ISSUE: Education
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: The Gospel Changes Everything
DATE: 01/02/18 - 01/04/18
DURATION: 42:00
TYPE: Interview
DESCRIPTION: Josh Bales, pastor of The Well Church, interviews Greg Koukl. Koukl is the author of the book, Tactics, and heads up the website, Stand to Reason (www.str.org). Stand to Reason trains Christians to think more clearly about their faith and to make an even-handed, incisive, yet gracious defense for their belief system. They teach careful thinking and encourage Christians to develop coherent answers to questions with which they are challenged.

ISSUE: Health
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Life, Health & Things That Matter
DATE: 01/04/18
DURATION: 25:26
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: Tony and Brenda Ball start this new year off by encouraging listeners in their health journey. They remind people that there is no quick fix to healthy living, but that it is a continuous journey filled with growth and learning.

ISSUE: Science
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Family Talk
DATE: 01/08/18 - 01/09/18
DURATION: 50:00
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: On this edition of Family Talk, Dr. Dobson will sit down with author David Rives to consider the science behind Biblical creation and why the next generation needs to be more informed about this topic. The two will also examine the flaws of an evolutionary worldview and why an intelligently designed universe gives life purpose and meaning.

ISSUE: Parenting
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Focus on the Family
DATE: 01/12/18
DURATION: 28:30
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: In a conversation centered on their book Put the Disciple into Discipline, Erin MacPherson and her mother, Ellen Schuknecht, discuss the importance of parents demonstrating love in the midst of disciplining their children. Erin and Ellen also talk about teaching our kids' self-control, helping them (and ourselves) become slow to anger, and faith training.

ISSUE: Historical Education
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Live Morning Drive with Doug Hardy
DATE: 01/15/18
DURATION: 14:00
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: On this holiday, Doug Hardy discusses the pastoral side of Martin Luther King, Jr, the most overlooked aspect of his personhood. He expands upon America's need for solid, biblical teaching like MLK Jr. brought to the world. He embodied the necessary aspects and practices that American preachers need, especially when it comes to social change.

ISSUE: Education
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: In Touch Ministries
DATE: 02/09/18
DURATION: 24:30
TYPE: Educational
DESCRIPTION: Strong character does not just happen. It's the result of consistently responding well to both the mundane and the major events in daily life. Learn about "The True Test of Character" when you listen to "In Touch with Dr. Charles Stanley."

ISSUE: Social Awareness
HOW TREATED: Program
TITLE: Game Plan for Life
DATE: 02/17/18
DURATION: 29:00
TYPE: Interview
DESCRIPTION: Host Skip Hall interviews Lt. Clebe McClary, a marine, a Christian, and American hero. During the Vietnam War, while some of his contemporaries were staging anti-war protests and desecrating the American flag, the Lowcountry native was serving as a platoon leader in the First Reconnaissance Battalion. On the battalion's 19th patrol, the unit was attacked by the Viet Cong. Lieutenant McClary was seriously wounded, losing his left arm and left eye, yet he continued to lead his men. The numerous surgeries and long recovery period that followed could have taken a bitter toll, but he faced his rehabilitation with characteristic determination. In the years since, Lieutenant McClary has become a symbol of courage and hope to the many audiences around the world with whom he has shared his story.
