

ISSUES/PROGRAMS 4th QUARTER 2017

KBXL 94.1 FM, BOISE ID

ISSUE: Marriage
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Family Talk
DATE: 10/02/17
DURATION: 57:00
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: Pastor Ted Cunningham reflects on his fun-loving engagement and marriage to his bride of 17 years, Amy, but admits that the early years of matrimony weren't without their challenges. Ted talks about the difficulty he had of opening his heart to his wife, especially about his struggle with lust. Once he overcame his fear, however, they began to experience authentic, true joy.

ISSUE: Parenting
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Focus on the Family
DATE: 10/10/17- 10/11/17
DURATION: 57:00
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: Michael Anderson and Dr. Timothy Johanson encourage parents to stop trying so hard to raise "perfect" kids by lecturing, reminding and warning them – which are often ineffective anyway. Our guests advise that parents should instead adopt a more hands-off approach that lets natural consequences teach their children.

ISSUE: Emotional Wellness
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Live Morning Drive with Doug Hardy
DATE: 10/13/17
DURATION: 15:15
TYPE: Interview
DESCRIPTION: Ted and Gayle Haggard take a break from hosting a workshop at a local church to sit down with Doug Hardy. They discuss a past scandal that had the potential to destroy their marriage, careers, and relationships. Ted and Gayle's story of forgiveness and redemption encourages others to find reconciliation amidst hopelessness and depression.

ISSUE: Historical Education
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: The Gospel Changes Everything
DATE: 10/31/17
DURATION: 14:00
TYPE: Interview
DESCRIPTION: Josh Bales, pastor of The Well Church, interviews local pastors Johnathan Van Hoogan and Phil Moran. It is the 500-year anniversary of the Reformation with

Martin Luther. Bales, Van Hoogan, and Moran discuss what the Reformation is, what events led to this dramatic event, and what it meant for Christianity as we know it.

ISSUE: Marriage
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Life Point Plus
DATE: 10/27/17 & 11/03/17
DURATION: 13:00
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: Gary Moore of Cloverdale Church of God lays out and expands on eight symptoms of a stuck marriage. He then gives practical advice for how to respond to a stuck marriage that does not include divorce. Moore encourages listeners and their spouses to jointly seek more resources through their ministry as they seek to have a joy-filled marriage even in the midst of the grind.

ISSUE: Education
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Heart of the Athlete
DATE: 11/11/17
DURATION: 25:00
TYPE: Interview
DESCRIPTION: Ken Lewis, director of Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA), and Pablo Moreno, Ada County Director, discuss why and how listeners should be involved in the activities FCA has to offer families.

ISSUE: Social Awareness
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Live Morning Drive with Doug Hardy
DATE: 11/14/17
DURATION: 12:30
TYPE: Interview
DESCRIPTION: Justin Jordan, lead pastor of Real Life Ministries, discusses his church's outreach to needy kids in Meridian and how listeners can make a difference as well.

ISSUE: Health
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Life, Health & Things That Matter
DATE: 11/16/17
DURATION: 25:30
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: Tony and Brenda Ball discuss how difficult it is to not just lose weight, but to keep it off. They emphasize the importance of diet in the quest for weight loss and give helpful tips for eating well through the holidays. They provide an easy structured eating plan to help listeners stay strong in their health, year after year.

ISSUE: Social Awareness

HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Game Plan for Life
DATE: 11/18/17
DURATION: 29:00
TYPE: Interview
DESCRIPTION: Host Skip Hall has a conversation with Bill Jones, the Boise Chief of Police. He discusses the most important aspects of his job, such as his involvement in the department hiring process. Although Boise is one of the safest cities in the nation, he gives tips to listeners for how they can keep themselves safe during the holidays, such as keeping cars unlocked and valuables out of sight.

ISSUE: Social Awareness
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Grace and Truth
DATE: 11/26/17
DURATION: 28:00
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: Bruce Young of First Baptist Church in Boise opens up on the topic of racism. He first defines what racism is and where it can be found, including inside the Church. Young teaches that when we categorize people into types and labels, it's almost impossible to remain unbiased. Nevertheless, that's what God is-unbiased, impartial, and fair. And, as we come to know Him better, we will become like Him. He takes listeners through some Scriptures and outlines ways to guard against prejudice and racism.

ISSUE: Community Notification
HOW TREATED: PSA
TITLE: National Day of Prayer
DATE: 11/27/17- 12/09/17
DURATION: 30 seconds
TYPE: Informational
DESCRIPTION: National Day of Prayer is holding "Carols at the Capitol" in Boise on Saturday, December 9th from 2-3pm.

ISSUE: Education
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Extra
DATE: 12/07/17
DURATION: 12:30
TYPE: Informational
DESCRIPTION: Doug Hardy discusses a controversial post that a local church elder/blogger recently released and which caught the attention of a national news channel. Tim Challies wrote about why children's sleepovers can be dangerous, bringing light to the many negative (and possibly life-altering) experiences that can, and often do, happen at seemingly innocent sleepovers.

ISSUE: Local Business
HOW TREATED: Program

TITLE: Game Plan for Life
DATE: 12/09/17
DURATION: 28:00
TYPE: Interview
DESCRIPTION: Host Skip Hall sits down with Jim Stephens of Sandler Training. Stephens discusses his mission for the company and how it has impacted businesses and people as it grows in Boise. The Sandler sales methodology fosters an attitude of leadership, rather than just emphasizing technique. Sandler trainers use the Sandler sales methodology in their mission to train and mentor others to be successful. As 2017 comes to a close, Stephens encourages listeners to focus on activities that help achieve goals, as opposed to being results-focused, in 2018.

ISSUE: Current Events
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Jay Sekulow Live
DATE: 12/19/17
DURATION: 59:30
TYPE: Informational
DESCRIPTION: Jay Sekulow, Chief Counsel of the American Center for Law and Justice (ACLU), discusses the news that Congress voted on a historic tax bill and the financial effects it may have on listeners.

ISSUE: Emotional Wellness
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Turning Point
DATE: 12/20/17- 12/21/17
DURATION: 28:30
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: Dr. David Jeremiah discusses the practice of casting out fear. Many people let fear drive their decisions, ruin their relationships, and, as the holidays approach, drive them deeper into loneliness and depression. Jeremiah considers the power of fear, and how fear can be conquered by the even greater power of its opposite, love, as revealed in the book of First John.

ISSUE: Emotional Wellness
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Insight for Living
DATE: 12/27/17- 12/29/17
DURATION: 27:00
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: The "what ifs" of life may bring us face to face with frightening possibilities: loss, failure, being lied to, financial hardship, threats from enemies. Just thinking about these possibilities can make us shudder! Thankfully, our mighty God walks with us into each fearful circumstance, shining the light of His Word and inspiring steady faith. In this study, listeners venture through the iron gate of their hometown cemetery into the most terrifying of all possibilities: death. Here, Chuck Swindoll asks the question: What if you were to die tonight? God's reassuring hand and the light of His Word helps listeners answer this question with confidence, courage, and hope.
