

PROGRAM ISSUES 2ND QUARTER 2014

WTCV

Program: De todo y con todo con Angel Oliveras

Type: Public Affairs

Broadcast: Monday through Friday from 8:00 to 10:00am

Description: The host discusses these and other issues with guests and the public.

Source: Locally Produced

Issues April 2014

Issues

1. Community and Police
2. Event: Equality in Healthcare for LGBTT
3. Contamination en the Toa Alta Municipality
4. Drugs and crime amongst our youth

April 3rd - The host interviewed Mr Hector Delgado, Community Leader of Carolina City, about how the police can be more effective in attending issue concerning poor communities.

April 7 – Dr. Carmen Milagros Velez, was invited to talk about this first time event, where doctors and other health professionals, discuss the difficulties of healthcare among the LGBTT community.

April 18 – Ediberto Rodríguez Legislator for the Toa Alta Municipality spoke about the community’s concern on the city’s contamination.

April 25 – Teen Challenge representative, Veronica Rosato, discusses the alarming issues on drugs and crime amongst young people between the ages of 16 through 30.

Issues May 2014

Issues

1. Bankruptcy
2. Civil rights of Dominicans
3. Public Education
4. Firearms

May 2nd – Edgardo Mangual, Esq., a private practice lawyer, provides guidance to the public on this growing issue among citizens.

May 14 – The host interviewed Rolando Acosta, community advocate, about how everyday Dominicans have their rights violated.

May 20 – Teacher of the education public system, Mrs. Marylin Navarro, talks about the needs in education.

May 21 – Ariel Torres, firearms expert, was interviewed about how to use guns correctly.

Issues June

Issues

1. Immigrants civil rights
2. Energy reform
3. Case of aggression against Río Piedras merchant

June 2 – Mr. Jose Rodriguez, civil rights leader, talks about immigrants rights.

June 9 – The President of the Electricity and Energy Labor Union speaks on behalf of union workers and the loss of benefits.

June 12 – Juana Burgos, merchant of the Rio Piedras area, exposes an incident of aggression suffered by the hands of the Municipal Police of San Juan.