

Political Broadcasting Statement

Blue Mountain Broadcasting Association is a Christian TV station that does not broadcast any political issues or programs that contain controversial topics pertaining to any partisan organization or individual. There are no candidates for public office who are interviewed on behalf of their campaigns or are given time to expound upon any part of their political platform. There is no paid or free time given to any candidates for public office.