To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advised that the programming network currently known as ABC Family does not currently air children's programming that is subject to the quarterly certification requirements of the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act"). Should ABC Family commence airing children's programming that is subject to the Act during the term of the ABC Family License Agreement, we will commence providing you with quarterly certifications in accordance with the Act. You may rely on this certification for all future quarters until further notification by ABC Family.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING – PERPETUAL CERTIFICATION

This is to certify that the E! Entertainment programming service (the "Service") does not currently contain any children's programming as defined under 47 CFR 76.255 of the rules and regulation of the Federal Communications Commission.

In the event that the Service includes any children's programming on its schedule after the date hereof, the Service will provide in writing, by the tenth day following the end of the calendar quarter in which such children's programming is added, a description of such programming specifying the dates and time of transmission and the duration of the "commercial matter" included therein.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
