

ISSUES REPORT FOR KERM INC FOR FOURTH QUARTER OF 2022 (OCT-NOV-DEC)

The fourth quarter was an intense political time and in that regard KURM AM and KURM FM...broadcast a wide range of political messages, and interviews to assist candidates in reaching the voting public.

It was a time in which prospects for the closing of a school at Garfield... which was an emotional issue. Numerous interviews were presented featuring Garfield mayor, Gary Blackburn, faculty and administration of the schools in airing public discussions. Likewise interviews were conducted with persons debating the widening of a local highway...which affects a big portion of Benton County.

ADDITIONAL COVERAGE-

10-26-22 MERLDITH JONES AND MICHAELLE TETER...of Community Blood Center appeared on Party Line to urge support of the blood drive in Springdale and Rentonville. (KURM RAN AT LEAST 50 PSA ANNOUNCEMENT IN SUPPORT OF THE BLOOD DRIVE)

11-4-22 officials of the school and Garfield City appeared to discuss proposed school closing.

11-15-22 DECCA students of Rogers High school appeared on Party Line to promote the upcoming Decca auction (5 hour broadcast furnished by KURM)

11-22-22 Former Congressman Roger Williams whose father furnished the cars for JFK's motorcade, appeared to discuss the anniversary of that shooting in Dallas.

11-22-22 Bruce Rollison, coach of Mater Dea H.S. appeared to discuss his team's upcoming game in the Rose Bowl.

12-22-22 Shelly Smith appeared on Party Line to discuss the change in retired teachers insurance coverage, which has led to several teachers losing their drug coverage. Program purposed in seeking state representatives involvement to solve this issue.

12-23-22 Congressman Steve Womack appeared on Party Line to discuss his vote for the Omnibus proposal...and explain his vote in favor of the bill.

ADDITIONALLY, KURM AM and KURM FM continued its offering of free want ads for our listeners...as well as the stations continued coverage of local governmental meetings.

KURM also recorded a series of area school programs of Christmas music for coverage during the Christmas season. Approximately 15 schools were involved.

KURM presented its annual YEAR IN REVIEW SUMMARY OF TOP LOCAL STORIES. This presentation was 27 hours in length...and featured about 250 local newsmakers including a who's who of leaders and public officials.

1-1-23

KURM AM AND KURM FM

Kermit Womack

Owner

