

PROGRAM ISSUES 3RD QUARTER 2014

WTCV

Program: De todo y con todo con Angel Oliveras

Type: Public Affairs

Broadcast: Monday through Friday from 8:00 to 10:00am

Description: The host discusses these and other issues with guests and the public.

Source: Locally Produced

Issues July 2014

Issues

1. High energy costs
2. Special education
3. Public students behavior

July 2nd – Mr. Wilson Rodríguez, has become an expert challenging unexplained costs on electric bills and was offering guidance to the public on how to do it.

July 8 – A mother, who wished to remain anonymous, explained how she had to move from her hometown to another city in order to receive better care for her special needs child.

July 22 – Mrs. Alba López, a school social worker, exposed what she has to endure with poor students behavior and the arrogant attitude of some parents.

Issues August 2014

Issues

1. Abuse of elderly mental health person
2. Special needs child
3. Child Support amendments

August 1 – Mrs. Gloria Maldonado, exposed the case of her elderly mentally ill sister, who is being mistreated by her caretaker. The case was referred to the Department of Family and the Advocate to the Elderly.

August 8 – A mother explained the agony and torment she has had to endure in the search of services for her child from the Department of Education.

August 11 and 25 – Senator Carmelo Ríos, discussed the amendments for child support and joint custody.

Issues September 2014

Issues

1. Housing and unemployment
2. Public schools
3. Domestic Violence

September 3rd – Mr. and Mrs Cruz, narrate how they have searched for jobs for over a year, with no luck and how they are about to lose their home, because of it.

September 12 – The host brings for open discussion the poor conditions of public schools and how students' performance has diminished throughout the years.

September 23 – Attorney at law, Maria Velázquez, speaks about the process to follow if a woman feels she is being abused.