Series: The Christian and Government

Monday, October 19 – The Christian's Responsibility to Government, Part 1

When legislators pass laws that run counter to Scripture—what should you do? And how much priority should you place on political activism? Bottom line, what's a Christian's responsibility to government? Find out, on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, October 20 – The Christian's Responsibility to Government, Part 1

You've heard of Nero . . . the first-century Roman emperor who outlawed Christianity and murdered thousands of believers. What did the apostle Paul—who lived in that society—say about the Roman government? How do his words apply to you today . . . no matter what kind of government you live under? Find out on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, October 21 – The Christian's Responsibility to Government, Part 2

It's been said that resistance to tyrants is obedience to God. Well, that could be true, depending on the circumstances—for example if the government commands you to do something that violates Scripture, you need to obey God, not man. But if you live in a democratic republic, like the United States, how can you honor God with your vote? And how should you respond to a government whose policies are opposed to God's Word? Find out, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Thursday, October 22 – The Christian's Responsibility to Government, Part 2

Say that your government misuses tax revenue . . . makes laws based on political correctness, not morality . . . and tends to deal harshly with its critics. How can submitting to a government like that further your Christian testimony? Wouldn't it be better—make a stronger statement—to protest against, and even disobey, government actions that dishonor God? Hear more from John MacArthur on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, October 23 – The Christian's Responsibility to Government, Part 3

It seems that every presidential election here in the United States stirs concern and anxiety about the future of this country. And that can be good—it can increase your desire for heaven. But while you're serving the Lord here . . . how can you make sure your earthly citizenship honors Christ? And, if someone who rejects God and His Word comes to power . . . does your responsibility change? Find out, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Series: The Christian and Government (Cont'd)

Monday, October 26 – The Christian's Responsibility to Government, Part 4

You've heard the political slogans . . . "A future to believe in" . . . "change we need." They're based on a simple premise: That the people in power aren't fulfilling their basic responsibilities. But in order to know what government should look like . . . you have to first answer the question . . . why does government exist? What is its God-given purpose? Hear more, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, October 27 – The Christian's Responsibility to Government, Part 4

Perhaps you've heard that capital punishment is the only appropriate penalty for murder—the eye-for-an-eye, tooth-for-a-tooth principle the Bible talks about. And maybe you've also heard that the death penalty deters crime. But doesn't God say, "Vengeance is mine; I will repay"? And how do you dismiss all the statistics that seem to show that there is no link between capital punishment and crime deterrence? Hear more, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, October 28 – Paying Your Taxes, Part 1

Benjamin Franklin said, "In this world nothing is certain . . . except death and taxes." Well, with taxes in mind . . . if your government uses tax money for things you disagree with as a Christian, what should you do—what does Scripture say? Find out as John MacArthur explains on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, October 29 – Paying Your Taxes, Part 2

Government is ordained by God for the preservation of life and property. And those who serve it do so as ministers of God. Now that isn't to say they're all Christians that isn't to say they all do everything they ought to do. It is to say that in the design of government they serve a divine purpose. Hear more from John MacArthur on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, October 30 – Paying Your Taxes, Part 2

On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur brings biblical clarity to the often complicated issue of taxes as he continues his study from Romans 13 titled . . . The Christian and Government. John's going to show you what the apostle Paul—who lived under anything but a godly government—had to say about taxes. That's on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.
