GOVERNOR AND LT. GOVERNOR'S 79TH GUAM LIBERATION DAY MESSAGE – Håfa Adai. We join the people of Guam today in reflection. Nearly 82 years ago on December 8, 1941, our parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents were in prayer, paying homage to Santa Marian Kamalen when they heard the planes and learned of the first attacks on our humble island home. For 32 long months of enemy occupation, our people endured unspeakable harm, oppression, and even death. Despite fear and uncertainty, their faith endured. And on July 21st, 1944, American military forces began their campaign to retake our island. We celebrate that success today. Time and again, our people have proven resilient throughout our history, in war, super typhoons, earthquakes, and a pandemic, we persevered. Most recently with Typhoon Mawar, we forged forward stronger than before. On this most celebrated day, we remember the brave service members who liberated Guam. We thank those who serve us proudly, and we honor our greatest generation, who we are forever indebted to. Each of you and your sacrifices secure the peace and freedoms we enjoy today. Together, we look towards a bright future, when the rays of our island's sun illuminate the hopes and successes of our people. We invite you to join us as we rejoice in the commemoration of our island's 79th liberation. Biba Guam! (1 minute and 46 seconds)
