, and wrongly, touted as being played in New York, residents in New Jersey will bear a super-sized bill to host the football extravaganza in East Rutherford. The cost so far: $17.7 million. And counting. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Inside

New businesses in Monmouth and Ocean counties

Allentown, WSS Holdings LLC, 4 Fohlemustown Road; holding company.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: Business, Main Street

Jackson council reaches $300,000 settlement with former employee

A one-time township employee who claimed she was sexually harassed by the former township building inspector for six years has received a $300,000 settlement from the township. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Are juvenile halls fading away?

More than six years after Ocean County officials opened a $2.4 million addition onto its juvenile detention center, there are on average just a dozen defendants housed monthly behind walls built to accommodate up to 30.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: Inside

Two taken to hospital after minivan hits tree in Millstone

Authorities rushed two people to the hospital after a minivan collided with a tree Sunday afternoon in the township, a firefighter said. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Fire engulfs garage behind Matawan home

A fire engulfed a two-car concrete garage Sunday morning on Wilson Avenue, police said. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Battle of the beards in Asbury Park: Competition raises funds for no-kill shelter

Of the hundreds of beards and mustaches represented at the third annual Garden State Beard and 'Stache Competition at Asbury Lanes Saturday, Mary McBride's had to be the sweetest smelling. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Brookdale to reopen Freehold site after indoor sprinkler malfunction

Brookdale Community College students shut out of classrooms since the so-called polar vortex wreaked havoc on the campus water system are being welcomed back beginning Monday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Education & Schools

John Wisniewski: The man who could topple Chris Christie

He is the man who could derail Republican Gov. Chris Christie's presidential ambitions. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, NJ Politics

Plumsted police find drugs during traffic stops

Township police arrested a Seaside Heights man on Friday they said possessed drugs and a hypodermic needle while being driven around Plumsted. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Manage my electronic mail | Change account preferences | Subscribe to the Paper
Terms of Service
Privacy Policy | Feedback | Ad Choices

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Saturday, February 01, 2014 4:04 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ Colantoni, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 2/1/2014

To view this email as a web page, go here.

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

APP.com
ASBURY PARK PRESS

Key Local News Saturday, February 1, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

What's coming up in the Asbury Park Press

The Super Bowl is coming! Open note to see full details. FULL ARTICLE
More: Kwaster

Can Christie get his mojo back?

Through finger-pointing town hall meetings on YouTube and tough-talk speeches on television, Gov.

FULL ARTICLE

More: News, NJ Politics

Jesse Eisenberg to play Lex Luthor in Superman/Batman sequel

It looks like Jesse Eisenberg will be going from New Jersey to Metropolis.

FULL ARTICLE

More: Entertainment, Movies

Former gov: Christie ex-aide shouldn't head ethics panel

The hiring of a former attorney in Gov. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Watchdog, Government Accountability

Boil-water advisory issued for parts of Red Bank

The Red Bank Water Department has issued a boil-water advisory for the residents of East Lake Avenue, West Lake Road, Garfield Place, Grant Place and Rumson Place. FULL ARTICLE

More: News

Toms River driver hits Lakehurst cop at Manchester crash scene, police say

A Lakehurst police officer was struck by a passing car while assisting Manchester police at a two-car crash at Route 37 and Commonwealth Boulevard at about 8:30 p.m. Thursday, authorities said. FULL ARTICLE

More: News

Yak rescued after falling through pond ice

A domesticated yak named Bruce, one of the petting zoo animals at Brookhollow's Barnyard, is recuperating after he was saved from a plunge into a frigid pond by his owners and the ice rescue unit of the Boonton Township Volunteer Fire Department. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Jersey/Maynem \(crime\)

Colin Menafra back full time in Jackson schools as resource officer

District students and staff will see a new but familiar face roaming the hallways of the township's schools beginning Monday. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Education/Schools

Sunday weather promising; snow may follow

Super Bowl weekend is upon us and the weather is offering a relatively pleasant outlook for the game festivities, according to the National Weather Service. FULL ARTICLE

More: News

Brian Kelly of Highlands indicted on sexual assault of girl, 14

Kelly, who was arrested in December, additionally was indicted on charges of aggravated assault, attempting to lure or entice a minor into a motor vehicle, endangering the welfare of a child, possession of a controlled dangerous substance, burglary and possession of burglary tools, according to court documents. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Jersey/Maynem \(crime\)

Lawrence Forman of Beverly indicted in Millstone teen sex assault

Lawrence Forman, 44, of Beverly was indicted Friday on charges he sexually assaulted two teenaged girls in Millstone Township last year, according to court documents. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Jersey/Maynem \(crime\)

Abdul Muhammad of Neptune charged in

Freehold robbery

Abdul M. Muhammad, 20, of Neptune, was charged with a Freehold robbery and weapons offenses after being arrested with a loaded handgun in the parking lot of the McDonald's in Neptune, authorities said Friday.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, JerseyMayhem \(crime\)

Tokeayo Hamilton of Howell charged with marijuana distribution after neighbors complain, cops say

Tokeayo Hamilton, 33, of Seattle Steer Drive was charged with marijuana possession and distribution after police say his neighbors at Oak Hill Trailer Park complained. Howell police said Friday. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, JerseyMayhem \(crime\)

Lakewood PBA bus helps officers at the Super Bowl

The Lakewood Police Benevolence Association Local 74 is going to the Super Bowl. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Ku Klux Klan was once a force in Ocean County

Freshholder John St. Barst, Jr., a retired high school history teacher, lent me a copy of a book the county had commissioned in 2000 to commemorate the 150th anniversary of its founding. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Howell cops seek help from public: Did you see this man?

Police are asking the public's assistance in identifying a man who is seen on surveillance photographs using stolen credit cards on Monday. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, JerseyMayhem \(crime\)

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Unsubscribe to editorial mail | Change account preferences | Subscribe to our Page 1

Email Us | Contact Us

Privacy Policy | Terms of Service | About Us | Advertise

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Saturday, February 01, 2014 9:07 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: APP Breaking News: Woman killed in Middletown accident, police say

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Breaking News Saturday, February 1, 2014 SEE ALL BREAKING NEWS

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

While you were sleeping: 5 big stories from overnight

Start your day by quickly catching up on the latest news from around the Shore and the world. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Woman killed in Middletown accident, police say

A woman died following a car crash at Oak Hill Road in the township Saturday morning, police said. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Coming 'superstorm' is great white hype

The story of the mega snowstorm on the horizon started with a long-range winter weather model and a social media post suggesting its arrival 10 days from now. It's babble. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Christie knew of lane closings, insider says; governor denies assertions

There is evidence that Gov. Chris Christie knew of the George Washington Bridge access lane closings as they were happening.

COMPLETE COVERAGE: Multiple investigations into Christie administration ongoing.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, NJ Politics

Shore Bets: What to do this weekend

Don't miss our video guide to all the local happenings this weekend, from entertainment to sports to family-friendly events. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Press on Your Side: Manalapan woman with Alzheimer's was in danger of losing home because she couldn't sign a paper

Lucy Schieferstein-Neri took out a reverse mortgage, which provided her with an influx of cash so she could stay in her home for the rest of her life. Every year, she had to sign a piece of paper attesting that she still lives there. But now with Alzheimer's disease in its final throes and a 24-hour-a-day home health aide, she's unable to sign anything. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Columnists, Press on Your Side

Ku Klux Klan was once a force in Ocean County

Freeholder John C. Bartlett Jr., a retired high school history teacher, lent me a copy of a book the board had commissioned in 2008 to commemorate the 150th anniversary of its founding. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Toms River heroin arrests end with seizure of $50,000 in drugs, paraphernalia, cash

A month-long narcotics investigation into heroin trafficking by Toms River police has ended in multiple arrests – including a Lakewood man identified as a heroin distributor – and the recovery of $50,000 worth of heroin, the police chief said Friday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Police: Joseph Connors, Keansburg DWI driver hit sign, wire and cop cruiser

Joseph Connors, 66, of Hancock Street was intoxicated when he drove into a no-parking sign, a guy wire for a telephone pole and finally a police car, police said. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Traffic Mayhem

Howell cops seek help from public: Did you see this man?

Police are asking the public's assistance in identifying a man who is seen on surveillance photographs using stolen credit cards on Monday. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Jersey, Fashion

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Astorian Post Press Inc. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires login). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Astorian Post Press Inc. within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Unsubscribe from editorial email | Change mail preferences | Contact Us | Privacy Policy
Terms of Service
Feedback | Contact Us | Privacy Policy | Terms of Service

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Wednesday, February 05, 2014 11:10 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: APP Breaking News: Pedestrian struck and killed on ramp in Brielle

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Breaking News | Wednesday, February 5, 2014

SEE ALL BREAKING NEWS

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

Your town: Weather, transit and power outage updates

Everything you need to know about how the latest storm is affecting the Shore region and the state. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Pedestrian struck and killed on ramp in Brielle

A male pedestrian was struck and killed just minutes into Wednesday while walking on the off-ramp from Route 35 to Route 71, said Police Chief Michael Palmer. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Ocean County sheriff to be paid a total of $335,914 in 2014

Ocean County Sheriff Michael G. Mastroraro will receive $238,692 in unused sick and vacation pay from 45 years of service as a Tom's River police officer, according to municipal officials. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Watchdog, York-Tan-Delaware

Fear of GWB subpoenas prompts Christie-connected firm to hire lawyer

There are few clues as to where the multiple investigations of political retribution involving the George Washington Bridge will lead next, but a high-powered political consulting firm connected to Gov. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, NJ Politics

One-Ring phone scam nails cellphone users who call back unfamiliar numbers

The Better Business Bureau is warning consumers of the so-called One-Ring phone scam, which, if you fall for it, can result in almost $30 in fraudulent charges, or more, on your bill. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Columnists, Press on Your Side

Rutgers football recruiting class lacking most of top talent in N.J.

If one thing is clear in looking at the Rutgers football team's recruiting class, it is this: The State of Rutgers might be expanding, but Rutgers' presence in the state of New Jersey might be slipping. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, Rutgers Sports

Hearing tonight for proposed Jewish school in Jackson

The third hearing to consider approving Jackson's first all-girls Orthodox Jewish high school, Orad Bais Yaakov, will be held today before the township zoning board. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Education/Schools

FBI: Children forced into prostitution for Super Bowl

Law enforcement authorities rescued 16 child-sex-trafficking victims — six of them in New Jersey — in a multistate crackdown tied to this year's Super Bowl, the FBI announced Tuesday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Joseph Crotty of Middletown charged with assaulting his tenant in fight over money

Joseph C. Crotty, 45, of Liberty Street was charged with aggravated assault after police say he punched and jumped on his tenant during a argument over money, police said Tuesday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Long Branch district looks to sell Church Street, Alternate schools

For the second time, school officials are looking to unload two white elephants: its former Alternate School, which former parochial school students will recognize as the one-time Star of the Sea Academy — and the district's historic — if decaying — Church FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Education/Schools

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Privacy Policy | Terms of Service | Contact Us | Feedback
Site Map
Help | About Us | Advertise | Work for Us

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Saturday, February 15, 2014 4:03 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ Colantoni, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 2/15/2014

To view this email as a web page, go here.

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News Saturday, February 15, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

What's coming up in the Asbury Park Press

High school wrestling, Olympics. Open note to see full details. FULL ARTICLE
More: kwastec

Toms River Schools takes opportunity to build lessons around Olympics

Behind the sweat, spandex and glory of the 2014 Winter Olympic games, Toms River teachers know there's an opportunity for student learning.

FULL ARTICLE
More: News, Education/Schools

Coastal Habitat repairing damage from Sandy

Coastal Habitat for Humanity, the southern Monmouth County affiliate of the international construction charity, has pledged to repair 700 homes damaged by Hurricane Sandy by 2020. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Sandy Recovery

Weather postpones Six Flags job fair until next weekend

Because of inclement weather, Six Flags Great Adventure has postponed its job fair scheduled for today. FULL ARTICLE

More: News

Verizon working to repair phone service to

Shady Oaks condominium complex in Middletown

Problems with a Verizon telephone cable serving the Shady Oaks condominium complex in Middletown has caused phone outages since early this month. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Business, Consume, Watch

Clean Sheets Laundromat in Point Pleasant Beach comes back from Sandy

The new owner of Clean Sheets Laundromat in Point Pleasant Beach bets he can rebuild a business devastated by superstorm Sandy. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Business, Main Street

Three accused of FEMA fraud in Hurricane Irene claim

Three people were charged with trying to defraud FEMA by falsely claiming Hurricane Irene damaged a car, Ocean County Prosecutor Joseph D. Corcorano announced Friday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Toms River cops say Jerome Morris of Manchester had 16 grams of crack and cocaine

Jerome Morris of Manchester was arrested and charged by Toms River police with possession of cocaine, and possession with the intent to distribute the narcotics. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Fake Lacey BOE member orders 22 Dell laptop computers, cops investigating fraud

Someone posing as a representative of the Lacey Township Board of Education ordered 22 Dell laptop computers from a local business last month and police are investigating the fraud. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Robert Verpent of Stafford charged with DUI after driving into Oyster Creek Nuclear Generating Station security checkpoint

Robert J. Verpent, 52, of Stafford Township, was charged with driving while intoxicated after police say he mistakenly drove his van into a security checkpoint at the Oyster Creek Nuclear Generating Station. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Asbury Park gang crackdown results in charges against 31, including cop

Longtime rival street gangs teamed up with a rogue police officer to terrorize the city's streets and profit from crimes including gun running, drug trafficking and shoplifting, authorities said Friday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Maven

Cops seek Jackson Santander Bank robber

A man robbed the Santander Bank on Brewster Bridge Road in Jackson Friday morning after handing a teller a note saying he had a gun. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Maven

Press on Your Side: Barnegat man paid all his bills, turned in his leased Hyundai, and got nailed with $800 in fees

Last year, Arthur Fiore III of Barnegat turned in his 2011 Hyundai Santa Fe within the last two months of his lease. He also made the last payment on his lease, which was credited to his account. As far as he was concerned, he was good to go. Not so fast, said Hyundai. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Columnists, Press on Your Side

Keith German not the first cop arrested in Asbury

The arrest of a city police officer for allegedly aiding gang members isn't the first time a member of the police department has run afoul of the law.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Maven

Southern Regional wrestling team beats Cherry Hill West for title

The plan was a simple one, and Southern Regional executed it to near perfection Friday night. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, High School Wrestling

Monmouth's late rally not enough against Iona

The Monmouth University women's basketball team stormed all the way back from down 15 points in the second half against Iona, but fell to the Gaels, 60-59, on an Aleesha Powell lay-up with 3.5 seconds left Friday evening at the Hynes Athletic Center. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, Monmouth University Sports

To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster, and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Unsubscribe by clicking here | Change account preferences | Send us your feedback | Terms of Service

Privacy Policy | The Asbury Park Press | Sign Up | Contact Us

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Thursday, February 20, 2014 4:04 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ Colantoni, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 2/20/2014

To view this email as a web page, go here.

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News | Thursday, February 20, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

What's coming up in the Asbury Park Press

High school wrestling, Olympics. Open note to see full details. FULL ARTICLE »
More: Wrestling

GWB investigative committee files suit to get Kelly, Stepien to comply with subpoenas

The joint legislative committee investigating the closing of access lanes to the George Washington Bridge in September went to court Wednesday to force Bridget Anne Kelly and Bill Stepien to turn over documents to the committee. FULL ARTICLE »
More: News, NJ Politics

HUD turns down N.J.'s request for waiver of rules for Sandy recovery

Gov. Chris Christie's administration has been turned down in its bid to sidestep federal rules that have tripped up rebuilding plans for some superstorm Sandy victims. FULL ARTICLE »
More: News, NJ Politics

Salt ship lands today, but more needed to fill empty salt domes across NJ

A shipload of badly needed rock salt is expected to land at Port Newark today, to be followed by a second ship scheduled to dock in the middle of next week, but officials said it will take several shiploads to bring empty salt sheds across the state back. FULL ARTICLE »
More: News, New Jersey News

Point Pleasant looks to grow community garden

A community garden could be the newest way for the borough to go green — and red, yellow, purple and white. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Local Government

Carl 'Killa' Holdren of Lakewood gets life sentence for 2006 Long Branch murder

Carl J. Holdren, 25, of Lakewood, a high-ranking member of the Sex Money murder set of the Bloods street gang, will spend at least the next six decades in state prison after he was sentenced Wednesday on charges of murder, attempted murder and racketeering in connection with the 2006 Long Branch murder of Michael Montgomery, the Acting Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office announced. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Lu Anne Meinders, Jackson superintendent announces retirement due to declining health

Lu Anne Meinders, superintendent for the township school district, announced Wednesday she will retire this summer, only a year after taking the job.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Education & Schools

Six Flags Great Adventure investing in its future with Zumanjaro thrill ride

Six Flags Great Adventure this season will turn its attention back to teens and young adults, the Jackson park's president said Wednesday, with the introduction of Zumanjaro Drop of Doom, a death-defying ride that sends visitors plummeting at 90 mph from four stories high. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Business

Rutgers president unveils strategic initiatives to campus community

Following through on a promise to hit the ground running on the ambitious plan designed to propel Rutgers to the nation's echelon of public colleges, Rutgers University President Robert L. Barchi sent a letter to the campus community announcing goals for the first 100 days of the strategic blueprint. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Education: Rutgers

Asbury mayor addresses police sweep at meeting

A police sweep that netted 35 arrests, including one veteran police officer, appears to be the talk of the town with some city leaders and residents.

praising law enforcement authorities. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Jersey Marathon

Lacey woman feared the worst when she drove past mom's crushed car on Parkway

When Charlene Brown saw her mother's crushed Honda Accord on the Garden State Parkway, she was sure the hospital had been lying when they said her mother was OK. But Catherine Brown survived the five-vehicle crash with just five stitches. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Traffic Marathon

Brookdale Community College, Georgian Court partner in tuition discounts up to 52% for qualified transfer students

Qualified Brookdale Community College students who transfer to Georgian Court University could see their tuition slashed by more than half, under the terms of a new dual-admissions agreement formalized Wednesday evening by Brookdale. FULL ARTICLE

More: News, Education & Schools

Manik Makan of Harriman charged as pickup overturns, bursts into flames in Tinton Falls Parkway accident

Authorities charged Manik Makan, a 39-year-old Harriman, N.Y., man with assault by auto and driving while intoxicated after his Land Rover struck a pickup truck at milepost 100.2 of the Garden State Parkway at 4:27 a.m.

FULL ARTICLE

More: News

Aww! Three lion cubs join Six Flags in Jackson

Three new lion cubs came roaring into Six Flags Great Adventure on Wednesday. FULL ARTICLE

More: News

Christian Brothers Academy indoor track captures fourth straight title

Christian Brothers Academy entered the Non-Public A Group Championships meet in search of its fourth consecutive title and a New Jersey state record 19th overall. FULL ARTICLE

More: Sports, High School/Track, Track

Pagano named new baseball coach at Toms River High School North

Andy Pagano, a former Toms River fourth player and an assistant coach there in recent seasons, was approved as the Mariners' head baseball coach Tuesday night by the Toms River Regional Schools' Board of Education, district athletics director Joe Arminio says. FULL ARTICLE
More: Sports, High School Baseball

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and give you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Change the account name | Change account preferences | Subscribe to this page | Terms of service
Privacy Policy | California Privacy Policy | All Content

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Tuesday, February 25, 2014 4:04 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ Colantoni, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 2/25/2014

To view this email as a web page, go here.

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News | Tuesday, February 25, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

What's coming up in the Asbury Park Press

Is it safe to be black in America? High school sports. Open note to see full details. FULL ARTICLE >
More: Lwaxstet

Increase in the Rutgers subsidy is a revenue problem, not a spending issue, officials say

As Rutgers University's chief financial officer for athletics, Janine Purcero understands the perception that the Scarlet Knights administration has gotten out of control with its spending. FULL ARTICLE >
More: Sports, Rutgers Sports

Local weather: Not much snow expected Wednesday

The offshore storm expected Wednesday won't be a major snow-maker in New Jersey — far from it, according to experts. FULL ARTICLE >
More: News

Philip Florio of Beachwood gets six years for trying to hire hit man to kill wife and daughter

Philip Florio of Beachwood has been sentenced to six years in state prison for trying to hire a hit man to kill his wife and daughter because he was upset that his wife didn't bail him out of jail when he was arrested for driving while intoxicated. FULL ARTICLE >
More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Cops arrest Crystal M. Leo of Brick, whom they say was caught on tape in Toms River purse snatching

Crystal M. Leo of Brick was arrested on theft charges in connection with a purse-snatching incident from a 55-year-old woman's shopping cart at

ShopRite. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

WRESTLING PREVIEW: Region VI Tournament seeding a tough task

The 132-pound weight class in Region VI was the most wide-open one in the region throughout the season. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, High School Wrestling

Lakehurst three-car crash sends woman to hospital

A woman was taken to a hospital, and the eastbound lanes of Route 70 were closed for about 45 minutes following a three-car collision Monday afternoon on Route 70, police said. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Howell police chase ends with two arrested

Sammy Davis of Neptune and Anita Benson of Asbury Park were arrested in Lakewood on Monday after a police chase that started after a Walmart loss-prevention officer confronted the pair for alleged shoplifting, police said.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Marlboro to preserve 50-acre tract

The township may soon be preserving another piece of land on Tennent Road.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Project to build levees, add sand to Keansburg to start next week

This time, it's for real. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Sand: Recovery

All lanes to Seaside Heights to open by Memorial Day

The traffic debacle Saturday afternoon that left drivers stranded for hours on clogged roads out of the borough could be resolved by Memorial Day, when the state Department of Transportation promises to re-open all lanes to the tourist magnet. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Send Recovery

Fans stranded at the Strand on Saturday

The show did not go on at the Strand Theatre in Lakewood Saturday night — a cancellation that 'blindsided' one of the show's headliners. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Rutgers women's basketball's chance at NCAA Tournament berth hard to predict

The Rutgers women's basketball team has 20 victories, a Top 25 ranking and its highest scoring offense in 15 years. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Sports, Rutgers Sports

Neptune cops seek public's help in Heck Avenue robbery

Police are seeking the public's help with its investigation into a robbery on Heck Avenue Sunday night. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Jersey Mavhem

Chris Christie no longer the 'hero' of Sandy recovery, poll says

Gov. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, NJ Politics

Road salt for N.J. still stuck at Maine dock

The wayward salt barge that is supposed to shuttle the first 9,500 tons to New Jersey still is stuck in Searsport, Maine. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press (NJ). To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Unsubscribe to editorial mail | Change account preferences | Subscribe to AP Press

Terms of Service

Privacy Policy | About Us | Contact Us | Advertise

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Monday, March 03, 2014 3:39 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 3/3/2014

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News | Monday, March 3, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

Every commuter's question: When is NJT on time?

ADVERTISEMENT

Veronique Hakim was not at NJ Transit headquarters when she was approved on Feb. 24 as the new executive director, so Transportation Commissioner James Simpson had to step in to answer the question: What should be 'job one' for Hakim after taking over?

FULL ARTICLE »

More: Columnist, Larry Higgs

Modern day academics meet gilded age glamour at Georgian Court University in Lakewood

Sneak a peek inside Raymond Hall, a facility that once housed stables and equestrian staff, the 'Casino' building with its three-lane bowling alley, swimming pool, and one of the nation's last remaining 'court' tennis facilities still in existence, or the FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Education: Raritan Valley Community College

Booker's prospects for winning full term look good, poll finds

New Jersey voters are ready to tell Cory Booker: he's got the job.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, NJ Politics

Funding for drug court up in budget

Working with a budget heavily weighted by pension, health benefits and debt costs, Gov. Chris Christie is adding another $4.5 million in his 2015 spending plan to expand drug court programs. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, NJ Politics

UPDATED: Winter storm downgraded for Monmouth County; State of emergency remains in effect

Following the storm, a record cold is expected Monday night as temperatures drop to between 5 below and 5 above zero, according to the National Weather Service statement at 10 p.m. Sunday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News.

Toms River fire destroys one Sandy-damaged home, ignites another

Joseph and Ruth Albanese said they narrowly escaped death when a fire destroyed their neighbor's Bayview Drive house early Sunday morning and ignited their two-story home. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Crisis

Christie associates schemed to trick public about toll increases, reports say

The same crew of Chris Christie political associates involved in the George Washington Bridge lane closures was involved in a scheme to trick the public about Port Authority of New York and New Jersey toll increases, two newspapers reported Sunday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, NJ Politics

Wilhelm brothers ready to shine for Southern Regional at Boardwalk Hall

One would think Matt and Zach Wilhelm have been wrestling with the weight of the world on their shoulders their entire scholastic careers. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, High School Wrestling

Latest winter storm postpones NJSIAA basketball tournaments

The New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association announced Sunday that all of Monday's boys and girls NJSIAA basketball games were postponed to Tuesday, which means all brackets except Non-Public A will be in action on Tuesday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, High School Basketball

Zack Molloy, Toms River North swimmer, shatters records at Meet of Champions

Toms River North senior Zack Molloy had a career day Sunday at the NJSIAA Meet of Champions at the Gloucester County Institute of Technology.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, High School Swimming

Ian Kirk of Howell claims Meet of

Champions title

Howell high jumper Ian Kirk set the bar high back on Dec. FULL ARTICLE »
More: Sports, High School Indoor Track

Belmar-Lake Como parade marches on despite threat of snow storm

The threat of an incoming snowstorm did not stop thousands from scounding bagpipes, pounding drums, or lining up in celebration of Irish heritage through Belmar and Lake Como on Sunday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Here's a look at top Oscar contenders with Garden State ties

This year's Academy Awards will certainly have plenty of New Jersey cred. For proof, just ask Tom Bernard. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Entertainment, Movies

Christie's budget relies on added taxes, fees

Tuesday's boast was a common staple of Gov. Chris Christie's budget addresses, that his spending plan was once again balanced, and for the fifth year in a row requires no new taxes of the people of New Jersey. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, NJ Politics

$200M: The cost of repairing 12 miles of Route 35 wrecked by Sandy

The rebuilding of Route 35 in Ocean County — the stretch shattered by superstorm Sandy — is on track to spend $16 million a mile, of a total of $200 million, when it's finished next summer. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Inside

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Unsubscribe from editorial email | Change account preferences | Subscribe to the Park | Terms of Service
Privacy Notice About Us | Contact Us | Feedback | Ad Choices

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Monday, March 10, 2014 3:04 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 3/10/2014

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News | Monday, March 10, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

Who has made millions off Chris Christie and NJ?

ADVERTISEMENT

The crowd roars as Chris Christie takes to the stage wearing his trademark New Jersey lapel pin. The cavernous banquet hall in Morris County is packed to the walls with the faithful, waving American flags and blue 'Christie for Governor' signs on this November night in 2009.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Watchdog: Investigations

Jackson Liberty's Russo is wrestler to watch in 2015

Mike Russo knows he is good enough to be a state wrestling champion.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: Sports, High School Wrestling

No Narcan for Asbury Park police and fire officials

Randy Thompson is on a mission to save lives. After enduring the loss of one too many loved ones from drug overdoses, the recent epidemic of heroin deaths hit home for the Asbury Park resident. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Mike Russo of Jackson Liberty, Brett Donner of Wall take third

Mike Russo knows he is good enough to be a state wrestling champion.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: Sports, High School Wrestling

Lakewood man in stable condition after being struck by van

A 64-year-old Lakewood man was hospitalized Saturday after he was struck by a minivan at Route 9 and Hadassah Lane about 9:50 p.m., police said.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

School roofs, heating up for voter approval

School officials said the need for new roofs and upgrading the geothermal system, to be funded if Tuesday's $16 million referendum is successful, won't go away, and likely would cost taxpayers more money unless they vote in favor.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Education/Schools

Attendance dips slightly for NJSIAA wrestling championships at Boardwalk Hall

Attendance at the NJSIAA Individual Wrestling Championships dipped slightly in 2014, failing to keep pace with a record-setting 2013.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, High School Wrestling

Police nab men accused of stealing car, heroin possession in Holmdel

Two men were arrested Thursday evening after police discovered they were driving a stolen vehicle on the Garden State Parkway and one of them had possession of heroin, police said.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Crime News

Brush fires break out on Garden State Parkway

A brush fire along the southbound Garden State Parkway on Sunday afternoon is being investigated by State Police.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Lakewood gas station catches fire

Fire ravaged a Delta Gas Station early Sunday morning at Madison Avenue and Route 9, police said.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Bulldogs attack Ocean Township man and his dog

Two American bulldogs attacked a neighborhood man and his dog Saturday morning in the Wanamassa section of the township, according to police.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

Anthony Ashnault, four-time state

champion, inducted into Boardwalk Hall's Hall of Fame

Former South Plainfield High School wrestling star Anthony Ashnault -- New Jersey's only four-time undefeated state champion -- was inducted into the Atlantic City Boardwalk Hall Hall of Fame during a special ceremony prior to the start of Sunday's NJSIAA Tournament finals. FULL ARTICLE

More: Sports, High School Wrestling

Meridian Health Village close to opening in Jackson

Township residents will have the opportunity to see a doctor, get medicine at a pharmacy, and work out at a gym all in the same building by the end of the month or early April. FULL ARTICLE

More: News

Feds: New Medicaid enrollees' estates shouldn't be billed

Can someone newly eligible for Medicaid really have their home and other assets seized after their death to repay the state for the cost of their medical care? FULL ARTICLE

More: News

'Cosmos' is having another moment with 'A Space Odyssey'

Are we ready to return to the stars? FULL ARTICLE

More: Entertainment, Television

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Unsubscribe from editorial electronic mail | Change account preferences | Subscribe to the Paper's Electronic Edition

Privacy Notice | Do Not Sell My Personal Information | Ad Choices

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Saturday, March 15, 2014 3:04 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 3/15/2014

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News | Thursday, March 15, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

What's coming up in the Asbury Park Press

Tax help. Helping our community. Coupons. Open note to see full details. FULL ARTICLE >

More: kwastes.

Lamont Williams, Joshshon Bland walk free after over three years in jail following Long Branch murder acquittal

Lamont Williams, 29, and Joshshon L. Bland, 27, walked free Thursday after a jury in Monmouth County acquitted them of murder and weapons charges in the June 24, 2010, shooting death of 22-year-old Sha-Ron Jackson, said Carlos Diaz-Cobo, the New Brunswick attorney who defended Bland.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

More snow? More snow?!? Forecast for 4 to 6 inches Monday

With the first day of spring just days away, it might snow at the Jersey Shore one more time, according to the National Weather Service in Mount Holy. A significant late winter storm could affect the region Sunday into Monday, with 4 inches or more of snow expected, according to the latest weather statement issued at 4 p.m. Friday. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

Bridge investigation bill: $200,000 and counting

Private lawyers hired to help the legislative committee investigating the George Washington Bridge lane closures billed more than $200,000 for their first few weeks of work. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Watchdog: Your Tax Dollars

Tesla NJ stores will become 'galleries,' where customers can see, but not buy

After April 1, Tesla will no longer be able to sell cars in New Jersey through its stores, thanks to a measure pushed by New Jersey auto dealers that forbids manufacturers from selling direct through stores. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Business

Howell cops need help finding driver who killed Charles McHugh of Spring Lake

Howell police are asking for the public's help in finding the driver who struck and killed bicyclist Charles McHugh of Spring Lake. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Jersey Shore bank makeover leaves customers wondering who are these guys?

Since the recession, a new crop of banks at the Jersey Shore have managed to survive a tepid recovery and heavy regulations designed to ensure another meltdown doesn't happen. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Business

Stafford parents accused of using, dealing heroin in front of their kids; help sought for children

Two Stafford parents – Ian Schwester, 42, and Christina Boid, 38 – are in the Ocean County Jail, charged with endangering their four children because they used and dealt heroin in their presence, police said. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Short-changed by insurance, Sandy victims fight back

Since they bought their oceanfront home in Point Picaent Beach 12 years ago, Carla and Vincent Vitale have spent almost $100,000 on insurance premiums. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Watchdog: Government Accountability

Little Egg Harbor vehicle crashes into home, traps 76-year-old driver

A 76-year-old Little Egg Harbor resident escaped injury but had to be rescued by firefighters Friday afternoon, after driving her vehicle through a garage and into a bedroom of her Pelican Lane residence. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Traffic Mayhem

Keansburg's beach getting wider

Workers have begun pumping more than 1.7 million cubic yards of sand onto the borough's beach. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Sandy Recover

Robert Serao of Berkeley admits role in $40.8 million mortgage fraud conspiracy

Robert Serao, 42, of the Bayville section of Berkeley, on Friday admitted his role in a $40.8 million mortgage fraud conspiracy in which he used his position as a loan officer of Wells Fargo Home Mortgage Inc. to get the company to release more than $4.6 million based on fraudulent mortgage loan applications, the U.S. Attorney for New Jersey said. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Brick official takes $23,000 pay cut

Losing a municipal job will be costly for outgoing Business Administrator Scott Pezarras and township taxpayers. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Watchdog: Your Tax Dollars

Water supplies are at capacity, so why is Jersey Shore being asked to conserve water?

New Jersey American Water Co. executives are asking customers to take steps to conserve water this summer to avoid what would be a multimillion-dollar expansion that ultimately would be paid by consumers. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Business

Press on Your Side: Bad Whirlpool washer put Long Branch couple through the wringer

"We were out of our home for four months after Sandy hit, living in one room with our 5-year-old son and four animals, and now it is taking longer to get a new washing machine repaired than it took to rebuild our entire house," said Steven Schrenk of Long Branch. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Columnists, Press on Your Side

Butts out! Belmar to tell beach smokers

Belmar is on its way to becoming the next Jersey Shore town to ban smoking on its beaches, but one group says the anti-smoking movement has gone so far that government is re-engineering society to eliminate smoker freedoms. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News

To request not to receive future editorial (electronic mail) you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form. (requires log-in).
Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

View our privacy policy | Update account preferences | Subscribe to this Page | Terms of Service
Privacy Policy | California Privacy Rights | Contact Us

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Wednesday, March 19, 2014 3:06 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 3/19/2014

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News Wednesday, March 19, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

What's coming up in the Asbury Park Press

Sports. Spelling bee. Open notes to see full details. FULL ARTICLE >
More: kwastest

Opiate use on rise; report offers recommendations how to stop it

Five years ago, Abby Boxman would not have read a quarter-inch-thick report from another interminably named task force warning of a new drug crisis. FULL ARTICLE >
More: News, NJ Politics

St. Rose is peaking at the right time

Two of the top six teams in the state represent the Shore Conference in the NJSIAA Tournament of Champions today at the Pine Belt Arena in Tomco River. Fifth-seeded St. Rose will square off against fourth-seeded Patterson Eastside at 7:30 p.m. FULL ARTICLE >
More: Sports, High School Basketball

Aron Wiener, sixth-grade Oak Hill student wins spelldown; 'arcus' is winning word

Back and forth they went, round after round on the final night of the 30th annual Spelldown. The words kept getting tougher, more obscure: 'bobbejaar,' 'betalalka,' and 'nenuohar.' FULL ARTICLE >
More: News

Lengthy surgery in Stafford removes bullet for Boss, the pit bull found shot in the face

Boss, the rescued pit bull who was abandoned after someone shot the dog in the face, underwent a lengthy surgical procedure at Stafford Veterinary

Hospital Tuesday to repair a leg injury, assess the the dog's head injuries and possibly remove the lodged bullet from the pup's neck, animal officials said.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Maxhem

Jackson school taxes to rise in 2014-15

Residents could see close to a three percent increase in school taxes for the 2014-15 year. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Education/Schools

Saker ShopRites raises $207,000 for ALS charity

Saker ShopRites presented a check for $207,000 to Joan Dancy D. PALS (People with ALS) Foundation on Tuesday morning at the company's store in the township. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Business

Times Square to Sea Bright for rebuilt Sandy home

The winds and water surge generated by superstorm Sandy cut gashes into Leslie Morris' home, allowing passers-by to stare into what previously had been her private domain. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Sandy Recovery

Port Authority chief David Samson's contracts probed

Federal prosecutors in New Jersey investigating potential conflicts involving Port Authority Chairman David Samson are focusing on whether he helped steer $2.8 billion in port construction contracts to companies his law firm represented. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Politics

Attorney questions Rachel Canning's motives for dropping lawsuit against parents

High school senior Rachel Canning, who attracted international notoriety by suing her parents for child support and college tuition costs after she left their home, has dismissed her lawsuit. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, New Jersey News

Brick couple avoids jail time in Sammy the dog case

Les Brandt stood outside of Superior Court Judge James Blaney's courtroom Tuesday afternoon and could not believe what she had just heard.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Maxhem

Press on Your Side: Scam targeting Verizon customers

Holmdel resident Dennis Schultz was told a $44 credit from Verizon Wireless was waiting for him. All he had to do was log onto a website. But it was a scam. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Columnists, Press on Your Side

One more reason to hate the snow: official blame storm clean up for tax increase in Middletown

Municipal taxes are going up and you can blame old man winter for it, said township officials. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Local Government

Arthur Morgan trial: Detective first thought Tierra's body was a doll

As the trial of Arthur Morgan III in the death of his toddler daughter Tierra Morgan-Glover resumed Tuesday, a retired police detective said he first thought what he saw in the Shark River Park stream was a doll. Instead, it was Tierra's lifeless body. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

New rowing tank a plus for CBA

For most scholastic crew teams in New Jersey, getting out onto a body of water for practice at this time of year is tough. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, High School Sports

Mary Irene Scarnechia, 81, dies from injuries in Brick house fire

Mary Irene Scarnechia, 81, died about 10:30 p.m. Monday of injuries she sustained in a Sunday night fire that engulfed her Nasto Terrace home in the Laurelton Gardens senior community, said Ari Della Fave, spokesman for the Ocean County Prosecutor's Office. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in). Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Unsubscribe | Change account preferences | Subscribe to the Paper

Terms of Order

Address/Address for Delivery (Print or Stamp) (if different)

AJ Colantoni

From: Asbury Park <newsletters@e.app.com>
Sent: Friday, March 28, 2014 3:04 AM
To: AJ Colantoni
Subject: AJ, here are your Asbury Park Press key local stories for 3/28/2014

To view the latest news headlines on your mobile device, click here.
If this message is not displaying properly, click here to launch your browser.

Key Local News | Friday, March 28, 2014

SEE ALL STORIES

CLICK HERE TO FORWARD THIS NEWSLETTER TO A FRIEND!

Christie's $1 million spin-control report

ADVERTISEMENT

For a pricey admission, New Jersey taxpayers now have a front-row seat to Gov. Chris Christie's national rehab from scandal.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Politics

Two more ex-players sue Rutgers; Eddie Jordan named as defendant

Two former Rutgers men's basketball players — including one who is still enrolled at the school — filed a lawsuit Wednesday in Middlesex County Superior Court in New Brunswick seeking damages relating to the conduct of former coach Mike Rice. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, Rutgers Sports

Firefighters rescue 76-year-old woman from burning Munroe Towers apartment in Asbury Park

Firefighters rescued a 76-year-old woman from her burning apartment on the fifth floor of the Munroe Towers, a 15-story high-rise apartment building at 610 Sewall Ave., Asbury Park, said Capt. Richard Dreyer, who is acting battalion chief. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mavhem

Barnegat man, 80, among three charged with heroin offenses, cops say

An 80-year-old man was among three township residents charged with heroin offenses this week, police said Wednesday. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mavhem

Lakewood man charged with trying to steal synagogue donation box

Eliot Shurkin, an 18-year-old man from Engleberg Terrace, remains in the Ocean County Jail, charged with breaking into the Congregation Koi Arveh and trying unsuccessfully to steal the wall-mounted donation box, known as pushka, according to the complaint charges signed March 18 by police.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Wall man charged with stalking through social media sites, cops say

Borough police searched a residence Thursday and charged Kevin Brennar, 44, of Wall Township with stalking through online social media sites, police said. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Police: Colts owner had $29K in cash when arrested

Police say Indianapolis Colts owner Jim Irsay had $29,000 in cash with him when he was arrested last week on suspicion of intoxicated driving.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Nation/World

Dumping in the woods? Smile for the camera

Secret cameras in the woods and criminal prosecutions are part of a new campaign by New Jersey environment and parks officials to fight illegal dumping on public lands. FULL ARTICLE >

More: News

For Jakeabob's, storm recovery aid is too little, too late

By the end of last summer, Gigi Liaguno-Dorr looked out at her life's dream and knew it wasn't going to survive. When superstorm Sandy destroyed her restaurant, Jakeabob's, she picked up and moved down the street.

FULL ARTICLE >

More: News, Sandy Recovery

NJ unemployment rate holds steady at 7.1 percent for February, but 3,700 jobs lost

New Jersey's economy lost 3,700 jobs in February, and its unemployment rate remained stable at 7.1 percent, the state Department of Labor and Workforce Development said Thursday. FULL ARTICLE >

More: Business

Ten arrested in sweep of marijuana ring in Ocean and Monmouth counties, authorities say

Ten people were arrested and 120 pounds of marijuana, $350,000 in cash and marijuana candies designed to look like Jolly Ranchers were seized in what authorities say was a marijuana ring operating in Monmouth and Ocean counties. FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Softball notebook: Durham, Canessa adjust to college life

While the new scholastic softball season remains four days away, all college players have been competing for at least several weeks. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Sports, High School Softball

Colts Neck entrepreneur uses franchising to grow his Retro Fitness and Let's Yo! brands quickly

Eric Casaburi, who lives in Colts Neck, is founder and CEO of Fierce Brands, which owns the Retro Fitness and Let's Yo! Yogurt chains, which have grown rapidly in the past decade. FULL ARTICLE »

More: Business, Main Street

Feds charge 21 with running heroin, cocaine trafficking ring in Monmouth and Ocean

Twenty-one people have been charged by federal officials with running a heroin and cocaine trafficking ring in Monmouth and Ocean counties.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

Detectives re-enact how toddler wound up in stream during Arthur Morgan's murder trial

The jury weighing murder charges against Arthur Morgan III viewed close-up photographs and video this morning of the defendant's 2 1/2-year-old daughter, Tierra Morgan-Glover, after her body was pulled from a stream in Shark River Park where she was found submerged in her car seat on Nov. 22, 2011.

FULL ARTICLE »

More: News, Jersey Mayhem

You may decline to receive further editorial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ. To request not to receive future editorial electronic mail, you may unsubscribe to this mailing or change account preferences using our account management form (requires log-in).

Replying to this message with 'Unsubscribe' in the subject line will deactivate your online account and cease delivery of editorial and commercial electronic mail from The Asbury Park Press NJ within a maximum of 10 business days. Changing account preferences using the account management form may cease further electronic mail faster and gives you more control over what kind of email you want or don't want to receive.

Unsubscribe from electronic mail | Change account preferences | Subscribe to this Page |

Terms of Service

Privacy Notice | Your Content | Privacy | Help | Contact Us