

WXCI ISSUES / PROGRAMS REPORT

1st QUARTER 2024

Name of program: The Advocate

Date program aired: 3-24-24

Start time of program: 9:00a

Duration of program: 61 Minutes

Issue discussed: Paid Leave

Brief narrative describing the guest and content of interview or lecture:

With the Connecticut Legislative Labor Committee recently approving 3 bills aimed at providing paid sick days for workers in smaller businesses we learn about the Paid Leave Program in Connecticut and the women who helped make it possible, in an International Women's Day Roundtable hosted by the Connecticut Paid Leave Authority, the Commission on Women, Children, Seniors, Equity & Opportunity and the Governor's Council on Women and Girls, as we here from: State Rep Robyn Porter; Erin Choque, CEO of the Connecticut Paid Leave Authority; Nisha Phelps, who works for the Family Values At Work Action Organization; Laurie Supernot, a small business owner; Veronica Delantro of Live Girl; Chana Woods Weber, CEO and executive director of She Leads Justice; Mary Jane Foster, president and CEO of Interval House; and the moderator of the roundtable LT Governor Susan Bysiewicz